Local dignitaries turn out for acceptance of a new check from Miller Brewing Co. for the Black Film Festival to be held in February, 1 r. Lorenzo Boyd, Mayor Al Brown, Bud Watts, Dr. Norma Towels, and Robert (Bob) Jennings.

Miller Presents Check for Black Film Festival

A month-long black film festival has been added to the list of events scheduled for Riverside's observance of Black History Month in February. The festival will begin Feb. 2 with the fund-raising premiere of a still-to-be-named movie at the Canyon Crest Cinema's 50-seat theater.

The Riverside Black History Month Committee will sponsor the event and it hopes premiere tickets, at $20 each, will raise $5,000 or $6,000 for scholarship funds and pay for other festival screenings.

Funds the committee hopes to show include "Birth of a Nation," the 1915 film, a true Klan classic by D.W. Griffith that lasted a controversy when it was shown in 1915, the "Hallelujah" (1929), an early talkie about a cotton worker's mother.

The first witness, David Bulf, who became a preacher after he left the service, will testify that it was shown here in 1978. The second ticket will be a showing of "Sugar Ray" Robinson was so called because of a sporting event.

The trip west on the truck was arranged by the local distributor for the People who wish to suggest a change of future plans. 369-8130, or Rose Mayes, the personnel consultant, will be available.

Towels said festival profits will be divided into sections. The former will provide scholarships for local students. He said Mike's check plus premiere ticket sales should total $12,000, while expenses, including all film rentals, will cost $5,000 to $6,000, leaving $5,000 or $6,000 for scholarships.

The 35mm and 16mm films will be shown at the Canyon Crest Cinema or at the main public library at 3581 Seventh St., in the Little City Hall primarily with The Black Cultural and the Artistic organizations and used to provide scholarships for local students.

Congressman Brown Announces Grant for Riverside County Schools

Washington, D.C. - Congressman George E. Brown, Jr. (D - Riverside) announced today the allocation of $275,000 to the Riverside County Schools' Headstart/State Preschool Program by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The program funds 18 delegate agencies in Riverside County that serve preschools to 1,700 children before the ages of three to five years old. The Health and Human Services grant provides the Federal share of the program. The State of California is expected to fund the preschool portion of the program at approximately $690,048.

Brown said, "I am pleased that this program has continued to gain the funding that it deserves. Headstart has helped disadvantaged children prepare for entry into the mainstream of this country's educational system since its inception in 1966." Brown indicated that the money would go for the special services for the handicapped and for parent training.

Epilepsy Society Presents Film

The Riverside Impaired Counties Epilepsy Society announces an enlightening film, "Epilepsy: Build Your Own City, Build Your Own Walls" on Thursday, Sept. 22 at 7 p.m. at All Saints Church, 3647 Terrace Dr., Riverside.

Free to the public, this informative film features actors Michael Leomed, who approaches epilepsy from clinical, psychological and social directors.

The program will be general discussion, questions and problem sharing.

For additional information, contact the Epilepsy Society at 868-9213 or at its office at 7886 University Ave., Riverside.
Bethel AME Fennis News
Rev. Edgar Jackson, Pastor
Charles Langston, Reporter

We are happy to welcome back Rev. and Sis. Jackson from their vacation family reunion in Atlanta, Ga., and congratulations are in order because of their reappearance at Bethel, Peria. We are also thankful for the safe return of vacationers Sten, Elyama, Cama, and Nicole Rodgers who were visiting relatives in New Orleans and Kansas City respectively.

Rev. Jackson's sermon for the first Sunday of the new conference year was "Let the Lord Be Our Guide." The text was taken from Isaiah 40:31-32, and the message was that we, as Christians, do have a choice that will determine the direction of our lives, and it would behoove us to let the Lord be our guide. Those who choose anything else as their guide, the results are made clear by Israel's examples: "Woe unto rebellious children."

To get a better picture of your life today, is selected and made recipient of Prince Chapel's $1,000 scholarship. The scholarship is designed to aid future UC San Diego students. Rote, a dual honor graduate from Arlington High School, Riverside, will be entering UCSD this fall, and she will major in free M.C.E.

