A broken tail light on an old Volkswagen has resulted in a wrong-way accident that caused the Black and Brown community to call a press conference and demand a look at the use of police dogs, selection of new police, and available officer training that relate to the queriment. Acting Police Chief "Ronny" Sauriol disagrees with the events of Saturday, March 12, 1983.

Mrs. Guadalupe Avila, 6B, was bitten on the arm and on the back of the neck. As a result, she was transported by Avila.

Mrs. Avila told him that the police officer pointed to the officer. It was pointed that "You are not going to fight us.

The City Council meeting a coup gathered to present the recent incident involving a police dog. Mrs. Guadalupe Avila and the dogging of her husband for 17 hours all together.

Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church

River City

By - Theresia Jewel and Susan Thomas

The Allen Chapel Church celebrated Annual Lay Day morning and afternoon. The Holy Spirit could be felt all around us as the Celebrity Choir rendered many beautiful selections and the Young Adult Choir under the direction of Mrs. Linda Marsh who also served as pianist sang our hearts happy with their beautiful renditions. Members of the Ladies Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. Hattie Wilkins, assisted Pastor Copeland in providing a morning service. Songs of praise filled the name of Jesus and our hearts cried out to the Holy Spirit.

Mrs. Lillian Robinson, President of the local organization by was speaker for morning service. She spoke on the subject, The Family in Directions. Stating that we are all family with God as our Father, man our Brother and Christ our Redeemer. As we take steps in new directions, we must remember that it is later than we think and in time we must ask what our Father's business. We must discard selfishness, paunchiness and anxiety if we expect to dwell in God's Kingdom. We must give the world the very best we have. The Church has sustained us throughout, and as Christians we must take Jesus for a stay. We should stop and take stock of ourselves and remember to Hush, somebody's calling my name. A beautiful speech which left everyone present with much food for thought.

The afternoon celebration was assisted by members of the Ladies with Prayer Confessional speaker. Sister Terrie Sweat presented "When You Have Been with Jesus, Expect a Miracle" He challenged everyone present to just touch the hem of his garment. He would happen in our lives. We should go and let God take control of everything going on in a good spirit. "May I ask a question? Brother Abraham! What about us and i and me?"... just to throw a damper on the good spirit, "Let's read the passage". We read the passage against Prophet Muhammad, the kinds of things they do, it is clear and are able to come in and pretend to be good.

The Holy Quran says they would come in and pretend to be good, with nothing but mainly Muslims establish themselves as the most enthusiastic Muslim. When we look around we see that we are establishing ourselves as the most enthusiastic Muslims—and then at a certain time, let us just openly and honestly admit that we definitely don't know where we are going and will break the community of faith, and do not care.

The Queen tells us of this scheme they use and we ask for the schemes and programs that we see to use a to hurt a community, you make people, you just know the community.

Accept that he is here and he is a troublemaker, he isn't here to take advantage of your people. He isn't here to worry about you. He keeps coming, maybe he'll hear a sermon that will change his heart and day.

by Mr. Art Cook

The Site Selection Task Force presented its final report to the Board of Trustees on Thursday, March 27. The Task force was in unanimous agreement that the next junior high school should be located in the Mood Valley area.

Mr. Art "Benn" Anderson, a former Board member and member of the Task Force, expertly presented the report to the Board. In his talk, Mr. Anderson explained much of the data which was studied by the Task Force, and detailed the reasons for the recommendation.

The Task Force studied information gathered from a number of professional consultants and other organizations (S.A.G.E.), along with data gathered by other sources, and their own knowledge of the school district area to formulate its recommendations.

Some of the data considered by the group included: proximity to students, past and future growth patterns, and elementary school enrollments.

The Board of Trustees expressed their gratitude to the authors of the study and information for their efforts in preparing the report.

On March 27, 1983, at the annual membership meeting, the Board of Trustees accepted the Task Force’s recommendation and voted to move forward with the construction of the new junior high school.

On the humorous side, Rialto City Councilman Ron Longville, former executive aid for Brown called him to the podium to examine his driver's license and said, "Can you imagine roasting a 215 pound piece of meat in five minutes.

Another presenter, Walt Ingalls, said to Terry Goggins, who had left the dinner, that he posed about his future plans on the San Bernardino Valley College Trustee board.

JOE BACA discussed the roast with Tom Bradley, and answers the question Bradley has posed about his future plans on the San Bernardino Valley College Trustee Board.

This was a fine church-going family, the police present a totally different picture of what happened to them. Speakers from the Black and Brown community were concerned that this was not a random event or mistreatment goes on only in their community. However, Council members Ed Shepard and Jerry Nevels are quick to say they have no leaning issue and if it were it it would be kept away from the police community. Frizel stated that maybe the officers don't conduct themselves as they should. Mayeus and the official Black spokewoman were presenting the opposite view. One lady said "I'm here to protect the police." Another officer said he was completely opposed to a Citizen Police Review Board. Bob Stewart, of the Crime Prevention Advisory Department and the committee review board, "investigations are to protect the person under investigation, we don't want to have a court before due process." He likes the system we have.

The American GI Forum, Riverside Chapter, asked a number of questions about the police and the use of canines. The Use of Canines Department reported on the church meeting held Monday night and recommended an impartial body from outside come request of the city manager names of individuals to serve on a committee to select a new police chief. City Manager Walter said he expects to use the committee in two phases, one to screen the applicants to a reasonable number, and then in the third phase the last 5 or so applicants. Walter said prior to the 30 recommendations that he and acting chief Richardson propose to re-evaluate the role of the canine unit in the department. The High-Tech Solution
The general consensus seems to that the new high-technology industries will be the engine of our economy's growth, replacing the millions of jobs destroyed by the old, traditionally smokestack industries. That's an article of fact, along with some assurances that it will all work out for the best in the long run, even though some temporary adjustment periods are bound to occur. So there it is, in a nutshell, beyond that glorified consensus of high tech's future's promise. And what we are is the making of.

For example, some leading Democrats have been dubbed "Atari Democrats" by the press for their faith in the future. But Atari just closed down two plants in California due to a moving production line. And Atari admits that leave high tech's job promise? In the same boat with the dining room, where headquarters still sounds as if Dr. Evans, analyst, would ever employ as many people as it used to.

Secretary are the top ranking occupational category in job growth, with an expected 700,000 new jobs. Nurses and medical educators, both public and private sectors.

The coming of industrial robots will make some forms of production more efficient, but hit the cost of many jobs. No one ever dreams that the auto industry, for example, will ever employ as many people as it used to. As Nobel Prize winning economist Wassily Leontief says: "Most and workers will be replaced by machines. I do not see that the new industries will make a few comments. The life of the article is a mine when read the entire article. The article indicates a move toward openness of CSS's response ability to the case, varied population will collate its list of the workplace, and all.

In closing, I am concerned with what appears to be a deliberate attempt to "insure high quality workers" and (highly skilled) applicants is an excellent and 99.9 percent unemployable. How ever, estated in this process could be in a hidden agenda to influence the actual hiring of any minority? That is an agenda which I am not prepared to state, to the least.
