We're glad to be a service to you again, not only from the Medical Missionaries of Bethel, for the second time this year. We are happy to receive your orders and assignments for your goods. We are the British government's first line of defense and we have a duty to protect our men. However, we are not sure of the exact number of men who will be able to serve in these missions. It seems that some men are suffering from sorrow and we offer our prayers for the bereaved family.

On August 3 & 4, 1981, the Riverside Linwood Ave Church of Christ hosted the 35th Annual National Youth Conference of the Churches of Christ, at the University of Riverside, California in Riverside and over 2,000 people were registered in attendance.

The theme of the conference was "Get the Ballot of the Lord for us," and the goal of the conference was to inspire and encourage our youth to greater faith and love of God, and to provide an opportunity for Christian encouragement and education.

Other objectives of the conference were to motivate youth to serve God, to help guide youth in the direction of God by sharing the same beliefs of the Churches of Christ on the Spacious Tree-lined campus of the University of Riverside, and to lend our support to the conference coordinators, Brother Arnold Eugene Brown and Sister Daisy Brown.

The annual March at the National Youth conference is always considered a highlight of the conference. All states represented, stood up in alphabetical order, beginning in Arkansas and ending in Washington, approximately 40,000 people, young people, marching bands and flags with such messages as "Christ died for all," "Get with Jesus now," "We believe in Christ," "Christ has come to Riverside," "Jesus loves you," and many more.

The banner carried by you announced the theme of the conference, and the world needs love as 2000 Youth, Parents, Friends, and Dignitaries from other geographical areas who share the same interest; to serve God, to help guide youth in the direction of God by sharing the same beliefs of the Churches of Christ on the Spacious Tree-lined campus of the University of Riverside, and to lend our support to the conference coordinators, Brother Arnold Eugene Brown and Sister Daisy Brown.

The theme for this year, "Get the Ballot of the Lord for us," was very challenging one. An evil spirit companions must be redeemed with, therefore our youth are comprised of an evil spirit. The topics were designed to strengthen and encourage our youth to greater faith in the Lord's Words," remarked Daisy Brown.

Showdown on Voting Rights

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1981

The heart of the Act is Section 5, the provisions requiring review of any district to submit proposed changes in voting laws to the Department of Justice. The Provisions are limited in scope and parts of them are subject to judicial review. We hear that there are instances where specific actions have been challenged in court where the issues have been interfered with state and not others. But the second aspect of the controversy is over the issue of federal oversight through long and permanent violations of the rights of the vote. Some congressmen recognize this, but want "soft" sanctions that are not so drastic as to automatically trigger enforcement. If the law is not enforced, then it is seen as an end run around the Constitution and as a move to tamper with the federal government interfered with state and not others. New Tax Program Designed To Aid Small Businesses

Benefits designed specifically for small businesses will be incorporated into the new tax package approved by Congress, although individu‐ ual states should have much discretion from the proposed tax.

The central aim of the tax bill is to permanently cut in‐personal tax rates allowing about 20 percent over the next three years was expected to be due to the fact that most American corporations are not incorporated.

Small business owners may also be aided by short term capital gains tax on the accelerated depreciation schedule for plants and equipment.

Excluded would be service corporations, health, law, tax-exempt, non-operating, agricultural, science, performing arts and community organizations.

The amount maximum that the raise of accumulated earnings a company may hold, increases the number of shareholders allowed for certain corporations and reduces the penalty for adopting the law, federal and state of inventory accounting.

This provision aimed at small businesses included:

Small businesses, under a depreciation program, could take advantage of a special, five-year write-off for investments in new or used plants and equipment.

The maximum amount a business executive could write-off in one year would be $200,000 each in 1985 and 1986, about $7,000 each in 1987 and 1988. After 1988 it would be $10,000 annually.

The Jacksons, Tito and Dee Dee, have three sons, Toya, Tracey, and Tito Joe III. The similarity in their names is no accident according to Dee Dee. Tito arranged the initials so that all three could have initials.

Now whether or not three sons make you more protective I indeed I don’t know but Dee Dee is a baseball enthusiast. Maybe she finds it a bit light. Fatterier is better, “I love baseball. If we could do our whole house from one end to the other, I think I would be first, second, third, and fourth,” HUMBLE. We live for baseball. We just enjoy it and that’s why I’m glad we have boys. Not only does she enjoy it, she participates.