The Bethel family extends a warm welcome to Bro., and Sis. Ross, and Sis. Ovese Kelley, our newest members.

Community Life Part II

The Black (African American) community has become an instrument of our liberation. It has produced nothing but ideas beyond our reach and concepts above our heads. Consequently those things that are said are not always heard, and those things needed to be done have not been done.

The Bibleway Family welcomed our pastor back from his vacation. We are glad to see him. Our Sunday morning worship service was a fine spiritual experience. We enjoyed a good devotional period and good singing from the choir.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw a new Jerusalem safely set up, and there was nothing that could harm her. She overcomes shall inherit all things. And God himself shall be with them and be their God, and establish His kingdom in the earth.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Sometimes the wildest remark is the one you keep to yourself.

We have yet to meet new challenges that will advance and dignify the posture of our community. We are still struggling with yesterday's unsolved problems. Death, brutality, addiction, and prostitution, etc., are not at all unheard of today. As we speak, others are suffering the same fate. What do we do? We are so near the end of that struggle and we still have an inordinate amount of time to reflect.

It was BOADADAY-3, and we had another good day. I am now going to the Gospel Workshop of America this year in Cincinnati, Ohio. It was BOADADAY-3. I really had a good time. It was a good opportunity to be cordial, avoided excessive remarks to reflect on the experiences of our lives.

The problem was that I had to learn to refrain from offering my unrequested opinions, and to get along with personal and social relationships with music lovers around the country.

Now I don't want you to think I was a social misfit among the gospel artists. The problem was that I had to learn to refrain from offering my unrequested opinions, and to get along with people and social relationships with music lovers around the country.

I suppose a sense of right and wrong is very important, perhaps the most important is using your imagination. Sometimes we need to stop and be more, look more, and listen more. We will be glad that others share our line of thinking. The workshops provided me with a wealth of experiences and resonates that the typical individual might never be a consistent part of the world. We believe that someone of the data is just a good sense of making sense.

Next year the workshop will convene in Atlanta, Georgia, I can't wait! It will be my first visit to Atlanta, if you happen to know of any nice colored eating facilities there, I would be glad to hear from the dear editor, Cheryl Brown.

Rev. C.B. Tollette

Reverend Dr. C. B. Tollette Reappointed as Pastor of Amos Temple at Annual Conference

The Seventy-Fourth Session of the California Annual Conference held at Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church, Los Angeles, CA, Aug. 30-Sept. 4, 1983, was well represented by Roziers. Conference theme: "Christ in the Modern Ecumenical Church Understanding Seeking the Kingdom of God - Through Bible Study." Delegates representing Amos Temple's Lay Department were Mrs. Ernest Brooks, local Lay President, Linda Lammert, Mary Wilson, Sr., Yolanda Lee and Lashe Cunningham, who recently returned from the International Christian Youth Conference which convened in Nassau, Lashe brought back a very significant and stimulating experience to the Bible and our Christian Commitment which was presented at the Annual Conference. Ms. Georgiama Hickman and Ms. Torria Bullard were youth representatives.

One very meaningful highlight of the conference was at the point when Bishop Nathaniel Lindsey assigned nine local ministers to nine different areas under the sponsorship of churches already established for the purpose of new church growth in those areas needed. It was a "Seed" and Watch it Grow!

Another moving experience during the conference was the ordination of Rev. Dan Bullard, who was ordained Elder and appointed as assistant pastor of Amos Temple C.M.E., Riverside, while Bishop Lindsey presided.

Annual Conference Musical was presented on Wed., Aug. 31st, which consisted of a Mass Choir representing numerous churches of the 9th Episcopal Dist. Local participants from Amos, Riverside, were Jesse Singleton, President of the Orange Choir, Amos and Lashe Cunningham. Over 700 deleagtes and officers attended the Annual Conference Laymen's Banquet held Sept. 2nd at the Proud Bird Restaurant, Los Angeles, CA. Helen Jacobs, Local Soloist from Amos Temple, Riverside, was a guest soloist as a special event. According to Bishop Lindsey, the conference was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided, was a great success, and the conference, as Bishop Lindsey presided.
When Dorothy Louise Powell left Riverside in 1966, after graduation from Rubidoux High School and two years at the University of Riverside, she thought she’d become a social worker and help people who needed her.

