

California State University, San Bernardino

CSUSB ScholarWorks

Friday Bulletin

Arthur E. Nelson University Archives

6-9-1967

June 9 1967

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin>

Recommended Citation

Friday Bulletin, "June 9 1967" (1967). Friday Bulletin. 64.
<https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/64>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Arthur E. Nelson University Archives at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE

AT SAN BERNARDINO

June 9, 1967

The BULLETIN

COMMENCEMENT

All College personnel and their families are welcome at Commencement exercises to be held on the Mall at 5:30pm on Saturday, June 10. Everyone is also welcome at the reception afterwards.

HOLIDAY SCHEDULES

You are reminded of the Library Schedule for next week - closed on Saturday and Sunday, but open 8:00am. to 5:00pm. during the week. During Summer Session the Library will also be open evenings Monday through Thursday, Saturdays from 9:00am. to 1:00pm. and Sunday afternoons from 1:00 to 5:00.

The Duplicating Center will be closed for two full weeks beginning June 19. This means the last day for work will be June 16. You are also reminded that, while the Duplicating Center will re-open on July 3, the following day, July 4, will be a holiday. We all wish Jim Gooch a very pleasant, well-deserved vacation.

Cafeteria hours for June 12 through the 16th will be 9:30 to 3:00. Hours during Summer Session will be announced later.

GROUND-BREAKING FOR GYM

Would you believe that Mike O'Gara did it with his golf club? Watch for evidence in the SUN-TELEGRAM. President Pfau and representatives of Ladd and Kelsey, the architectural firm, and Coastate Builders, the contractors, gathered on Tuesday morning at 10:15 to watch Mr. O'Gara dig the first hole.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Senior Class, under the able and earnest direction of Michael Abernathy, is presenting a Time Capsule to the College. It will be buried under a brass plaque near the flagpole. Containing news items, essays by President Pfau and other members of the faculty, and photos, the cylinder is to be opened by the Class of 1977.

Theta Psi Omega earned over $40 on their car-wash last week. On June 14th this club will be making their presentation of 15 school atlases to Mt. Vernon Elementary School where they have been conducting a Tutorial Project for the last two years.

Scholarship winners for 1967-68 have been announced. Theodore Krug has again won the CSCSB Scholarship. This will be Mr. Krug's senior year. A history major, he plans a teaching career.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES - cont'd

J. Milton Clark, a graduating senior of Pacific High School, has been awarded the Social Lites Scholarship for his freshman year at the College.

SUMMER SESSION

Admissions reports that 149 students have pre-registered for Summer Session. However, it is not necessary to pre-register, and students will be accepted on June 19 for registration before classes begin on June 20.

BOWLING LEAGUE AWARDS

The CSCSB Bowling League held its first annual awards dinner Wednesday, June 7, and trophies were given to the following year's winners: First Place League Champions were Dorothea Floyd, Phil Cordova and Pat Landon. Second Place Team included Rose Tovar, Jeff Fortuna and Ralph Lightstone. Marty Bloomberg (235), Vickie Geheb (175) were High Season Scratch Game trophy winners; Ralph Lightstone (642) and Melody Parmenter (424) were High Scratch Series winners. High Season Handicap Game winners were Fred Cordova (249) and Dorothea Floyd (223); High Handicap Series winners were Pat Landon (671) and Rose Tovar (590). The Most Improved Bowler award for men went to Tony Britto and to Rose Tovar for women.

The Bowling League will resume its activities in September at the Del Rosa Bowling Lanes which will be the new location for the club's weekly games.

PHILOSOPHY FORUM

Leslie Van Marter and Paul Johnson of the Philosophy Department wish to announce a continuing series of debates and panel discussions to begin in the fall. All members of our campus community are invited to participate as panel members or debaters. The forum is tentatively scheduled for once-a-month meetings, on Wednesday at 12:30. Exact dates will be announced later. The staff is eager to receive any suggestions for topics and format.

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

Saroj Mankau (Biology) has been asked to serve on the Community College Advisory Committee of the Board of Trustees for Riverside City College. She will be a member of the Steering Committee of that advisory group.

Leslie Van Marter (Philosophy) has been invited to present a paper on aesthetics at the Boston meeting, in December, of the American Philosophical Association, Eastern Division.

NEW CAFETERIA MANAGER

The College cafeteria has a new manager, Miss Joyce Hauber, who is replacing Laurie Howard, now on leave of absence. Miss Hauber was formerly manager of the Cornell University Graduate School cafeteria.