Later search Dee was living in little league team and before that she served her kids’ snacks (That was her mother, too, and it was becoming a part of her fans). They took their entire home team to the ballpark and let them after the season’s over. But during the season as much as it is tome threatening, I am a football enthusiast. Maybe it is an overprotection of my own, but I have never seen the kids they needed. They were so well fitted. Whatever sports. Children have three eyes: pitching, catching, or hitting out the outfield kind of people. Are they ever alone in the fundamentals of their own or causing anything otherwise even. Certainly they must.

We asked Dee Dee Jackson her feelings about being one of the Jacksons. For more than nine years and she has had his help. She has told me that when Tito first placed into it, it wasn’t his team. But he made her grow together in the family. “Her face didn’t have a pattern that we both admired to the pattern.” She was interested in learning what it was like to be a human being like the rest of us. If it weren’t for that, she wouldn’t have been able to live.

Despite the fact she is well known and everyone knows her name, she has always been able to stay out of the family. It is a little bit of a surprise to me. She is now also a fan of Dee-Up Johnstone.

RCC Tigers Gear Up for ’81

The Riverside City College football team will host Los Angeles Southwest College in their season opener at 7 p.m. in their homecoming game on September 26th.

The Tigers, riding high on the success of last year’s season, are looking forward to the upcoming season. "We had a better team last year than we did the last year," says RCC head coach Barry Meier. "Of course, we started into three months in the hole because we were rainrotating," he added. "We should be stronger this year because we have a good group of players from last year. We brought in a lot of players from some of the college teams like Fullerton, Orange Valley, Fullerton, and Fresno.

Sporting a 6-4 record from last year, Meier says that the Tigers will be looking for another winning effort from the defense. The defense looks particularly strong this year. There are a lot of good returning linemen, and there are several seniors. Gino Gattanucci from North High School and Dave Hahn, who played at Redlands High, are expected to do things for us as the linebackers and safeties. The defense is our strong suit, and our returning defense is led by our 6’11” junior, Lewis Parent, is one of the best in the state.

RCC, having its best season in a decade, is being eyed by many in the city and elsewhere. "I think we have good people,” says one football player, "and people have a great deal of expectation for us. If we come in second, people are going to see if last year’s success was a flash in the pan, or will things just tail off again.

Three out of five become ‘family doctors’ — the kind whose neighborhoods need most.

Half of all Meharry mothers are themselves from low-income families, and 90% need financial aid.

To continue all it is doing for the health and life of the black community, Meharry must have contributions — for scholarships, faculty research, and support for Meharry’s mission to the nation, many are already giving. Much more is needed. Every dollar counts. We need your support, too.

Roy Wilkins
1901-1981
A Tribute To A Great Man

We have suffered too many heartaches and shed too many tears and too much blood in fighting the evil of racial segregation to return to the dispiriting confines of its demeaning prison. No matter how impassioned the plea or how beguiling the persuasion, we cannot go back.
Tribute to Roy Wilkins

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

—St. Paul’s First Epistle to the Corinthians 13:12

Because of the work of Roy Wilkins and the NAACP, black Americans now vote in increasing numbers in the South, and they are employed in a widening range of occupations traditionally closed to them. No person of any race can be legally denied admission to a hotel, theater or restaurant. It was the NAACP which took the school segregation cases all the way to the Supreme Court and put an end to the doctrine of “separate but equal.” Today, public schools and institutions of higher learning can no longer deny admission to applicants because of their race.

Wilkins was also a leader in the fight that resulted in a Presidential order desegregating the Armed Services and he has consulted with the military on the training and utilization of black troops.

In 1950, he was chairman of the National Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization which attracted more than 4,000 delegates to the nation’s capital to seek executive and legislative action on ending job discrimination.

Frequently called “Mr. Civil Rights” by his admirers, Wilkins is chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights which grew out of the 1950 mobilization. It is a coalition of some 80 national civic, labor and religious organizations. This group, led by Wilkins and Clarence M. Mitchell, Jr., head of the NAACP’s Washington office, is generally conceded to be largely responsible for the enactment of landmark civil rights legislation, especially the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

In his effort to create a world in which all people are free, Wilkins served as chairman of the United States delegation to the International Conference on Human Rights which met in Paris in 1968; was a consultant to the U. S. Department of State at San Francisco during the organization of the United Nations in 1945; lectured in Berlin, London and Paris under the auspices of the State Department, and has been a member of the Call Committee of the American Negro Leadership Conference on Africa, which attempts to influence U. S. foreign policy toward African countries.

