Trials Begin

Tuesday opened the trial of Jackson C. Daniels, the parolee accused of the deaths of two Riverside police officers, Dennis C. Daly and Philip N. Trust May of 1982. The trial opened with the prosecution's Edward D. Weisler's opening statements.

The continuing objection to the defense attorney Carl Jordan, the prosecutor gave instructions. The jury, which has no blacks, saw a still presentation which the prosecution contends was the sequence of events which led to the officer's deaths. Contraction of the permission to allow television cameras became evident as at least a motor officer for their removal. The judge has previously given permission to allow television cameras and including a tape recorder from a station that para-will be free or no more than $2. The films will be preceded by a free offering a Job Search Workshop. Most of the films sought in raising the needed money, fees. Most of the films sought a local group for the People who wish to suggest why blacks are portrayed in films. The films will be presented by a speaker who will describe the social conditions when the films were made and explain why blacks are portrayed in particular films.

Towels said if they succeed expense will be the film rental fees. The $2,000 check to fund Filmmakers Association in New York City and Myphedun will go in now, he said, and most of the films sought a local group for the People who wish to suggest why blacks are portrayed in particular films.

Congressman Brown Announces Grant for Riverside County Schools

Washington, D.C. - Congressman George E. Brown, Jr. (D-Riverside) announced today the obligation of $1,701,035 to the Riverside County Schools' Handicap/State Pre-Kash Program by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

The program funds 18 delegates to state agencies in Riverside County that serve girls between the ages of three to five years old. The Health and Human Services grant provides the federal share of the program. The state of California is expected to fund the provincial portion of the program at approximately $943,048.

Brown said, "I am pleased that this program has continued to grow and is expected to comply with dress and conduct standards required of regular employees."

FUTURE LESSONS

The Riverside County Department of Education is excited to announce that the school district has received a grant from the California Department of Education to provide weatherization services to eligible households in the County of Riverside.

"Weatherization is a series of home improvements that can make a home more comfortable and energy efficient," said Lois J. Carlson, Executive Director, Community Action Agency. "The improvements may include the installation of a weather heater blanket, low flow showerhead, weather-stopping caulking, air insulation, duct wrap and other minor home repairs."

To be eligible, households must have a Southern California Gas Company Account, reside in Riverside County and meet income guidelines, for instance a family of four can have a gross income of up to $13,370 per month. Weatherization services are available to homeowners and renters. For more information on eligibility and services, please contact Ada Moore at (714) 787-2019 or contact the Weatherization Program at the Community Action Agency, 3066 Seventh Street, Riverside, 92501.

Bethel AME Perris News
Rev. Edgar Jackson, Pastor
Charles Langston, Reporter

We are happy to welcome back Rev. and Sr. Jackson from their vacation family reunion in Atlanta, Ga., and congratulations are in order because of their reappointment to Bethel, Perris. We are also thankful for the safe return of vacationers Sr. Evelyn Chalmers, and Max Nicole Rodgers who were visiting relatives in New Orleans and Kansas City respectively.

Rev. Jackson's sermon for the first Sunday of the new conference year was "Let the Lord Be Our Guide." The text was taken from Isaiah 30:20,21, and the message was that we, as Christians, do have a choice that will determine the direction of our lives, and it would behoove us to let the Lord be our guide. Those who choose anything else as their guide, the results are made clear by Israel's examples. "Woe unto rebellious children."

The Washington Post reporter of today's issue, was selected and made recipient of Prince Chapel's $3,000 scholarship. The scholarship is designed to aid future UC San Diego students. Kit, a jazz honor graduate from Arlington High School, Riverside, will be entering USD this fall, and she will major in Free-Med.

The Bethel family extends a warm welcome to Bro. and Sis. Ross, and Sis. Olive Kelley, our newest members.

Rev. C.B. Tollette

Rev. Tollette Reappointed as Pastor of Amos Temple at Annual Conference

The Seventy-Fourth Session of the California Annual Conference held at Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church, Los Angeles, CA, Aug. 30 Sept. 4, 1983, was well represented by Roesiders. Conference Theme: "Christians: The Method Episcopal Church Understanding Seeking the Kingdom of God Through Bible Study." (Year of Maccles).

