   It was m/J. Stevenson, s/A. Lane-APPROVED

2. Guest Speaker
   a. Marissa Boles from the Staff Development Center (SDC) spoke with the SC members about the new Coyote Literature Circle. The Coyote Literature Circle is intended to promote your professional and personal development at CSUSB through the reading and discussion of literature that is relevant to areas of growth. The launch date for this program will be April 3rd and this group will meet every Tuesday in the SDC office from 12-1pm. Currently, there are fifteen staff members that have signed up. If anyone wants to join this group then they can email Marissa Boles at marissa.boles@csusb.edu or sign up on the SDC website at online at https://www.csusb.edu/staff-development-center/connect/coyote-literature-circle.

3. Officer Reports
   a. Chair
      i. Garcia mentioned that he sent out an email to campus inviting staff to join SC members in attending the President Open Staff Forum on March 16th.
      ii. Garcia mentioned that the Veterans Success Center is looking for a SC member to serve on the Veterans Success Center Director Search Committee. Wildes stated that she is willing to serve on this committee.

   b. Vice Chair
      i. Huston asked SC members for feedback regarding the Staff Council meeting/announcement flyer. Several members provided feedback so Huston will revise the flyer and bring it to the next meeting.
      ii. Huston mention that she emailed the meet and great follow-up questions to the SC members. There was some discussion and Freer mentioned that we might want to include the mission statement above the follow-up questions so that staff will know what SC is all about.

   c. Secretary
      Cromwell had no new business
d. Treasurer
   Dorsey had no new business

4. Old Business
   a. Elections
      i. Stevenson mentioned that the Elections Committee is asking all SC members hold April 30th and be available to count ballots. The Elections Committee has yet to receive nominations. There are some technical issues with the online nomination form that Garcia will fix. The Elections Committee plans to have a few “Meet the Candidate” dates in March.

5. New Business
