The BULLETIN

NEW PHYSICAL EDUCATION BUILDING NOW COMPLETED

The College will take official occupancy of the Physical Education Building today, according to Executive Dean Joseph Thomas.

The Physical Education Department will move into their new facilities, which were under construction 15 months.

There are a few items to complete which the contractor is committed to correct within a short time. The $1,200,000 gymnasium boasts a 75x45-foot pool, a 1,450 seating capacity, a regulation basketball court, two practice courts, nine offices, a 50-seat classroom, a conference room and a large activities room. There are dressing facilities for men and women.

The following new phone extensions for the P.E. Department are listed below:

	Ext.	Room
Chairman, Physical Education Dept.	431	PE-121
Equipment Issue Room	438	PE-150

A SELLOUT the Cookout. The supply is not expected to last, according to Dr. Russ DeRemer. Food will be served at 4:30. Games, swimming (bring your own towels), etc. begin at 2:00 p.m.

"THE VIRGIN SPRING," A 1960
AWARD-WINNING FILM, Academy Award-
IS SHOWING TONIGHT winning film,

"The Virgin
Spring," will be shown tonight in PS-10 at 8:00 p.m.

Directed by Ingmar Bergman, the man who has been called "the only motion picture artist of today whose work bears the stamp of genius" by the Christian Science Monitor, "The Virgin Spring" has been reviewed nationally as "masterful," "flawless" and "one of the year's ten best."

Max von Sydow stars as the revenging father and Gunnel Lindblom as the blond, beautiful and good daughter.

COLLEGE CHORUS The College Chorus is organizing this year under NOW ORGANIZING the leadership of Mr. Michael Andrews, Lecturer in Music. Mr. Andrews asks that all persons of the College community who are interested in participating in the chorus please come to the regular chorus meetings on Tuesday, Wednesday or Friday in C-104 at 11:30. All voices are needed, tenors particularly.

FACULTY, STAFF INVITED Don Cotten of Riverside, a new graduate
TO PLAY CHESS CHAMPION student who is the nationally rated chess champion of San Bernardino and Redlands, will challenge all persons interested in playing him at a simultaneous exhibition next week.

The exhibition will begin at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, October 15, in Rooms PS 104, 105 and 107. Several faculty members and students are expected to respond to Cotten's challenge.

Cotten, who won a $100 cash prize in the Southern California Open, was champion of the Pasadena chess club while an undergraduate at Cal State Los Angeles.

He is organizing a CSCSB Chess Club which will welcome faculty and staff as well as students.

PROPOSITION 3 LEAFLET READY A leaflet explaining some facts about Proposition 3, the state-wide bond issue for educational construction, is attached to today's Bulletin.

More copies are available to College personnel who may wish to distribute them to groups. See the College Relations office, Rooms A-196 or A-197, for extra copies.

CSCSB has a big stake in Proposition 3: funds for construction of the new Creative Arts Center (Music-Drama-Classroom Building) in 1972. If Proposition 3 fails to carry a majority of the vote on November 5, this construction would be delayed.

FACULTY ENCOURAGED TO LIST PUBLICATIONS New and continuing faculty members are encouraged to inform the College Relations office of publications, papers presented, and other academic honors. These will be noted in the Bulletin, and in cases of noteworthy accomplishments, given to off-campus media. The Library also encourages all faculty members to give copies of their publications to the collection.

DATES SET FOR COMING HOLIDAYS November 5, Election Day, will be a regular workday. Credit for that day will be used as an in-lieu of holiday on November 29, the Friday after Thanksgiving. Veterans' Day, November 11, will be a regular workday also, with an in-lieu of holiday on December 26, the day after Christmas. The College offices will be closed on November 29 and December 26. Employees who wish to make other arrangements should consult their supervisors.

REMINDERS . . . Persons who have signed for keys to offices, other rooms or cabinets which they are no longer using are reminded by the Physical Plant office that they are responsible for the keys until returned to the Physical Plant office.