Delegates representing Amos Temple's Lay Department were Mrs. Ernest Brooks, local Lay President, Linda Laundrom, Harry Wilson, Sr. Yernel Lee and LaShelle Cunningham, who recently returned from the International Christian Young People's Conference which convened in Nassau, LaShelle brought back a very significant and stimulating report reference to the Bible and our Christian Commitment which was presented at the Annual Conference. Ms. Georga Hickmon and Ms. Torria Bulard were youth representatives.

One very meaningful highlight of the conference was at the point where Bishop Nathaniel Lindsey assigned nine local ministers to nine different areas under the sponsorship of churches already estabilished for the purpose of new church growth in those areas needed - Plant a Seed and Watch it Grow.

Another moving experience during the conference was the ordination of Rev. Don Bulard, who was ordained Elder and appointed as assistant pastor of Amos Temple C.M.E., Riverside, while Bishop Lindsey presided. Annual Conference Musical was presented on Mid. Aug. Thir, which consisted of a Choir representing numerous churches of the 9th Episcopal District. Local participants from Amos, Riverside, were Josette Singleton, Presiding Elder, and Leslie Cunningham, who brought back a very significant and stimulating report reference to the Bible and our Christian Commitment and Ministry which was presented at the Annual Conference.

Riverside, was selected as guest soloist for this musical event, accompanied by Music of Minister of Music, Rev. Kenneth Green.

Conference concluded on Sunday, Sept. 4th with the reading of the appointments of pastors by Bishop Lindsey. Rev. Charles B. Tollette was reappointed as pastor of Amos Temple C.M.E. Church, Riverside, CA.

Rev. Roosevelt Harper — Pastor

Georgia Rev. — Reporter

The Bibleway Family welcomed our pastor back from his vacation. We cannot thank God enough. Our Sunday morning worship service was a fine spiritual experience. We enjoyed a good devotional period and good singing from the choir.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. Pastor Harper told us how when that change comes, there will be no more death, no more sorrow, or crying, or pain. God himself shall wipe away all tears. All sin will be done away with. He that overcometh shall inherit all things. And God himself shall be with them and be their God, and establish His kingdom in the new earth.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Every Wednesday, 6:30 p.m. Prayer Meeting and Bible Study. The public is invited.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Sometimes we need to be reminded of the most irrational personalities and egos made rational by the most irrational... "Woe unto rebellious children.

We have yet to meet new challenges that will advance and dignify the posture of our communities. We are still struggling with yesterday's unsolved problems. Death, brutality, addiction, sex, crime, etc., are not to be said, we must talk about it, face it, act as though we are suddenly alarmed at the presence of these afflications that have plagued our lives for nearly 400 years. Our failure to unite and take charge of our lives offers proof that we are a people who look to others to dow what we are not prepared to do for ourselves. We are still divided in our mind's, we have no group form that establishes us as a progressive people in the world. Because we lack such form, we are not prepared to do for ourselves, and until we wake up to our own consciousness and accept the full responsibility of determining our own future we will always be little children thinking and acting in a world that is very ugly and basically.

Shezwae Powell Makes Good

When Dorothy Louise Powell left Riverside in 1968, after graduation from Rubidoux High School and two years at the University of Riverside, she thought she'd become a social worker and help people who needed her. After 2 years at UCR she transferred to UC Berkeley, she finished and became a social worker. However she decided it wasn't for her and even made a change in her name to Shezwae.

She got a break in the stage production "Hair" one afternoon, went back to her desk for her plant, said goodbye and never looked back.

The first start many years ago is but a memory, but she has lived the exciting Paris, London and New York and recently has married an Englishman, John Gibbons.

As a young girl Shezwae was a self described "lack of all trades, material now." She played the saxophone, clarinet, and drums, "assassins I learned one well enough to play if I moved on to something else."

She recalls after her cousins from Guam taught her the hula she couldn't do as much as before. While living in Paris, she began working in musicals. She played in a rock 'n roll band with her brother Frank.

Shezwae said her social worker job lasted for a year, but the frustration level was high. "I just couldn't take as much as I wanted!" One afternoon she recalls, "I took the afternoon off, went for the Hair audition, got the job, went back, got my Pay off my desk and I'll never be back."

For 16 years she was in Hair in San Francisco before it went national.

Shezwae fashioned herself after Katharine Hepburn, Ethel Waters and Ruth Gordon, she was a serious actress, every show had to have a strong desire to buy a home on the East Coast rather than England. What's is store? John will continue on the road for all the famous groups she works with and wife Shezwae, who's down to earth personality makes you know she hasn't forgotten from whence she came, will continue her singing career and work in commercial.