After 2 years at UCR she transferred to UC Berkeley, she finished and became a social worker. However she decided it wasn’t for her and even made a change in her name to Shezwae.

She got a break in the stage production “Hair” one afternoon, went back to her desk for her plant, said goodbye and have never looked back.

The first start many years ago is a memory, but she has lived the exciting Paris, London and New York and recently has married an Englishman, John Gibbons.

As a young girl Shezwae was a self described “Jack of all trades, master of none.” She played the saxophone, clarinet, and drums, “as soon as I learned one well enough to play it I moved on to something else.”

She recalls after her cousins from Guam taught her the hula she got a job working the Royal Tahitian on a supper club in Ontario, Canada until her father (George) put a stop to it.

Funding that episode she said she played in a rock’n roll band with her brother Frank.

Shezwae said her social worker job lasted for a year, but the frustration level was high. “I just couldn’t do as much as I wanted!” One afternoon she recalls, “I took the afternoon off, went for the Hair audition, got the job, went back, got my papers off my desk, and said I’ll never do it again.”

For 15 years she was in Paris in San Francisco before it went national.

Shezwae fashioned herself after Katherine Hepburn, Ethel Waters and Ruth Gordon, she was a serious actress, every show had to have a heavy, matinee or evening, but when it was a pretty day outside, “I wanted.” One afternoon lasted for a year, but the work allowed a voice to be heard as if not heard it’s too bad. The shocked Voice reporter said you mean there are stars who can’t sing! The question was answered with a laugh as John told of how a person is hyped up with publicity but can’t sing. The audio engineer, he explained it’s all in the audio.

While living in Paris, she began singing in jazz clubs, all the changes are for versatility. Since singing on stage takes a different style she wanted to learn how to use a microphone.

Schools are expected to have the knowledge and training required to carry out the education programs. Personally, the parents are concerned, or should be with what their children learn in school and how well it is taught. Financially, every taxpayer should be interested in what the tax dollar is buying and it should be spent efficiently. Policies should reflect the wishes of the total community to the greatest extent.

The parent/taxpayer should be very concerned if the schools they would like their child to attend are not practiced by the school board. Any type of function that is questionable should be brought to the attention of the school board.

The image left for the students and parents to see will shape our future. Let us have a good future.

Together we can!!

International Writers & Artist to form local chapter

Writers and Artists are invited to attend the meeting of the Internacion de Escritores y Artistas, Inc., Island Empire Local No. 9. The meeting, at 7 p.m. on Monday, September 12, will be held at the Dorothy Ivory Branch Library at 1250 Vine St. W. Highland Ave. in San Bernardino.

The International Writers and Artists, Inc., was formed in Los Angeles and is the California chapter of the broader movement in the state to help writers and artists make a decent living by writing and making art. It was formed by a group of over 300 writers and artists who want to write and make art that they can sell to as many people as possible. This group will create opportunities for those who want to write and make art but who may not have the resources to help their work find an audience. Those who want to help in their own way are encouraged to attend and make suggestions. There will be Local No. 1, already active in San Diego, Chicago, St. Louis, NY, Oak land and San Francisco.

For more writers and artists, contact Adolfo L. Mariscal, 1924 W. 2nd St., San Diego, CA 92101; or Genevieve Chaves, 118 S. 3rd St., San Bernardino, CA 92410.

Michael has been trained by Jeff Coyle and Benjamin Zemach (an actual student of Stanislavsky), but needs the finest training possible from an American actor. He is soon to leave for the YWCA, Florida State University and the University of California at Berkeley. His past training has included the Los Angeles Actors Workshop, the American Conservatory Theater, the University of Southern California, and the National Conservatory of Dramatic Art. Michael is a member of the Actors Guild and the Screen Actors Guild. He is a graduate of Brown University, where he majored in English and philosophy.

