1. Membership: A chair elected by the Faculty Senate, one representative of senior rank elected from each constituent unit, one student representative, and the Associate Provost for Academic Programs. All representatives shall be of senior rank (Associate or Full Professor or equivalent). The chair shall serve as a member of the Executive Committee.
2. Duties: This committee shall evaluate, initiate and review educational policies and plans. The committee shall familiarize itself with the budget process, be informed of budget allocations at the divisional level, make budget recommendations to the President or designee. The committee shall review and recommend annually policies regarding the allocation of educational resources within the audio-visual service and computer services areas. The committee shall also act as a consultative body in matters regarding facilities planning. All recommendations shall be made to and approved by the Faculty Senate.

The committee shall participate in the development of the academic master plan; and review and develop criteria for the adoption, modification or termination of courses and programs (e.g., majors, minors, credential programs, options, tracks, concentrations, emphases, general education, continuing education, and other self-supporting programs such as institutes and centers). It shall review and initiate recommendations concerning grading standards and practices, admissions policies, academic disqualification and probation, each annual academic calendar, and non-traditional modes of instruction (e.g., credit by examination, credit for prior experience, advanced placement, media-based instruction, internships, computer-assisted instruction).

When appropriate, this committee shall meet with the Dean of Extended Education and/or with extension program coordinators to originate and review proposals for courses, programs, conferences, etc., and to initiate and review policy recommendations affecting Extended Education (e.g., extension, summer session, open university, etc.). Curriculum recommendations of the committee dealing with degree applicable items shall be sent to the Curriculum Committee. The committee shall act for the Senate in a review of all non-credit Extension courses and programs not subject to specific departmental approval, and shall review all Extended Education policies.

This committee shall consult with appropriate standing committees of the Faculty Senate when considering policy in areas affecting the duties of those committees.

Student Representative	2015-2016

1. Membership: One tenured member of senior rank elected from each constituent unit, one student representative, and the Dean of Undergraduate Studies.
2. Duties: This committee shall review all proposed changes in the general education curriculum and make recommendations to the Curriculum Committee.

It shall review all general education course proposals in terms of how well they meet the objectives and appropriate criteria for particular subject areas.

It shall begin a regular four-year cyclical review of the general education program, reviewing Category B in the first year, Category C in the second year, Category D in the third year, and all remaining Categories in the fourth year. (This process shall begin in the 1991-92 academic year.) It shall evaluate the organization, courses and criteria for each category being reviewed, and propose adjustments or changes that are deemed necessary to preserve the consistency, quality and coherence of the overall program.

It shall monitor the number of electives approved by any of the Colleges (particularly in the Elective Options and Integrative Capstone Categories) in order to discourage excessive and unwieldy course proliferation. It shall use the number of existing courses from a specific College in a particular category or section as a factor when considering additional course proposals from that College. It shall monitor existing courses to see that they are offered at least once every other year.

It shall convene the Faculty in regularly scheduled forums addressed to improvement of the general educational curriculum.

Curriculum proposals which the committee judges to require additional faculty, staff, equipment, facilities, or financial resources shall be referred to the Educational Policy and Resources Committee for its recommendation.

2.5 To recommend to the President the nominees for the awards.

3. For a more detailed explanation see FSD 79-220.R10.

AD HOC AND SPECIAL COMMITTEES OF THE FACULTY SENATE

COMMERCIALIZATION/ COPYRIGHT / FAIR USE COMMITTEE

VACANT, Arts & Letters	2015-2018
VACANT, Education	2014-2017
M. Bazaz, Business & Public Administration Director UEC (ex officio)	2014-2016
J. Thompson (ex officio)

The University Commercialization Committee will be composed by Associate Provost for Research, ex officio (Chair), the Executive Director of the UEC, ex officio, and three Faculty appointed by Senate Executive Committee. The faculty appointees would serve 3-year revolving appointments (one faculty member replaced each year).

