Riverside Wants Out of IMA

By H. Yaburu Adams

With a 40-0 vote, the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors last Monday recommended itself for San Bernardino County's decision to remain intact. Riverside cannot force San Bernardino if the County Board of Supervisors do not favor the idea.

Teri Richardson

Supervisor Norton Yonglove in a brief interview with the Voice said that the action of the Supervisors left their Riverside counterparts with no choice but to join in the call for separate agencies in each county. Although the Supervisors and most major employers in both counties, such as IMA, remain intact, Riverside cannot force San Bernardino if the County Board of Supervisors do not favor the idea.

Sherron Reed

The San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors also recommended the Inland Manpower Association - IMA which serves Riverside City Council and the Riverside Local Planning Commission in calling for a break up of the Inland Manpower Committee in calling of a break up of the Inland Manpower Committee in calling of a break up of the Inland Manpower Committee in calling of a break up of the Inland Manpower Committee in calling of a break up of the Inland Manpower Committee.

Rhonda Cumby

San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors was based more on political reasons than other considerations. Those who wanted to attend a tremendous vote, and who are the "losers," are young, unorganized, apparently minorities.

George Kirby

The San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors has recommended a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has a separate agency that has the Federally funded job training programs.

Rhonda Cumby and Terry Richardson endorse City Council candidate Dan Frazier for the 6th ward council seat.

Sunday, January 30, 1983, was Mission Sunday. The Mission Dept. was in charge all day. They sang three wonderful songs in the morning service. We had a special guest minister who brought the message, Prince Joshua from Nigeria. "Pray for Africa" was the title of his sermon and Rev. 3:1 was his text. Prince Joshua invited us back to Africa for a moment and tried to show us some of the problems that Africa faces. Africa is few are starvation, sickness and disease, and the inability to hear to Gospel. Prince Joshua reminded us that we are selling money, but money is not enough. We need the money in ignorance and the ignorance is spent in ignorance. We need to LOVE and PRAY for Africa. But before we can love someone else, the Blacks of America must first unite in LOVE for one another. At 3 p.m. Rev. B. R. Harris presented our Annual Educational Program. The program was Youth "The Young Adult Choir, the Adult Choir, a duet by Remera Lewis and Bible Palmer, duets by Leslie Cunningham and Quint Harris, La Christmas Choir on

Muslim Mission

By Imam Ron Ef-Ami11

The following questions or comments are directed to Imam Wahiduddiah Muhammad (Leader of the American Muslim Museum), by the general public. We hope that the answers provided by him will serve to educate the public on the religion of Islam in America and throughout the world.

What is the ultimate purpose of human life?

The ultimate purpose of human life is to recognize the existence of the Lord God, our Creator. Once we realize that our lives are dependent on the existence of God, we then are able to see the meaning of life and the purpose for which we were created. This recognition is necessary for a complete understanding of the ultimate purpose of human life. The following answers are provided by Imam Wahiduddiah Muhammad, the Leader of the American Muslim Museum.
We pray that the Lord bring us to the edge of witnessing another Missionary milestone. Our special guest speaker was Sis. M. Singleton who spoke to us from Ferguson 6-3-32 and the theme was "We must go and work for the Lord." Some of the highlights of her message administrated to us in the spirit of a teacher and mindful of our own faults. We must pray for our enemies, confess our sins one to another and love our enemies. God will give us the desire of our heart if we seek Him first and foremost. Our guest should be the last effort we put our effort in Christ. The question should not be what someone can do for me but what can I do for God. Our hearts were warmed as Sis. Singleton’s daughter, Sis. June Lynch sang "The Blood That Jesus Shed For Me" before the mission’s sponsored by II Unit of Missions. Time: 10:00 a.m. This cold world needs — Warm-hearted Christians.

AMOS TEMPLE

This past Sunday, 5th Sunday, which is also Missionary Sunday rendered us with quite a unique experience in the Local Church. We had a very unique experience. Sis. Carol Wilson stood up in her faith as she sang, "Praise the Lord!" When an inspiration to hear one of our old favorites, "Have A Little Talk With Jesus", and "Just A Closer Walk With Thee", sincerely done by Sis. Barbara Campbell. These songs really.left the congregation inspired and happy in the Lord. Sis. Jerlean Jones came in with words from the Missionaries. The spirit was kept alive by Rev. C. Ball and served to us the Son of God, through our hearts, without fear. We let the things of the world separate us from the love of God. After the enchainment and fulfillment received during the morning worship, we were then entertained by Rev. Ball on return service, which occurred at 4:30 p.m.

"Come Thou" was the opening hymn Sunday Morning followed by Prayer of the open heart. The Colossians rendered "Fly Away", and Scripture was read from John 4:14. This was "We must go and work for the Lord." The spirit was kept alive as Rev. C. Ball and served to us the Son of God, through our hearts, without fear. We let the things of the world separate us by the love of God. After the enchainment and fulfillment received during the morning worship, we were then entertained by Rev. Ball on return service, which occurred at 4:30 p.m.

Big Hearts and Beautiful People. My family and I visited the Bethel A.M.E. Church on Sophia Street last Sunday. If I was asked to describe the church and it's people I would say that they are sincere, loving, purposeful, and devoid of mediocrity. I was very happy to become dear friends of ours. Cheryl Brown (VOICE EDITOR). Mrs. Willie Mae and Mrs. Josephine Gray were among those requesting names of good Hope residents who are sixty years young or more to be recipients of a food bank. The senior citizens were especially supportive with their beautiful voices filled up in song and the mature manner in which they conducted themselves. We appreciate the warm welcome and wonderful service we experienced at Bethel and plan to return very soon.

What Is Wrong? Unfortunatly such folks have it that approximately half of this year's senior class will not graduate in June. This is beginning to sound like a broken record... It is unfair and uncles to place blame on the system school, parents, or any particular individual. I submit to you however, that there are a combination of problems and situations which lead to the phenomenon, and we must all share blame for it's existence. Something is wrong, and it will remain wrong until we as a community, become concerned and adopt it ourselves to finding a remedy for this deplorable situation.

The longer we wait, the worse it will become and the more young people we will see as a result of our complacency. Can we afford it?

IT'S OUT OF THIS WORLD

The Army's policy in "fueling" is to provide every soldier with a vehicle, regardless of his skill and ability to drive. This is a major problem because the Army does not have enough qualified drivers. The Army is working on a "lemon" law to cover new cars for one year or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first. The time limits on the buyer's rights are to avoid extended periods where he is involved in the dispute resolution program.

CONSUMER QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

By Eunice Williamson

QUESTION: What is the Auto Lemon Law? ANSWER: In July 1, 1972, the Governor signed into law the Auto Lemon Law 20-72. Under this law, new car purchasers will be entitled to a brand new replacement of the "lemon" or a refund of the purchase price of the vehicle, if after four attempts, the dealer fails to satisfactorily repair a major defect that affects the value of the car, or safety of the new car. A second written request for replacement or refund will result in the car not to be a service for a cumulative total of more than 30 days after delivery. The customer shall notify the manufacturer directly at least once during the course of the unsatisfactory attempts at repair. And if the dealer has a state-approved third party resolution dispute program, the buyer must first utilize it before using for replacement of refund.
