CASABO SPONSORS CAMPUS QUEEN

You may still ~~vote for~~ your choice of Campus Queen by casting a penny for one of the eight candidates. The elected winner will be crowned by President Pfau at the dance tomorrow night in the Cafeteria from 8:00 to midnight. Other highlights of the evening will be a display of faculty baby pictures, presentation of club charters and the transfer of the ASB gavel from Richard Bennecke to Jim Penman. The dance is sponsored by the Yearbook and ASB Activities Committees. College personnel and guests invited - 25¢ per person.

ACSCP INSURANCE

An open enrollment period until June 2 is announced for Personal Life Insurance (without evidence of insurability), Disability Income Insurance, and Family Life Insurance sponsored for members by the Association of California State College Professors. Forms are available from Professor Penalosa or Mr. Jerz.

CSEA NEWS

The May issue of SCOPE carries a full page story on our campus, "College With Unique Approach - The California State College at San Bernardino."

The CSEA organizational meeting will be held as planned on Monday, May 22, at 4:30 in C-116. Professor William L. Tidwell promises to attend.

ACADEMIC SENATE

Robert Fisk (Education) is the newly-elected Chairman of the Academic Senate on this campus. He will hold this office for the next two years, replacing Fernando Penalosa who was the first chairman.

SUMMER WORKSHOP

A two-week workshop on Innovations in Secondary Education will be held on campus from June 26 to July 7. Sponsored jointly by the College and the California Association of Secondary School Administrators, the workshop will offer three quarter units of credit for a fee of $50. Directors of the workshop will be Dr. G. Keith Dolan, Principal of San Bernardino High School and Mr. David Inglis, Principal of Elsinore High School. Twelve consultants, each an expert in his field, will be available to present and discuss the various topics covered.

SYMPATHY

The College Community extends deep sympathy to John Cervantes on the death of his brother. George Cervantes was killed in Viet Nam this week. Funeral services will be in Loma Linda on Saturday.

COLLEGE PLANS SURVEY

An extensive survey of high school seniors and their plans for college is being conducted this week in a joint effort of the California State Colleges, the Coordinating Council for Higher Education, and the University of California. Data from the more than 16,000 random sample questionnaires will be used to show the governor and the legislature the kinds and extent of student financial assistance programs which are needed.

NEW ADMINISTRATORS

The Chancellor has announced two new appointments to his staff. Harry Harmon, chief of facilities planning for the California State Colleges, has been appointed assistant vice chancellor, physical planning and development. He will be responsible for the entire capital outlay program for the colleges. Mr. Harmon is a licensed architect, a graduate of USC and former senior architect at UCLA.

Also appointed is Thomas H. McGrath to a newly-created post of assistant executive vice-chancellor. Mr. McGrath will work directly with Chancellor Dumke and Raymond A. Rydell, executive vice chancellor, in systemwide planning and operations. Formerly dean of institutional relations and student affairs for the California State Colleges, Mr. McGrath will continue as key liaison officer between the State Colleges and all other segments of California education. He is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara with an M.A. from Claremont Graduate School.

COMING EVENTS

There will be a Mathematics Colloquium at 12:30 on Wednesday, May 24th in L-117. Russ Wheeler will talk on "Mathematics for Pleasure-Seeking Americans."
