Philosophy Forum Attacks Vietnam Issues

'HAWKS, DOVES, AND VIETNAM'

The Philosophy Forum will sponsor an examination of 'Hawks and Doves and Vietnam' tomorrow afternoon in PS 10, from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Professor Lawrence Sneden of the Sociology Department, will join Professors Paul Johnson and Leslie Van Marter of the Philosophy Department in exploring the assumptions relevant to any action intended to solve the problems posed by the war.

Although the discussion will not act as a formal debate, the participants are expected to conduct an interesting and lively session on the war. All members of the college community are welcome, and Professor Van Marter noted that there will be "ample opportunity for audience participation."

FACULTY RECRUITING 'DIFFICULT'

Commenting on the current difficulties in recruiting faculty in the state college system, Dr. Gerald Scherba, Dean of Academic Affairs, said that CSCSB is seeking 21 new faculty members for the 1968-69 academic year.

The system-wide difficulties were reported in a two-part Pawprint article, citing that the state colleges can no longer attract top personnel because offers of salary, teaching loads, and benefits are proving inadequate when compared to other colleges and universities that the System must compete with.

Speech Policy Eyed In Sub-committee

by Darrow Milgrim
PAWPRINT Staff Writer

A speech and advocacy policy has been proposed by a student and faculty sub-committee.

If approved by the parent committees (Lectures and Public Affairs, and Student Affairs), the recommendations will be sent to the faculty senate and the President of the College for their approval.

The major sections of the proposal are:

(1) "Freedom should be exercised with responsibility; freedom of inquiry and expression do not justify lawlessness."

(2) A procedure for campus organizations and students to invite guest speakers to the college will be set up.

It also includes (3) a method for the creation of ad hoc groups to invite speakers to the campus.

(4) The policy will also govern a free expression area where members of the college community may speak and distribute non-commercial literature.

The Dean of students will approve the scheduling of events before they are publicized.

The purpose of the policy now being formulated by the sub-committee is stated in the proposal: "the search for knowledge requires the freedom of expression." CSCSB is committed to these principles, it adds.

"Because of salary restrictions, the College must work very hard to find and attract capable men. We are having difficulty in finding qualified applicants in all fields, but especially in Sociology, Education, and Mathematics," Dean Scherba commented.

Out of 21 new personnel needed, he added, nine members have been appointed so far in Drama, English, Spanish, Business, Economics, History, and French, "and have firm offers out of four more people," Scherba said.

TEMPORARY LOT WILL BE READY THIS WEEK

The temporary, unsurfaced parking lot near the BS building will be ready this week, according to Jim Penman, AS President.

Preparations for the lot began late last week and was reported in the Friday Pawprint.

Penman said that there might be an "informal" ceremony to celebrate the opening of the lot, thus making access to the science buildings more convenient not only for classes during the day, but for lectures at night.

PE Facilities Hit and Pass Half-way Mark

Delano Drive Grossed $428

The Delano Food Drive, sponsored by the Redlands Council of Churches and the Spanish Honor Society of CSCSB, Zeta Pi, has announced that a total of six carloads of food and $428 were collected in this area and sent to the striking workers at Delano.

In one of the most unusual dramas of modern California, the migrant workers have managed to hold their own against the monetary might of the giant farm corporations.

Led by Cesar Chavez, the people of the fertile San Joaquin valley have asserted their rights as individuals and have demanded a fair share in the wealth of this great agricultural center. Though victory is not yet theirs, the support of many concerned people throughout the state has made it possible for the struggle to continue even after the resources of the workers had come to an end.

The community may soon be asked to renew their support for the people of Delano. Plans are being made for another Food Drive and it is to be hoped that response will be even greater than the first. Though many feel the cause is hopeless, the struggle will not cease. The people of Delano intend to establish their right to collective bargaining and to earn a liveable wage. With the help of all Californians this dream will become a reality.

VIEW of the Physical Education PS Building. Structure, including pool will cost $1,200,000.

ARTISTS CONCEPTION of the PE complex. Exterior will be integrally colored "limestone" concrete featuring a herringbone pattern of raised ribbing as a surface texture.

SUMMER OCCUPANCY EXPECTED

The Physical Education facilities, under construction south-east of the Physical Science building, are approximately 55% complete, according to the office of the Executive Dean.

The official contract completion date is set for June 1968, but occupancy can be more realistically expected in July or August.

The building will have approximately 36,000 square feet, and will house a 1,450-seat gymnasium (with two practice basketball courts), an activity room, a PE classroom, faculty offices and locker rooms.

The outdoor pool will be 75 x 45 feet, and 4 to 13 feet deep. The pool will sport three diving boards, two of them one-meter and one will be three-meter.

Lighting and pool heating will be provided, and an eight-foot-high concrete fence will surround the pool.

The cost of the facilities, including architects' fees, is set at $1,200,000.