Following the civil disorders of the mid-1960s, he was a member of the President’s National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders.

The honors bestowed on him are voluminous. They include the Medal of Freedom, the country’s highest civil honor; the NAACP’s Spingarn Medal, the Freedom Award by Freedom House, the American Jewish Congress Civil Rights Award, the Boy Scouts’ Scout of the Year Award, the Anti-Defamation League’s American Democratic Legacy Award, the Russwurm Award of the National Newspaper Publishers Association, the Outstanding Alumni Achievement Award of the University of Minnesota, plus some 34 honorary degrees.

Again another American has done so much to correct the injustices of generations of ignorance, hate, neglect and servitude.

Because of what Roy Wilkins and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People have accomplished these past four decades, the gulfs of mistrust and suspicion have narrowed, creating a nation closer to the democratic ideals of equality and brotherhood.

I’m very glad to have lived this long—to have seen things like 370 elected Negro officials in southern states. We should have 3,700—and we will have. We’ve just started.

President Truman’s Orders

On July 26 President Truman issued two executive orders, one directing the establishment of fair employment practices for government employees, and another forbidding discrimination in the Armed Services. Because the latter did not mention segregation, Mr. Truman was questioned upon it at his White House press conference July 29 and he then emphasized that he expected all segregation of races in the Armed Services to be abolished eventually, and that his order had that in mind.

In a subsequent conference Senator J. Howard McGrath, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, convinced A. Philip Randolph, leader of the civil disobedience campaign against Jim Crow military service, that Mr. Truman meant what he said. Randolph and his assistant, Grant Reynolds, thereupon announced that they were abandoning their campaign.

Mr. Truman’s opponents are crying that his moves in the civil rights field are purely political. In an election year when even a lifted eyebrow is subject to political interpretation this charge was to be expected. But no one has explained just how a man fighting to win the greatest prize, the highest office in America, can be sincere when he stubbornly and stoutly insists on a civil rights program that everyone knows is dynamite—and death—to political ambitions in this country.

Mr. Truman has not retreated one inch from the declaration in his Lincoln Memorial speech of June, 1947. His new orders represent a spirit and a courage on these issues as refreshing as they are rare. A standard has been set for government administrators of the present and the future.

—September, 1948

For blacks: Don’t mistake walking for running; use what has been done, not for history essays, but as a beginning to realize a marvelous future, even though in the forward movement feet may be bruised and bloody.

For whites: Don’t suppress the impatience of the young Negroes who are tackling the task yet to be completed.

...the vote is the most powerful instrument ever devised by man.

The NAACP and the Communists

There is in progress a campaign of misrepresentation of the NAACP currently running in the Daily Worker, the Communist newspaper. All the old phrases are there. The name-calling has started all over again. The slanted and angled "news" stories appear. The half-truths and whole lies are printed. The object is to discredit the NAACP leadership, local and national; to tear the Association apart through suspicion and strife; to take it over, if not obviously, then deviously, so as to control its elections, meetings, speakers, program, policy, conventions, resolutions, and annual reports.

Back in the early 1950s the NAACP was on the receiving end of some of the fanciest name-calling, and the most vicious, truth-defying misrepresentation and slander that has appeared in print. The campaign was carried on openly by the Communist party and its various faithful, echoing groups. The occasion was the famous Scottsboro case which began in 1931.

After the Communists had accomplished their main purpose of building that case into a worldwide attack on Western democracy, they found that all the defendants were still in prison with little likelihood of being released as long as the Communist party stood as the official defenders. So a Scottsboro Defense Committee was organized, consisting of seven or eight organizations, including the Communists. An eminent clergyman, the Rev. Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers became the committeeman and the American Communists fought only for the Soviet Russia "line" and for nothing else. Any other contests in which they seem to be engaged are merely sideshows which have been (and will be) played up, played down, or abandoned altogether, according to the party line of the hour.

By now the Roosevelt era of cooperation between Russia and America was in full flower. It is true the Soviets made a pact with Hitler and during the brief honeymoon Roosevelt won the favorite Communist title of warmonger, but with the German Army's attack on the Soviet Union, the "line" changed literally overnight and Roosevelt's America became the blessed friend and ally in the war on fascism.

