"THE BALD SOPRANO"
SET FOR PERFORMANCES

Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano," directed by Dan Eggleston, senior drama major, will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, June 1 and 2. The College and public are invited to attend the free performances at 8:15 p.m. in the Lower Commons.

The Ionesco play was one of a trio of plays in the College's first drama production in 1966. "It is a comic piece about 'lack of communication' and was his first play, written in 1950s -- avant garde," according to the student director.

MINIGRANT PROPOSALS
FOR 1977-78 SOUGHT

The amount of funds available for faculty minigrants for 1977-78 has been tentatively estimated at $12,500, to become available for use by late July or early August.

Upon approval of such funds, the maximum amount for each project will be increased from $2,500 to $5,000 and release time will be available to faculty for exceptional projects which demonstrate the need for such time. Guidelines have also been changed to allow for use of funds for release time.

Faculty who have a project in mind which could be started over the summer or early Fall, are asked to submit a proposal for a minigrant. Forms and guidelines are available in school offices or through the following representatives: Neville Spencer, Charles Hoffman, Hal Hoverland and Don Woodford.

The deadline is Thursday, June 2, 5 p.m.

FOUR SAINTS IN THREE ACTS

A unique musical production will initiate the recital hall of the new Creative Arts Building Saturday and Sunday, June 4 and 5.

"Four Saints in Three Acts," music by Virgil Thomson and libretto by Gertrude Stein, will be presented by the Concert Choir and Chamber Orchestra at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

The oratorio version of the unusual opera will be directed by Richard Saylor, Professor of Music.

The music consists of a parody of many musical conventions and the lyrics parody the conventions of language. "Hymn tunes, opera-like arias, cabaret music, all set to unexpected word patterns, delude us into thinking we are hearing something that makes sense," says Dr. Saylor.

Loren Filbeck, Asst. Prof., Music and Amanda Sue Rudisill, Assoc. Prof., Drama, will be seen in the roles of Compere and Commere. Vicki Johnson sings the role of St. Teresa I and Sandra MacAulay is St. Teresa II. Kevin Price is St. Ignatius. Joseph Coyazo appears as St. Chavez and Corrine Soto as St. Settlement.

Other cast members are Lori Haage, Dean McIntyre, Terry Downs, Sarah Nesbit, Susan Leifheit, Becky Huskey, Anna Urbanek, Gina Baca, Charles Talmadge, Ann Eastman, Burt Griswold, Sylvia Silva, Jane Longan, Tammy McCauley and Michael Tachia.

Philip West, music technician, is stage manager and in charge of lighting.

TICKET INFORMATION: Admission to "Four Saints in Three Acts," is $1.50. Tickets are now on sale at the Music Department Office, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Free tickets are available to children and students with I.D. at the box office prior to each performance
