Boy 14, Struck by Bullet in a bad drug deal

As Ronnie Cole, 14, was help-

\(\text{t}\)ing his stepfather in the lan-

\(\text{d}\)e, he heard shots outside his home, in the project area of San Bernardino, and ran to the door to see what was happening. As he opened the door of one of the homes strikers hit him in the head and began to fire at the support system. Cole died.

2 men to date have turned themselves in but hot sources were released because of a lack of evidence.

The tragic incident happened after a drug deal went wrong. It seems one group purchased some drugs from a rival group. They were met by the strikers and had other rumors that this group went for help, returned and began to beat another street dealer who was involved in the first transaction. The bullets hit dazed as Cole went to the front door he was struck. Known as a "good kid," the community is upset and many are deciding to clean up that community from the drug pushers.

He is survived by his mother, Marguerite Cole; brothers Adolph of Menifee, Mesa, Wikee of Riverside, Mike Ray of Menifee, Moss; Bobbie Ray, Ronne Jones, Donnie, Arthur, and Norris, all of San Bernardino; Melvin and Larry of Menifee, Mike, two aunts, Dave and Ann, both of Menifee, Mrs., grandmother, Anna Mae Neil of San Bernardino, several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Service June 1-4 a.m. Thursday at Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Intermediate Pioneer Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call after 12 noon Wednesday at Mark B. Shell Memorial Chapel.

Bradley Featured at 12 Most Influential Blacks Reception

Tom Bradley came to San Bernardino last week to honor the 12 most influential Blacks in the Inland Empire and to push for voter registration.

Bradley lost the Governor's race in George Deukmejian by just over 30,000 votes and he reminded the crowd at the home of Bonnie Johnson that he is no longer that person to vote for. Although Bradley didn't declare he was still running for office he did say he would keep all options open. He said he may run for Mayor again or even in the U.S. Senate, he didn't leave out the governor's seat.

Bradley also needs money, his campaign has a $700,000 deficit and supporter Vivian Nash said we must help him to raise the money to clear this debt.

Those honored at the affair were: The Honorable, publisher of the "Black Voice News" and candidate for the San Bernardino City United School Board, Leon Wilma Carter, administraive assistant to Congressman George E. Brown Jr., D-Riverside, Frances Grice, executive director of the Operation Second Chance of Opportunity, Wesley Jefferson, deputy director of Operation Second Chance, Mary Marshall Mansfield, a display sales account executive at The San Bernardino Sun, Value Pope Ludlam, executive director of the CDC solar energy project, Morrell Johnson, president of the San Bernardino branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Dr. Benjamin Livingstone, associated with the Omega society.

The recipients of the Precinct Reporter's 12 Most Influential Blacks in the Inland Empire were presented with awards by Publisher Art Townsend and Mayor Tom Bradley (back middle) left to right, Bonnie Johnson was the hostess for the gala affair, Rev. Charles (Chuck) Singleton, Pastor of Loveland Baptist Church, Mary Massey, active member of the Social Literate people's campaign and account executive at the San Bernadino Sun, Frances Grice, Executive Direc- tor of Operation Second Chance, Valerie Fass-Fuller, executive director of the Community Development Corporation and Wesley Jefferson, deputy director of Operation Second Chance, (back) Hardy Brown, Publisher of Black Voice News and candidate for the S.B. School Board.

Close to 200 citizens attended the presentation for the 12 Most Influential Blacks in the Inland Empire. The setting was at the beautiful home of Bonnie Johnson.

Community News
Many of our local residents have expressed concern and puzzlement about the rumor that Mrs. Edith Redfield is, or will become, a member of the high school board. Trusts. Of course, is not true.

The misinformation seems to have sprung from an article in a local paper (Press Enterprise), I think, which announced the appointment of Mrs. Redfield as principal of Mard Valley School. The article stated that she is a former member of the high school board.

I spoke with Edith concerning this matter and she assured me that she is still very much a member of the Board and she is sorry if the report caused any confusion or concern for anyone.

Hey Kids, SLOW DOWN!

I think that I'm becoming paranoid about driving especially on the freeways. The breakdown speed and humping ride that is taking place gives you the impression that you are in a collision at any minute. I'm trying to be so cautious to be caught between a pair of maniacs trying to race cars or another problem is the teenage driver. My daughter Leah and I were caught in the middle on a return trip from Las Vegas last weekend. We allowed our car to go the speed limit for a plenty of room, but the twin pressured tractor ahead of us was determined to take the road to Palm Springs instead of San Diego. The truck was traveling at an inhuman velocity. It smashed into our car and we were spun around in the freeway split it was a shock to a couple of times by other vehicles and forced into the other lane. If we hadn't been listening carefully we would never have known about the problem.

Lisette, many of the small cars respond quite promptly to acceleration, will zoom in and out, and are fun to drive, but they will also kill you with alcohol or drugs. Remember, slow down, seat belts are the best means to not risk your life or the agony of causing someones untimely end.

