The BULLETIN

THIS WEEK-END ON CAMPUS

Tonight is the Faculty Wives Theatre Party, with so many members of the faculty attending the 8:15 production of "Hay Fever" that the after-theatre party (previously planned for the home of President and Mrs. Pfau) will be held in the Cafeteria. Refreshments, dancing and conversation.

Sunday will be the All-College Cookout. The committee members who pre-tasted the Peruvian anticuchos pronounced them delicious. Tickets at $1.25 (children 50¢) are available today. The food will be ready about 6:00, but you are invited to come earlier for games and sociability.

Saturday night at 8:15 there will be another performance of "Hay Fever." It will be repeated next week-end also, so tell your friends about this center-staged production of Noel Coward's pomey.

COLLEGE READING PROGRAM

Discussion groups for Senator William Fulbright's ARROGANCE OF POWER will be held on May 9 at 10:30, May 11 at 1:30, May 16 at 10:30 and May 18 at 1:30. These meet in the library courtyard. A supplementary reading list was published with the May 2nd PAWPRINT.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS

The Players of the Pear Garden traditionally give two extra performances of each production for high school seniors. This week the high schools invited were San Bernardino and Eisenhower; next week Pacific and San Geronio will be invited. These Thursday night performances serve also as dress rehearsals.

FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTS

One of the interesting resolutions passed at the April 26-27 meeting of the Board of Trustees requested the Chancellor "to present at the June meeting proposed plans for a one-day conference of Trustees, Presidents, Academic Senators and Students to discuss issues involved in curricular planning for the California State Colleges, including methods for encouraging individuality and special emphases in the individual colleges as well as procedures for controlling undue proliferation of courses and programs."

COMING EVENTS

On Wednesday, May 10, at 11:30 and at 12:30 in C-116, the distinguished travel lecturer and motion picture photographer, Eric Pavel, will present a film on Switzerland titled "The Alpine World." The film will be shown in two parts making it possible for those who cannot stay for the complete feature to go or come during the break. Eric Pavel has produced a number of television films and is presently producing classroom films on Latin America for Encyclopedia Britannica Films.

Also on Wednesday, May 10, at 12:30 in L-117, the Math Colloquium will feature a film on "Integration" by Edwin Hewitt. (This has to do with mathematics, not race relations!)

Monday, May 15, at 4:30 in C-116, there will be a CSEA organizational meeting to establish a college chapter. All employees interested in the State Employees Association are invited to attend. Les Santee, representative of the southern section of CSEA will be at the meeting to help establish the chapter and to answer questions about the organization.