Contact person is J. Thompson.

The committee will review intellectual property to determine whether the University shall commercialize the invention/creative work through a patent, copyright, and/or license agreement. The Committee may solicit advice/analysis regarding the technology from outside individuals. The inventor/creator must be present at the meeting in which their invention/creation is discussed and must be allowed to speak on their own behalf. In making its assessment, the Committee will rely on information provided by both the inventor/creator and the University. Committee deliberations will be in closed session to protect proprietary information. Similarly, committee records will be kept confidential and committee members will sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement. If the University, by either written policy or specific act, chooses not to act upon the right of intellectual property licensure or patent or similar methodology for assertion of rights, ownership passes wholly to the inventor or creator.

When necessary, the Committee shall review invention disclosures and other information to evaluate the University's contribution to the development of particular intellectual properties. In many cases the inventor/creator will reach an agreement with the University concerning ownership rights and equity interest without the need for review by the Committee. The purpose of the review will be to help the parties reach agreement within the framework of this policy. The final resolution of any disagreement concerning the application or interpretation of this policy will be governed by applicable law and collective bargaining agreements.

J. Anderson and J. Soon, Business & Public Administration	2015-2017
A. Leh, Education	2014-2016
T. Dodd-Butera, Natural Sciences	2014-2016
J. Kremling, Social and Behavioral Sciences	2014-2016
M. Chen, Director of Academic Technologies and Innovation
K. Costino, Director of Teaching Resource Center
T. Karmanova, College of Extended Learning

Membership: The Academic and Distributed Technologies Committee shall include one faculty member from each College. Members shall serve two-year staggered terms, with the possibility of one-year terms to ensure that staggering ensues. The committee shall also include, as non-voting members, the Director of the Office of Academic Technologies and Innovation, the Faculty Associate of ATI, the Dean (or designee) of the College of Extended Learning, and the Director (or designee) of the Teaching Resource Center. The Committee shall select a chair or co-chairs at the beginning of each academic year from among the voting members of the committee.

Duties:

- 1) The Academic and Distributed Technologies Committee will monitor policy issues that arise with regard to the University Policy on Distributed Learning and shall, as it considers appropriate, (a) refer a particular issue to one of the standing committees of the Faculty Senate for the development of a policy or (b) develop a policy on a particular issue itself and then refer the proposed policy to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate.
- 2) The Committee will monitor and report on instructional technology and distributed learning trends and issues on campus.
- 3) The Committee shall seek to gather and represent faculty perspectives on questions relating to teaching, learning, or researching with instructional technologies, including distributed learning and other learning technologies, and it will work with ATI to provide services and support to the faculty. Faculty are free to bring questions and requests for support to either the Committee or ATI as they choose.
- 4) The Committee will recommend to ATI mechanisms that will support faculty in staying current on instructional technologies and distributed learning, such as opportunities for training, experimenting with emerging technologies, and support from instructional designers.

The Committee will be responsible for gathering feedback from faculty on the effectiveness and usability of the instructional technologies employed.

HONORARY DEGREE COMMITTEE – 2015-2016

J. Chin Davidson, Arts & Letters
M. Fudge, Business & Public Administration
VACANT, Education
S. Sumida, Natural Sciences
M. Conroy, Social and Behavioral Sciences
J. Vassilakos-Long, Library
Provost or Designee
University Advancement Rep.

Preamble: Each year, each CSU campus may submit the names of up to two candidates for honorary degrees to the Board of Trustees, which makes the final decision on these awards. Recommendations are to be submitted by the campus President after consultation “with a committee, including faculty representation, to review recommendations and to assist in the development and compilation of materials in support of nominations to be forwarded.”

