ACCREDITATION TEAM TO VISIT CAMPUS NEXT WEEK

An accreditation team will be on campus next week, Thursday and Friday, April 14 and 15, to review seven areas of the College.

The five-person visitation team, headed by Dr. Leonard Rice, President of Oregon College of Education, will examine the School of Administration, Department of Health Science, the Interdisciplinary Programs, the Library, Institutional Research, Computer Center and Academic Administration.

This is an annual accreditation visit to the College by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). Faculty and administrators in the areas to be reviewed are asked to cooperate with the visitation team by being available for consultation all day Thursday and through the early afternoon on Friday and, if requested, to open their classrooms to the visitors.

In addition to Dr. Rice, team president, other members are Claude T. Cook, Emeritus Professor of Health Sciences, Cal State U, Northridge; Randy Hamilton, Dean, Public Administration, Golden Gate University; Howard D. Lowe, Professor of Accounting and Finance, University of Hawaii, Manoa; and Johanna Tallman, Director of Libraries, Cal Tech, Pasadena.

Distinguished Lecturer DR. F. CLARK HOWELL OF LEAKEY FOUNDATION TO PRESENT LECTURE WEDNESDAY

Dr. F. Clark Howell, one of the world's foremost paleo-anthropologists, will deliver an illustrated lecture, Wednesday, April 13, on "Unravelling the Distant Human Past," at 8 p.m. in PS-10.

Dr. Howell is associated with the L.S.B. Leakey Foundation and is a professor of anthropology at the University of California, Berkeley.

Dr. Howell's topic will deal with the recent advances in world-wide researches into mankind's origins and early evolution, the origins of the genus Homo, and the appearance of our own species, Homo sapiens.

For the past 25 years, Dr. Howell has conducted surveys and excavations in Europe and Africa in his investigations of human origins and development. He is the author of numerous books and professional papers on human evolutionary studies.

The College and the public are invited to attend, free of charge.

GOVERNOR BROWN PROPOSES FIVE PERCENT RAISE FOR FACULTY 77-78 SALARIES

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke has issued the following statement regarding Governor Brown's budget amendment that would result in 5 percent faculty salary increases in 1977-78:

Professor F. Clark Howell
