ISRAEL UNIVERSITIES
ADDED TO INTERNATIONAL
PROGRAMS IN 1968-69

Beginning with the 1968-69 academic year the California State Colleges International Programs will provide study abroad opportunities at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and at Tel-Aviv University. These two universities join the ranks of ten other institutions of higher learning in Europe and Asia with which the California State International Programs have cooperative academic relationships.

Students attending the two universities in Israel may take any course offered by these universities, if they are academically and linguistically qualified. Those without previous linguistic proficiency in Hebrew will take courses taught in English in the following fields: Middle East Area Studies (political science, economics, geography, sociology), Hebrew Literature, Jewish History, Jewish Philosophy and Archaeology of Israel. All students will study modern Hebrew language throughout their entire stay in Israel.

Students interested in applying for the 1968-69 academic year should contact Dr. Robert Roberts, international programs advisor, at the College or write immediately to Dr. Thomas P. Lantos at San Francisco State College. The deadline date for the Spring application is April 15.

STAFF COUNCIL
COMMITTEE MAKES PROGRESS REPORT

This week the Staff Council Formation Committee distributed a progress report to staff members regarding the progress made in organizing the Staff Council on this campus.

Dale Lohmuller, Acting Chairman, asked for volunteers from staff members to serve on the committee which will work on drafting a constitution. Deadline for applying is today.

CAPTION CONTEST!

Clever caption writers wanted to participate in the Caption Contest - a new feature on the English Department bulletin board. Winners of the contest will be named in next week's Bulletin.