Procedures:

1. Each Spring term, the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate shall constitute an Honorary Degrees Committee for the following academic year. This committee will be composed of:
 - a. The provost or designee.
 - b. Five Faculty members, one from each college, selected by Senate Executive Committee.
 - c. A member of the library staff, selected by the Senate Executive Committee.
 - d. A representative of the University Advancement office, nominated by the President.
2. Early in Fall term, the Provost shall invite all members of the University community and the general public to submit names of possible recipients of honorary degrees. A deadline of no later than November 1 should be set for these submissions.
3. The Provost shall be responsible for assembling the Honorary Degrees Committee, and instructing the committee on its charge, as soon after the submissions deadline as feasible. Taking into account the system wide guidelines for criteria, exclusions, and procedures, the committee shall consider the names submitted and determine no more than two final nominees. In the process it may consult with faculty members or others who are specifically familiar with the accomplishments of certain candidates, or with the fields in which these candidates have made their mark, as long as complete confidentiality is maintained.

The committee is responsible for compiling material to support the candidates it has chosen. No later than December 1, the committee should forward its choices, together with the supporting material, to the President. The President may then decide whether to forward both, one, or neither of the proposed recipients to the Board of Trustees.

J. Sylva, Education	2015-2018
M. Becerra, Natural Sciences	2015-2017
J. Munoz, Social & Behavioral Sciences	2015-2017
J. Thompson, Administrative Representative	Ex-officio

1. Membership: The membership of the board shall consist of the following persons:

1. Five tenure-track faculty appointed by the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate in consultation with the Associate Provost for Research to include one member from each college representative of the campus community. The terms for each member will be three years and shall be staggered across the colleges. The Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate may, in consultation with the Associate Provost for Research, select additional faculty to the Board so long as each has varying backgrounds of expertise to promote complete and adequate review of research activities commonly conducted by the institution.
2. At least one member who is a current undergraduate or graduate student at the university to serve as a student research representative on the IRB committee, appointed by the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate in consultation with the Associate Provost for Research and the Associated Students, Inc. for a term of one year.
3. One administrative member appointed by the President.
4. At least one member who is not otherwise affiliated with the institution and who is not part of the immediate family of a person who is affiliated with the institution, appointed by the Associate Provost for Research in consultation with the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate
5. When the IRB reviews research that involves a vulnerable category of participants, such as children, prisoners, pregnant women, or individuals with mental or physical disabilities, the Associate Provost for Research, in consultation with the Executive Committee for the Faculty Senate, shall appoint one or more individuals who are knowledgeable about and experienced in working with these participants if members qualified as such are not already serving on the board. A prisoner, or a prisoner representative with appropriate background and experience to serve in that capacity, is required to be present and to vote when research involving prisoners/inmates is reviewed by the IRB.
6. The IRB Chair shall be sufficiently qualified through the experience and expertise and selected by and from the current IRB board. The IRB Chair will have the ability to conduct a full board meeting ensuring the board stays on track in the deliberations of human research protocols. The IRB Chair will promote respect for the IRB to the university and provide advice and counsel in safeguarding the rights and welfare of human participants. In addition to possessing the professional competence necessary to review specific research activities, the IRB Chair shall be able to ascertain the acceptability of proposed research in terms of institutional commitments and regulations, applicable law, and standards of professional conduct and practice.

2. Duties: California State University, San Bernardino and its auxiliary organization(s), will comply with the policies for protection of human participants participating in activities supported directly by grants or contracts from the various agencies of the Federal Government, State Government, and California State Universities. In fulfillment of its assurance filed with the Office for Human Research Protections (number FWA00004865), this institution has established and will maintain an Institutional Review Board (IRB) competent to review projects and activities that involve human participants. The Board shall determine for each activity as planned and conducted whether participants will be placed at risk and, if risk is involved, whether:
 1. the risks to the participant are so outweighed by the sum of the benefit to the participant and the importance of the knowledge to be gained as to warrant a decision to allow the participant to accept those risks;
 2. the rights and welfare of any such participants will be adequately protected;
 3. informed consent will be obtained by adequate and appropriate methods.