SCHOOL DAYS — Hey, what did you say? One of the major problems facing the schools today is violence. That statistic is not too bad. Why? The principal problem facing violence due to outside pressures is a war imputation of the existence of a foreign object into the canal. Middle ear hearing problems are usually caused by an accumula- tion of fluid in the middle ear space. Another problem is a progressive bony ossicular chain, which can destroy its mobility. A teenager's choice of music may have a profound effect on their hearing, the motivation to learn, a testing of the ear drum is very delicate.

Letters to the Editor

Writer Opposes Denton Appointment

The following is a response to a letter printed in the Voice written by State- nate President Pro- Tem Robert.

Mr. John Van de Kamp
Attorney General

Dear Mr. Van de Kamp:

I am writing to express our deep concerns and opposition to the appointment, or nom- nation, of Mr. George F. Denton becoming the permanent Direc- tor of the California Department of Correc- tions.

There are several basic reasons for our concern. We believe that the information that has been brought out from bipartisian elec- ted officials in Ohio, representatives from the Ohio Department of Corrections, and the public outcry from various religious, civic and communica- tions groups, regarding the lack of violence by those in the state of Ohio, a State that has a high rate of recidivism, is enough to convince the public of the ineffectiveness of the Ohio Department of Corrections and why California should not follow suit.

We believe that the appointment of such a leader, who may even cause corrections of moral, purpose, and in some cases, a true leader, is more important for the psychological and physical well-being of African American people, as well as the model for professional, construct- ively violent administrators. We believe that the office of the Director of the California Department of Corrections is the most serious and critical position in our society.

We wholeheartedly support the idea of the Professional Management Group of Africa, to bring a positive change to the State of California.

The current administration of the State of California is accepting comments from the public about the appointment of a new Director of Corrections. Your letter to the Editor expressed support for the appointment of Mr. Denton.

We respectfully ask that you reconsider your position and support the choice of a non-violent, transformative person for the role of Director of Corrections.

Sincerely,

Assembly to vote against a resolution commemorating the Peace March led by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in 1963, he reveals himself to be a man not only hostile against women but also against all Americans who believe in peace. When Don Sebastiani says that "it is lots of things done under the guise of the peace movement are a shield for ultra-liberal political activities" and that "the peace movement prolonged the war and augmented our deficit" he wasn’t literalizing to Dr. King’s statements.

The man who finds the sentiments of peace and equality dangerous to our nation’s future is the man who has designed a reapportionment plan which hinges on his own sinister prejudice. It is any wonder that this man’s plan pits minority against minority (while reducing the number of minority seats in the Legislature) and virtually eliminates 10 of the 17 women and Jews in every California public legislator in the State Legislature and Congress. I urge all Californians to judge Sebastiani and his plan by his own words and actions.

Facts About Blacks, 1982-83 Handbook

The 1982-83 edition of FACTS ABOUT BLACKS is now available. This seventh edition is an excellent reference for speakers, journalists, government executives, police agencies, studies of consumer buying characteristics, population characteristics, Black people and those persons interested in documented information on Black people.

FACTS ABOUT BLACKS includes:

- Consumer buying characteristics, population characteristics (Black population of 100 cities and the 50 states); politics, income, employment, education, business, Blacks on corporate boards, and the rank and number of men and women in the Armed Forces. This concise, pocket size brochure states in simple language the status of Black people in the United States.

Economy Recovery, Short & Stupid Part 1

First, there is the almost $200 billion federal deficit that is using up credit. Second, there are the bad ownership lines of the past, which are trying to buy "make good" (rebuid capital) at the expense of current customers. Third, the banks today offer interest.

Federal Revenue Sharing

McCandless Reports

The House of Representatives recently passed the Federal Revenue Sharing Bill of 1983, and during the debate, I offered two amendments to the measure one of which passed, and one of which failed.

The amendment which passed eliminates the state share of federal revenue sharing. Franklin, I saw no reason to continue the "state's share" clause. Revenue sharing funds for the states have not been appropriated since 1976, and whatever they would be appropriated this year, or in the next few years. I felt strongly that the states should be honest with Governors and State Legislatures, and tell them that there will be no state share by entitlement or through the appropriate process.

My amendment was also "budget sensitive." The bill authorized $29 billion for the states, subject to appropriation. I was concerned that some of my colleagues might call the Congress' bluff and appropriate the money. Could this nation afford it? We are serious about reducing the deficit and cutting off the recovery, and an increase in interest, they certainly will not just sit back and smile.

I suggest that Mr. Paul Volcker and the rest of the economists upgrade their economic forecasts to reflect the reality. I can see the massive unemployment. I can feel the concern about the national debt and the surpluses. I can see the massive unemployment. I can feel the concern about the national debt and the surpluses. I can see the massive unemployment. I can feel the concern about the national debt and the surpluses. I can see the massive unemployment.
