

California State University, San Bernardino

CSUSB ScholarWorks

Friday Bulletin

Arthur E. Nelson University Archives

4-12-1968

April 12 1968

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin>

Part of the Educational Leadership Commons, Educational Methods Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Friday Bulletin, "April 12 1968" (1968). Friday Bulletin. 94.
<https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/94>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Arthur E. Nelson University Archives at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE AT SAN BERNARDINO

April 12, 1968

The BULLETIN

CAP AND GOWN ORDERS TO BE TAKEN APRIL 19

Orders for cap and gown rentals will be taken Friday, April 19 at the Bookstore. Graduating seniors, faculty members and others who will be participating in the ceremony will be measured for cap and gowns on that date. Cost is less if ordered April 19. Late orders will be taken until April 30.

Tuesday, April 30, will be the deadline for placing orders for cap and gown rentals.

Orders for graduation announcements will be taken at the Bookstore on April 19, at a cost of $.20 each.

SCIENTISTS LOOK TO 21st CENTURY IN CAMPUS TALKS

The two science buildings will be officially opened on April 26-27, during a two-day lecture series featuring nationally known speakers.

Theme of the ceremonies will be "Scientists Look to the 21st Century."

Dr. Irving S. Bengelsdorf, Science Editor of the Los Angeles Times, will speak at 8 p.m. Friday, April 26, on "Communications and the Future."

Dr. Robert L. Metcalf, Professor of Entomology at UC Riverside, will speak at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 27, on "Challenges of Applied Biology."

Dr. Harrison Brown, Professor of Chemistry and Professor of Science and Government at Cal Tech, will speak at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 27, on "Research and Man's Future."

The three guest lecturers will participate at 3 p.m. April 27 in a panel discussion on "Science and General Education," chaired by Dr. Gerald M. Scherba, Dean of Academic Affairs.

All College faculty, staff and students are invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

The Rev. Martin Luther King was honored in a memorial service held on campus last Friday. Offices and classes were closed for an hour as Dr. Gerald Scherba led a ceremony in tribute to the late Dr. King.

¡OLES! TO ECHO
FOR FLAMENCO
FLAMING DUO

A talented flamenco guitarist and dancer will present two performances at the College's Noon Series next Tuesday, April 16.

Jim Owen and Arlene Acuña, well-known in the San Bernardino and Riverside area as exciting flamenco artists, will make two appearances for the Noon Series in PS-10. The first performance will be at 11:30 and will be repeated at 12:30.

The flamenco mood will be set next week with exhibits of cultural objects representing Spain, Mexico and many South American countries on display in the PS Building showcase.

Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honor society, cooperated with the Lectures and Public Affairs Committee to bring the flamenco program to Cal State San Bernardino. The organization has also made arrangements to have a collection of Spanish books on display in the Library.

THETA PSI The second annual Spring Fashion Show sponsored by OMEGA PLANS Theta Psi Omega, women's service club, will be held
FASHION SHOW Tuesday, April 16. Proceeds from the annual affair will go to assist a school or some needy organization.
Funds raised last year went to buy atlases for the Mt. Vernon Elementary School.

Featuring the theme, "Happiness Is . . .", the fashion show is scheduled for the Valencia Room at the May Company, at 7:00 p.m. Donations are $1.50 and tickets may be obtained from members of the club.

Models from the college staff as well as students will participate. They are Birdene Lewis, Doris Scott, Corky Moffett, Jonni Reay, Stephanie Fehn, Ruth Davis, Judy Roussel, Connie O'Braun, Linda Meza, Linda Stantrach, Jeff Shulman, and Jerry Rohde.

CONGRATULATIONS! The College offers its congratulations to two staff members who were married during the past week:
Gary Evans (Accounting) married the former Miss Patricia Randles of Upland last Saturday.
Ruth Babb (Physical Plant) was married to E. K. Jackson of Cucamonga last Friday evening.

"FUND FOR EMILY" Word has been received from Sonoma State College
NETS $15,000 that the fund for Emily Putney, wife of Sonoma
State art professor, netted over $15,000. Sonoma extends their thanks on behalf of the Putneys to all who responded.

MORE CONSTRUCTION Work has begun on the new permanent parking lot
STARTS ON CAMPUS just east of the present lots.

The Physical Plant is building a temporary north-south access road from North Park Boulevard to the athletic area, in order to relieve congestion on other access roads.

Meanwhile, construction continues on the science-building landscaping, the new gymnasium, and the swimming pool.

ART EXHIBIT Professor William Haney will present an exhibit of SCHEDULED TO approximately 30 prints, representing the work of OPEN SUNDAY some of his students in the last two or three years.

The prints will feature techniques used in wood cut, aquatint and softground, dry print, aquatint and hardground etching and silk screen.

The display will open Sunday, April 14 and will remain open for approximately three weeks. Hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily except Tuesday, in BS-101.

VISITORS Congressman John Tunney visited the campus last Monday
ON CAMPUS as a guest of the Young Democrats. Rep. Tunney spoke to an overflow crowd in the Student Lounge.

SILENT FILMS Some comedy classics of the silent screen--featuring
MAKE COMEBACK Chaplin, Keaton, Langdon, Chase, and the Keystone Cops-- will be shown next Friday night, April 19, in the Physical Science lecture hall starting at 8 p.m.

Gaylord Carter, famous theater organist, will accompany the film classics. Admission will cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12. All college personnel, students, and their guests are invited.

17 NEW COURSES Seventeen new courses will be offered during the OFFERED IN '68 1968 summer session.
SUMMER SESSION

Business administration, economics and physical education courses will be offered this summer for the first time. Dates of the summer session are June 18-July 26. Formal admission to the College is not required to take summer courses. Cost is $14 per credit hour and students may take either five or ten quarter hours of credit.

GOOD FRIDAY
OBSERVANCE
SET TODAY

Staff members will be granted time today, Good Friday, from noon to 3:00 p.m. to attend church services.

Employees on vacation, sick leave, compensating time off, or absent without pay for the entire day, or the entire afternoon are charged the full period of absence.

DIRECTORY CHANGES

Additions: Ext.
 349 Clausen, Barbara Jean (Julius), Typist-Clerk,
 Security Office, A-147,
 6644 Robinson Road, Highland, 862-9393

Deletions: Sally J. Lewis

Changes: Ruth Babb to Ruth Jackson

Gary Evans - new address, 930 E. Stillman, Redlands

Frank Baker - 1671 Darby, San Bernardino 92405

PERSONNEL
DEPARTMENT
NOTES . .

The College now has a total of 209 employees, which include staff, administrators and faculty.