CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE AT SAN BERNARDINO

November 3, 1967

The BULLETIN

TRUSTEES APPROVE CSCSB CONSTRUCTION

The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges approved two CSCSB construction items during its meeting last week at Cal Poly Pomona.

The Board directed that the exterior concrete surfaces of the new Biological Science Building "be coated with a suitable material to achieve an appearance acceptable to the Board of Trustees." The architect proposes an epoxy paint to give the building a lighter color.

The board also authorized that additional costs for the new Corporation Yard would bring the project total to $206,500 for Phase I construction.

L.A. PHILHARMONIC MEMBERS JOIN STAFF

Three members of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra have been added to the music staff. Dr. Charles Price, assistant professor of music and director of the instrumental music program, said they would help the College begin to offer instruction in all band and orchestral instruments starting with the winter quarter in January.

The three Philharmonic members are Mark Kramer, first violinist; Wladyslau Przybyla, cellist; and Frederic Dutton, bassoonist.

Also added to the CSCSB music staff are Marie Astor, pianist; Betty Jackson, voice instructor; and Edward Casem, clarinetist.

ACSCP MEMBERS CAN HEAR INSURANCE MAN

Members of the Association of California State College Professors (ACSCP) who wish to ask questions about the open enrollment period for insurance policies can hear some expert answers on Monday, November 6, and Tuesday, November 7. Ross Downie of Federated Life Insurance will be on the campus those days and all ACSCP members are invited to hear him, according to Joseph Jerz, Personnel Officer.

MAYOR AL BALLARD TO SPEAK AT CSCSB

Mayor Al Ballard of San Bernardino will speak at a meeting of the Young Democrats at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 7, in Room PS-10. After a brief opening statement the mayor will answer questions from the audience. All campus personnel are invited.

ALUMNI HUDDLE, The first 58 alumni of the College, all Class of '67, PLAN ELECTION are being polled by mail to elect officers of the Alumni Association. Nine alumni attended the first meeting. Nominated for office were: Richard Bennecke and Bob Schwirzke, president; Gloria De Ment and Peter Shapiro, vice president; Aletha Lorber and Janie Smith, secretary; Ina Rae Hudson and Dorothy Wissler,

COLLEGE BOWLERS Jack Hamilton, a student, is leading the California ROLL HIGH GAMES State College Bowling League with a 209 average at San Hi Lanes. About 45 people bowl in the league every Wednesday night. Hamilton bowled a 266, high for the year.
Dale Lohmuller, a Library staff member, bowled an even 200.

VOLUNTEERS START Next week the College will initiate its partici-FUND-RAISING DRIVE pation in the United Community Services 1967 fund-raising campaign. A committee of volunteers will canvass the faculty and staff of the College. "Information about the 43 UCS organizations and their work in the community will be part of the material sent to all employees next week," according to Doyle Stansel, chairman of the CSCSB committee.