The electricity supply in our town is like that which runs a model electric train. When the electric load is evenly distributed throughout the day, there's usually enough power to go around. But on hot afternoons, office and home appliances and air conditioners are running. And dryers. And ovens. And other appliances. And the total electric load could get too heavy. So use your air conditioner sparingly. When you're home, please set it no lower than 78° When you go out, turn it to 85° or higher. Please give your appliances the afternoon off. Too. That way you can help lighten the peak load and help provide enough electricity to go around all day long. And we can defer the building of new power plants... and help keep electric bills down. You really do have the power. So please give your appliances the afternoon off.
Sympoisa on Business Opportunities in Cable to be Held in October

The first California symposium on minority business opportunities in the cable television industry will take place in October this year.

The symposium is sponsored by Assemblyman George Moon (D-Los Angeles), in conjunction with the Foundation for Community Service Cable Television (FCSCT). The symposium is an outgrowth of legislation (AB 2778, Chap. 126, Stats. 1982) introduced by Assemblywoman Moore which was enacted in 1982.

The California Symposium on Business Opportunities in Cable for Minority and Women Entrepreneurs will apprise minority and women entrepreneurs of the opportunities in the cable industry and encourage the state's cable systems and minority contractors to establish mutually beneficial commercial relationships. During the one-day symposium, minority and women entrepreneurs will participate in panel discussions and small group meetings with purchasing officers and managers of the state's cable systems.

"The cable industry is expanding rapidly in California," Assemblywoman Moore noted. "Minority and women entrepreneurs need to become aware of the many new and lucrative business opportunities in cable so they can prepare themselves to fully participate in this multibillion-dollar industry."

Assemblywoman Moore continued, "As the cable industry expands, it will need to identify new and competitive sources of supply for the products and services it needs. I am confident that many of the small and minority businesses in California can satisfy the needs of the industry, because it needs where the action is to locate them."

Two one-day regional symposia are planned: Saturday, October 10, Petaluma Community College, Oakland, California, and Saturday, October 22, Chico State University, Chico, California.

For further information on the California Symposium on Business Opportunities in Cable for Minority and Women Entrepreneurs, interested parties should contact the California Foundation for Community Service Cable Television, 562 Green Street, Suite 232, San Francisco, CA 94111, 815-387-2000.

QUESTION: What are water softeners?

ANSWER: Mechanical water softeners are an effective and available means to eliminate hardness in water. They can be placed inside the home, utilizing ion-exchange resins to remove calcium and magnesium from the water. These resins are effective because they combine with many types of soil on clothes, making hard water soft. In laundering, hardness minerals can become attached to the fabric. Mechanical water softeners remove these minerals and hold the water remains clear.

families living in poverty compared to a bit over a tenth unemployed men today than there were 20 years ago.

The Great Society did have a profound positive effect on the Black condition, but its achievements were far from being a panacea for all the problems facing Black Americans. The NAACP leadership had as its number one priority the defeat of the Reagan administration, and he and Reagan President both agreed that there was a need to "talk and listen to our critic, too."

The Vice President added that black leaders had always had access to the White House. "Just ask Ben (Hooks) whether he's ever had any trouble getting in."

Mr. Bush said that although the Reagan administration had always had access to the White House, the community is a constant dialogue among prominent black leaders and the Reagan administration, and in fact "progress was made." Mr. Bush added that while the door to the Reagan White House was opened to leaders of the Black community, both sides also had open minds to continue the dialogue.

The past few years have been a time of great progress for Black Americans. The Great Society programs were grossly underfunded by the Great Society era. As a result, fewer Blacks are in the workforce today than there were 20 years ago. The Black unemployment rate is only 56 percent of the White rate.

State Sen. Joseph Madison, Jr., president of the NAACP, said that the NAACP was "dead wrong" in charging that the Reagan administration had been lax on civil rights. "I think a wall of misunderstanding exists between most members of (the NAACP) and the Reagan administration, and no single speech or performance by the President Reagan will focus on: how to resolve issues and problems facing the black community."

The NAACP has been a powerful voice for civil rights in the United States, and its leadership has been instrumental in bringing about many of the changes that have occurred in the past few years. The NAACP has been at the forefront of the struggle for equal rights and opportunities for all Americans, and it continues to be a strong voice for justice and equality.