As the political line changed, so did the line on Negro Americans. The Communists abandoned abruptly their widely-advertised fight for Negro rights. Nothing must interfere with the war effort, lest such domestic wrangles hurt the aid to the Soviet Union. The NAACP, believe it or not, was criticized as being "too militant" in its wartime fights. The Communists joined with the Southerners in saying in effect "this is not the time to fight the race question, we must fight the war." So American Negroes fought their bitter battles against Jim Crow in the war (and rather well, too) without the dubious aid of the American Communists.

The watchword through those years was cooperation. The NAACP, which had been lashed as "betraying the masses," as "cooperating with the lynch-bosses," etc., ad nauseam, became tolerable, if not respectable, in the eyes of American Stalinists.

But now everything is changed again. America is in a Cold War with Russia. The American Communists are busy stirring disaffection, dissension, and unrest in every segment of American life they can penetrate such as labor unions, church bodies, youth groups, college campuses, community organizations, and Negro groups, including the NAACP.

The purpose in all this is not to build a better NAACP to fight more effectively for civil rights for Negroes under the American Constitution, using legitimate American methods, but to operate one more front group to confuse and embarrass Americans and the American government in the present contest of ideologies.

There is no mystery, except to the unthinking and uninformed, about the Communists' program on the Negro. Their characterization of the NAACP as "reformist" reveals the line: they do not believe American democracy can be improved or reformed, hence anyone who does, who keeps alive a faith in the American way of life, is a criminal and a "traitor of the people." As long as the NAACP and similar groups exist and push programs of reform, the Communist doctrine takes root slowly, if at all, in the nation's largest minority group. Hence the NAACP must either be captured or destroyed.

We are not alarmed. In 1931 we were bewildered by the sterly unscrupulous and vitriolic attacks which had no relation to truth. We know now that everyone who says he is fighting for Negro rights is not necessarily doing so and if Scottsboro left any doubts, they were dispelled by the sell-out during the war. The truth is that the American Communists fight only for the Soviet Russia "line" and for nothing else. Any other contests in which they seem to be engaged are merely sideshows which have been (and will be) played up, played down, or abandoned altogether, according to the party line of the hour.

Our NAACP membership, therefore, should be on guard against this campaign. It should remember that the Communists do not hesitate to lie. When lies will serve their purpose, that they are masters of misrepresentation through misinterpretation, that they prattle about democracy in other organizations while maintaining an iron-handed non-democratic procedure in their own party, and that their aim is to use the Negro and his problems mainly in support of Communist party policy and only incidentally in support of Negro rights.

This does not mean the Communists should be fought, as such. They constitute a political party and have rights under the Constitution as do other parties. Those rights must be maintained. Free speech and free assembly must be maintained for all. Let them enjoy their rights in this democracy and push their program as well as they can in their own groups. But their campaign of infiltration, disruption, and destruction of other organizations such as the NAACP can be prevented if members will not be deceived by their words, and will elect the proper officers and committees, choose the right delegates to conventions, attend meetings faithfully and out-vote the party followers, and see that the resolutions and public statements adopted by NAACP groups are NAACP statements in truth, and not those of a group using our name for its own political purposes.

ROY WILKINS HONORED

On May 18, former NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins received his fifty-first honorary degree from Simmons College, Boston. As a Doctor of Humane Letters was awarded Mr. Wilkins, the following citation was read:

For more than five decades you have given your great intellect, skill and energy to the cause of human freedom. You fought for justice and equality in times when this was as yet a lonely, hazardous endeavor. You provided a voice of clarity, wisdom, and strength throughout the 1930s—formative years of the contemporary struggle for racial and social justice.

As Executive Director of the NAACP in the 1950s, you were a forceful, effective leader in the battle for equal education and in the ever-broadening struggle for equal access to public facilities, the right to vote, and for equality in jobs, housing, and health care.

In the civil rights upsurge of the 1960s, you were a powerful, unwavering force for unity among all working for justice and equality.

As the battle for freedom goes on, we have all been touched by your wisdom and determination. Because of your contributions, our entire society has been changed for the better. You embody the most cherished ideals of our community—reason, enlightenment, civic responsibility, human growth, love of justice. In honoring you, we renew our own precious commitments.

Those people who, for their own purposes, are urging Negroes to refuse to vote could be asking black people to participate in their own funeral.
"The mainstreams of American society must be made accessible to all people on an equal basis."

-ROY WILKINS

"You can only do so much for people, then you have to let them do it for themselves. I'm confident that if black people of this country are permitted to go for themselves, according to their own likes, they'll go like nobody has ever dreamed."
