The BULLETIN

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Edward O. Lee, 35, occupational department chairman of the East Bay Skills Center in Oakland, has been appointed to the California State College Board of Trustees to fill the unexpired term (1974) of Chester R. Battalini, who resigned. Mr. Lee, who holds a BA in political science from Berkeley, has served on his county's Human Relations Commission and is a past member of the Oakland Adult Minority Employment Committee. Governor Brown made the appointment the end of December.

CONFERENCE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

The sixth annual California Conference on Higher Education, sponsored by the California Teachers Association, will be held in San Francisco May 5th and 6th. Attendance by personnel of the California State Colleges has been extensive in the past and it is hoped many will plan to attend this year. Arrangements can be made by contacting Dr. Frederic W. Hile, Conference Director, CTA, 1705 Murchison Drive, Burlingame, California 94010.

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

Dr. Peter T. Marcy (History) is the author of Eighteenth Century Views of Bristol and Bristolians. This joins a series of Local History Pamphlets issued by the Bristol Branch of the Historical Association and is published by The University, Bristol, 1966.

Dr. Charles Slaughter (Education) spoke on "Basic Issues in the Social Studies Program for the Schools of California" at the 10th Annual Good Teaching Conference for the Educators of Riverside County. The conference was held at the College of the Desert on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Doyle Stansel (Placement and Financial Aid) spoke this week to juniors and seniors at San Geronio High School on aid to higher education. On Sunday night he talked to a senior high youth group at Emanuel Methodist Church in San Bernardino on "Preparing for the World of Work."

DON'T MISS THIS

Dr. L. S. B. Leakey, celebrated anthropologist, will speak on Friday, March 3 at 8:15 in the University of California, Riverside, Gymnasium. This is only a 20-minute drive, but Dr. Leakey is also noted for the vigor of his presentation and you may well feel yourself much further away by the end of the evening. Admission is free, but Dr. Leakey drew overflow crowds on his previous stay.

TAX-DEFERRED ANNUITY

If you have not received the explanatory memorandum, please ask for one in the Personnel Office. A meeting this afternoon at 3:45 in C-116 is designed to answer questions from interested staff members.

PHYSICAL PLANT DEVELOPMENT

Bids on the gymnasium building, delayed from the original schedule, are due to be opened on March 23.

EVENTS ON CAMPUS

Tonight (Friday, February 24) at 8:15 in C-116, "The Birth of a Nation."

Tuesday, February 28, 10:30am in C-116, Dr. Ward McAfee: "Hypothesis and History: The Lincoln and Kennedy Assassinations."

NOON SERIES, also on Tuesday, February 28, at 12:30 in C-116, Dr. Leo Kreter will give a piano recital.

Friday, March 3, from 6:00 to 8:30pm in the parking lot, the Motor Enthusiasts will hold their mysterious "Lost I" Gimmick Rallye. Admission will be $.50 for non-members, $.25 for members. A trophy will be awarded for first place, prizes for second and third place. All cars - foreign or American - are welcome.

Coming up: "Becket" starring Peter O'Toole and Richard Burton, March 10.

READING PROGRAM

Discussion sessions on Inquest will be held in the patio of the Library as follows:

Tuesday, February 28	11:30 & 1:30
Wednesday, March 1	11:30 & 1:30
Thursday, March 2	11:30 & 1:30

COLLEGE CHORUS

The College Chorus, under the direction of Dr. Leo Kreter, will meet on Mondays at 3:30 in C-116. Handel's SAUL will be the principal work studied.

YMCA MEMBERSHIPS

Jim Urata (Building Coordinator), whose motto must be "Run, or at least walk fast," is busily promoting memberships in the "Y". Family memberships sound like a terrific bargain, so talk it over with Jim.