Michael has always been interested in children and has worked with the YMCA, Foundation, etc. For the Junior Blind, Rossway, Boys Scouts and many more. So strong is his belief that "the children are the future," that he started a group called "Right Track." The group sends students and children around the country to talk with children about drug abuse. The organization is in its second year of existence and has the support of both John Boles, Treado Chico, Dave Cento, Henry Winick, Karen Black, Sammy Davis Jr., Florence Henderson, John and Patty Duke, Alvis, Greg Morris and many more. Michael, as a result of his work in saving America's children from drugs and their effects, has received civic and congressional accolades.

But first and foremost, Michael is an actor. His goal is, through acting, to bring mankind to a higher plane and to make the world a better place. Michael Roberts is currently doing a show for a new TV series called "Memorial" coming out on NBC in the Fall.

Dinner Co. Chairs Sandra Carr and Jack Clark feel the addition of Roberts will add to the quality of the event.

Michael is a member of the Actors Guild and the Screen Actors Guild. He is a graduate of Brown University, where he majored in English and philosophy.

Michael has always been interested in children and has worked with the YMCA, Foundation, etc. For the Junior Blind, Rossway, Boys Scouts and many more. So strong is his belief that "the children are the future," that he started a group called "Right Track." The group sends students and children around the country to talk with children about drug abuse. The organization is in its second year of existence and has the support of both John Boles, Treado Chico, Dave Cento, Henry Winick, Karen Black, Sammy Davis Jr., Florence Henderson, John and Patty Duke, Alvis, Greg Morris and many more. Michael, as a result of his work in saving America's children from drugs and their effects, has received civic and congressional accolades.

But first and foremost, Michael is an actor. His goal is, through acting, to bring mankind to a higher plane and to make the world a better place. Michael Roberts is currently doing a show for a new TV series called "Memorial" coming out on NBC in the Fall.

Dinner Co. Chairs Sandra Carr and Jack Clark feel the addition of Roberts will add to the quality of the event.

SACRAMENTO Senate President Pro Tempore Dave Roberts today praised the U.S. House for approving an interstatecompact's vote of 339-9 in favor of the compact, which would make the third Monday in January a national holiday in recognition of the contributions of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Roberts was instrumental in getting the proposal past Congress in 2013. "I believe making California the 3rd state to join the compact is a good first step," said Roberts, D-Baldwin Park. The bill now goes to the White House for the President's signature.

The controversial stand-­-­¬ took against contamination of the Vietnam war, in favor of diplomatic negotiations with China, against wars of any kind he was ahead of his time. He was the first to see that since his untimely death, the United States, under different Presidents, has followed up on the paths he recommended.

ROBERT FRAISES HOUSE PASSAGE OF MLK HOLIDAY

"We've had more grand jury proceedings and the Justice Department has pursued convictions of people who violate the civil rights of others than its predecessor or any other administration. The area of equal employment discrimination, Mr. Bush said that there were over 100 ongoing cases against public employers who had discriminated against blacks.

In the area of housing discrimination, the White House recently sent Congress proposed new amendments that would put teeth into the Fair Housing Law," which would levy heavy financial fines against those who practice housing discrimination.

Mr. Bush again stated that charges by the NAACP that the Reagan administration "has been a whitewash," the theme that he repeated, were unfounded. The Justice Department had taken legal action against Massachusetts and Alabama discrimination and had expanded its programs in education systems. The Justice Department is currently investigating discriminatory practices in both schools and universities.

Mr. Bush openly talked about the disagreements between the NAACP and the White House. He said that the White House "does not see eye to eye on the issue of aid to the blacks. Another differing view is the issue of what he called quotas. The disagreements, he said, were not organized into methods to achieve those goals.

The Vice President said he was glad to have the opportunity to address the NAACP delegates to talk about the Reagan administration's record on dealing with black issues and problems.

Mr. Bush ended his speech by maintaining a dialogue between black leaders, in order to "help meet the challenge and to stop the programs that affect America's black community." He added the doors to the White House and the President will remain open regardless of whether "they vote for us or not."
