CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE AT SAN BERNARDINO

October 20, 1967

The BULLETIN

NSF GIVES GRANT TO DR. SOKOLOFF

Dr. Alexander Sokoloff, Professor of Biology, has been awarded a $32,200 grant by the National Science Foundation.

Dr. Sokoloff received the grant to support the transfer of his Tribolium (flour beetle) stock center from the University of California at Berkeley to CSCSB.

A leading authority on this type of beetle, Dr. Sokoloff established the stock center at Berkeley in 1963 while he was a research geneticist at Cal. He did research there between 1961 and 1965, when he came to CSCSB.

The NSF grant, spread over two years, will allow Dr. Sokoloff to reduce his teaching load by one-third and to devote this time to research with the assistance of a full-time technician.

FIRST ALUMNI
WILL ORGANIZE The first 58 graduates of CSCSB have been invited to meet and form an Alumni Association. The first meeting has been scheduled for 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, October 25, at Room L-151. Coffee will be served.

Doyle J. Stansel, Director of Placement and Financial Aid, will coordinate the founding of the Alumni Association until the first officers are elected.

CSCSB's first graduating class in June, 1967, numbered 59 persons. One of the first graduates, Frank Amy, was killed in an automobile accident in September.

HEAD START TEACHERS
ARE ATTENDING CSCSB Operation Head Start teachers from Riverside County are eligible to attend college under a new program financed by the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity. Three of these teachers are now attending CSCSB, and more will begin in January, according to Dr. Robert West, Chairman of the Department of Education.

NEW STATE COLLEGE
TRUSTEE APPOINTED Governor Ronald Reagan has announced the appointment of Earle M. Jorgensen of Los Angeles as a Trustee of the California State Colleges.

Mr. Jorgensen, president of a steel products distributing firm, succeeds Victor H. Palmieri of Thousand Oaks.

PROTESTANTS Students interested in reorganizing the CSCSB Pro-
TO RE-ORGANIZE testant Society are invited to a meeting at 10:30 a.m.
Tuesday, October 24, in PS-122. This will be an exploratory meeting at which the club may be renamed. All students of whatever religious faith or interest are invited. William Hume, Dean of Activities and Housing, will serve as temporary advisor to the club.

of a bi-annual study of the Faculty Senate Constitution. The Faculty Senate will meet October 31 in Room PS-104. Dr.
Cisar states that the committee would welcome any suggestions from interested faculty.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS 82 students from Pacific High School, accompanied by four teachers, visited the campus yesterday. After lunch and a welcome by President Pfau they were taken on a tour of the campus. Stephen Prouty, Director of Admissions; George Weiny, Professor of Physical Education; and Jim McKone, Publications Manager, headed the various groups. They were assisted by a number of student tour guides. The visiting Pacific juniors visited music, drama, and lab facilities and then audited a lecture by Dr. Robert Smith, Professor of History.

Also on campus yesterday were head librarians of the local universities and colleges. They were hosted by Mr. Arthur Nelson, College Librarian, and met to discuss college library development. The various colleges represented were University of California at Riverside, Riverside City College, Loma Linda University, San Bernardino Valley College, and University of Redlands.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS Bruce Golden (English) was named as the representative of the College in the National Foundation in Arts and the Humanities fellowship. He was named in the "Younger Scholar Fellowship" category. Also named as a nominee to represent the College in the National Foundation was Richard Stensgaard (English) in the "summer stipend" category. Both candidates will receive notice at a later date if they have been chosen by the Foundation.

Arthur Nelson (Library) has been appointed to a small committee of State College librarians who will study the problem of inter-library cooperation between State College Librarians.

Charles Price (Music) will play the principal oboe in the Riverside Municipal Opera production of "Così Fan Tutti" on November 17 and 18.

BOWLING LEAGUE TO MEET EARLIER The CSCSB Bowling League will meet 15 minutes earlier each Wednesday, at 6:15 instead of 6:30, at the San Hi Lanes.
