COLLEGE UNION COMMITTEE FORMED

A Committee representing a cross-section of campus interests has been formed to develop a comprehensive plan for a College Union or College Community Center. Voting Members are: Richard Bennecke, Robert Schwirzke, John Skeete, Sandra Bergstrand, James Penman, Dean Monroe, Dean Thomas, Dr. West and Dr. Crum. Non-voting members are: Mr. Farwell and Dean Hume.

DEAN'S HONOR LIST

In accordance with the decision of the Academic Council to publish a dean's list for those full-time students whose grade point average is 3.5 or above for any quarter and a presidential recognition list for those who attain a 4.00 GPA, the Admissions Office has compiled the necessary lists. Twelve English majors, seven History majors, six Sociology majors, six Poly Sci majors, two French and two Spanish majors, and six students with undeclared majors made the list.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS

Mrs. William Hulsey, President of the Social Lites, and Mrs. Ted Amuso, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the Social Lites, were on campus Tuesday morning to present a check to President Pfau. They have contributed over one thousand dollars to the scholarship funds this year.

Members of an AAUW study group were here Thursday morning to hear Mary Cisar and Phillip Present discuss the Ombudsman concept as applied to California.

Mr. Robert Striegel visited the campus Wednesday afternoon to obtain material for a story on CSEA chapters in this area for the CSEA NEWS.

EVENTS ON CAMPUS

If the weather permits, the Car Wash sponsored by the Class of 1970 will be held in the parking lot, 12:30 to 5:00 this afternoon.

Monday, April 17, at 11:30 in the Cafeteria Patio (weather permitting) the student body office seekers will display their oratory.

On Wednesday, April 19, 12:30 in L-117, there will be a talk by Fred Waters on "Matrix Algebra."

Thursday, April 20 will be "Have Blood - Will Give" Day on Campus. From 10:00 to 2:00 donations will be taken in the Conference Room (A-121). The doctors will be using rooms A-196 and A-197, so Publications will move to Counseling and Testing for the day (A-117).

EVENTS - continued

Mr. Raymond Carr will be on campus Thursday, April 20 to meet students interested in career opportunities with the County of Riverside. Interview appointments are being made in the Placement and Financial Aid Center, A-148.

EVENTS OFF CAMPUS

The pottery of Leonard Farwell will be on display in two places this week-end. Tonight, at the opening of the Stepan Art Gallery, from 4:00 until 10:00, and continuing there through business hours in the weeks to come. On Saturday, from 10:00am to 6:00, many well-known local artists, including Mr. Farwell, will be demonstrating their crafts in the Mall of the Inland Center.

Theta Psi Omega continues to plan for their Fashion Show "Spring Blooms Bold." This event is to be held in the Valencia Room of the May Company at 7:00pm on Monday, April 24. Rumor has it that strawberry shortcake will be served. Tickets are available from members of the service club.

An informal group of faculty, staff, students and friends plan a HIKE (weather permitting) in the nearby foothills, Saturday morning, April 15. The group will meet at the top of Manzanita Drive (in the Del Rosa district north of Foothill) at 10:30. All are welcome. Bring a sack lunch.

Saturday, April 22, is the date for the eagerly-awaited Computer Dance which our Freshmen are planning in cooperation with Victor Valley College and San Bernardino Valley College. It will be held in the Kaiser Dome -Orange Show

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

Robert West (Education) was in Victorville last week to speak to teachers about the CSCSB credential program. He will be doing the same at Hemet on the 18th and at Banning on the 19th.

Edward White (English) was the luncheon speaker this Wednesday at the all-day meeting of the Inland Library System at the El Rancho Verde Country Club in Rialto. He spoke on "Trends in Modern Fiction."

COLLEGE READING PROGRAM

The College Library has prepared a list of readings to supplement the current book selection, William Fulbright's Arrogance of Power. The list will be available at the circulation desk and the books will again be placed on a special shelf to the left as you enter the library.

SENIOR QUESTIONNAIRE

To gain information about future plans of the College's first graduates, Doyle Stansel (Placement and Financial Aid) sent a questionnaire to 46 graduating seniors. Of the 20 who responded, 35% indicated that they would enter graduate school. Another 30% plan to continue their studies here under one of the teacher education programs. Four students (20%) plan to teach on a full-time basis beginning next September. Two will enter the military service. Only one of the respondents indicated he would enter full-time employment in business, industry or government.
