The BULLETIN

LOOKING AHEAD TO COMMENCEMENT

Chancellor Glenn Dumke will be the principal speaker at the first commencement of this College on Saturday, June 10, at 5:00pm. There will be about forty-five members of the graduating class.

Faculty and students are reminded that Wednesday, April 19th is the day to order academic regalia at the Bookstore. A representative of the Collegiate Cap and Gown Company will be on campus to take orders that day.

FACULTY WIVES ACTIVITIES

The Cal State Faculty Wives will meet tomorrow (Saturday) morning for breakfast at 9:00am. at Griswold's Restaurant in Redlands. Mrs. Power Sogo is the chairman of the committee planning the event. Election of officers for the next year is the main item of business; a dramatic reading by Mrs. Ronald Barnes will be the chief entertainment.

On Friday, April 14th, the Cal State Faculty Wives will be the guests of Faculty Wives at San Bernardino Valley College where they will be given a tour of that campus in the afternoon.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Remember the Rummage Sale and the Car Wash being sponsored by the Class of 1970 on Friday, April 14th. Items for the Sale may be left on Thursday in the Publications Office.

Theta Psi Omega, Women's Service Club, will sponsor an evening of "Fashion with Dessert" at the May Company, Inland Center, Monday, April 24. Tickets may be obtained from members of the Club on campus until April 18.

Elections for student offices will be held late in April. Posters for candidates will blossom on campus next week and April 17th at 11:30 has been set as a time for campaign speeches in the cafeteria patio.

The Class of 1970 is sponsoring a "Computer Dance" on Saturday, April 22 at the Kaiser Dome at the Orange Show Grounds. This is a non-date affair with students at Victor Valley College and San Bernardino Valley College invited. Admission is $1 plus $1 for a questionnaire to be filled out in advance. Dancing partners will be matched from the results of these questionnaires.

COLLEGE CHORUS

Dr. Leo Kreter announces that the College Chorus will meet each Tuesday at 10:30 in C-116. Students, faculty and staff are very welcome.

REMINDER

The experimental films on tonight's program are: Lumiere Films of 1895, Rescued from the Eagle's Nest, Dream of Rarebit Fiend, Trip to the Moon, The Masquerader, A Chairy Tale, From the Magic Lantern to Today, Toccata for Toy Trains. Come at 8:00, C-116. Admission Free.

HUMANITIES LECTURE

Dr. George W. Strem, Professor Emeritus of Language Arts at California State College at Chico, will lecture on "Three Aspects of Agnostic Ethics." Sponsored by the Humanities Division, the lecture will be on Tuesday, April 11 at 10:30am in C-110.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS

The Advisory Board met with President Pfau at luncheon on Thursday.

Administrators from Rialto as well as San Bernardino schools were on campus Tuesday for a meeting with the College Education Department and to aid in the screening process for the intern program.

STUDENT TEACHERS

The Education Department announces that the first student teachers are now in the Rialto schools. Mrs. Gloria Dement and Miss Margaret Wells are in Kelley Elementary School; Mrs. Elizabeth Samuelsen at Dunn Elementary School; Mrs. Sheila Kamhi at Casey Elementary School and Mr. Bruce Holtzbach at Rialto Junior High School.

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

Dean Gerald Scherba is on a recruiting trip this week.

Charles Slaughter (Education) spoke to the Jurupa School District Teachers on the state teaching credential. Dr. Slaughter has also been consulting with the Banning School District on teaching the disadvantaged.

Leo Kreter is visiting the San Jose State College campus this week to observe the program of the Western Regional Institute for Music in Contemporary Education.
