The BULLETIN

NEW CSC TRUSTEE APPOINTED

William A. Norris, vice president of the State Board of Education and an attorney in Los Angeles, was appointed early in December as a trustee of the California State Colleges. Norris, 39, succeeds Dr. Simon Ramo who has resigned. Norris has been appointed to complete Dr. Ramo's unexpired term, ending March 1, 1972. Norris is a native of Pennsylvania. He received his A.B. degree from Princeton University. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Norris holds an LL.B. from Stanford.

COLLEGE READING PROGRAM

The College Library staff has again prepared a selection of materials to complement the book chosen for the College Reading Program - INQUEST by Edward Jay Epstein. A list is available at the Circulation Desk and many items are on the shelf reserved for the program near the Catalog.

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS

The ASB Back-to-School Social has been postponed from tonight to January 27th, 8:00pm to Midnight in C-116.

Thursday, January 19 at 8:15pm. Concert by UCR Orchestra in the University Theatre, Riverside campus. Admission free.

Bowling League will have more instruction on the lanes tonight (Friday) at 7:00pm. Remember the competition starts on Thursday, the 19th - organizational meeting that night at 6:30 sharp.

During the month of February, at the main Public Library in San Bernardino, 401 North Arrowhead Avenue, there will be a display of South-west American Indian Pottery and Basketry, both pre-historic and contemporary, from the collection of Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Harrison. Both are actively engaged in the field of Arts and Crafts in this community. The Harrisons have for many years been interested in primitive art and have studied the work of the American Indian in the chief centers of Indian Art in the United States. They have also travelled to the South Pacific in order to study first-hand the art of the Polynesian area. At the Cunningham Branch Library on Highland, Mrs. Harrison has arranged a display of Oriental artifacts which is currently on view.

CAFETERIA EVENING SERVICE

For the convenience of evening classes and others who are on campus at night, the Cafeteria will be open Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30 during the winter quarter. Coffee, hot chocolate and packaged potato chips, etc. will be available for sale. Customers will be on their honor to deposit the money for these items in a box on the counter.

COLLEGE WORK-STUDY PROGRAM

Twenty students are working this year under the College Work-Study Program. Four of these are working as part-time Counselor's Aides at the State Department of Vocational Rehabilitation. On-campus jobs include clerical work in various administrative offices and in the library, work as laboratory assistants, students assistants in drama and in physical education. The program appears to be moving forward as expected. Faculty members are urged to refer students who may qualify for this program to Doyle Stansel in the Financial Aids Office.

COMMITTEE ON LECTURES AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

A series of award-winning films has just been announced by the Committee on Lectures and Public Affairs. The first will be "Henry V" with Lawrence Olivier, to be shown on Friday, January 20 at 8:15 in C-116. The other two films are: Alec Guinness in "The Promoter" - February 10 and Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole in "Becket" on March 10. Admission free.

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

Dr. Dennis Ikenberry (Physics) visited San Bernardino High School on Wednesday. He spoke on "Relativity" to a combined session of three physics classes.

Dr. James Freeman (Psychology) has joined the faculty in the Social Science Division. He holds degrees from the University of Oklahoma and Northwestern University. Most recently he has been research scientist at North American Aviation.

STATE OF THE STATE

A meeting of the faculty was held on Thursday afternoon. President Pfau announced the temporary freeze on enrollment in the State Colleges and the stringent reduction of faculty recruitment. However, he offered the reassurance of the Chancellor that the promised 5% raise in faculty salaries would not be touched. Dean Scherba went over the suggestions of the visiting committee on accreditation with the faculty.

Students on all the State College campuses plan an active campaign against the proposed tuition charge. Richard Bennecke and Jim Penman attended a conference of Student Body Presidents last week-end and Richard Bennecke and Ed Sheeran are at a meeting today of representatives of the southern California State Colleges at San Fernando Valley State College. A rally for this campus has been called for 10:30am on Tuesday, January 17.

The Physical Plant Department requests that anyone finding his office door unlocked in the morning should report the fact to the Security Officer, Mr. Weir.
