The BULLETIN

TWO EARN TENURE; SIX ARE PROMOTED

Two faculty members have been awarded tenure, effective in September, and six others have been promoted to new rank.

President John M. Pfau announced the changes, which are for the 1968-69 academic year.

Tenure has been awarded to Dr. G. Keith Dolan, Professor of Education and Coordinator of the Secondary Credential Program, and to Dr. James T. Freeman, Professor of Psychology and Director of Institutional Studies.

The promotions were to the following ranks:

Assistant Professor - Robert T. Goss (German), George Iwanaga (Spanish).

Associate Professor - Dr. Mary Cisar (Political Science), Dr. Dennis L. Ikenberry (Physics), Dr. Ward M. McAfee (History).

Professor - Dr. Leslie E. Van Marter (Philosophy).

DR. EGGE APPOINTED BIOLOGY COORDINATOR

Dr. Alfred S. Egge, Associate Professor of Biology, has been appointed to the new post of Coordinator, Department of Biology.

President John M. Pfau announced the appointment. He said Dr. Egge would assist Dr. Ralph Petrucci, Chairman of the Division of Natural Sciences, in handling many of the problems connected with ordering equipment and supplies, developing the biology curriculum, and organizing the biology laboratories.

Dr. Egge joined the College faculty in September, 1966. Last fall he was appointed to a five-man consultative committee, representing the 18 California State Colleges, to decide whether the CSC system will establish new programs in Marine Science.
