Maxine Waters Gives Powerful Speech Locally

President Reagan has said he would sign the legislation dedicating Martin Luther King Jr. Day on the federal calendar. In January a holiday in honor of Dr. King was again postponed. The Senate passed it 78-22. King would have liked Black folks to have a national holiday in America.

The tremendous event, however, was marred by the arrest of San Bernadino Republican Senator from California, George Helms. Helms proposed many amendments limiting the number of federal holidays. King was in the 1960s, a stump speaker, a prolific writer and, of course, a leader of the movement to water the legislation down. He has even said records of the FBI show that because of plant closures and runaway industry. But the reasons she says they aren't making the money is because they didn't retrain. It's their priority was not to tolerate people working as in Japan, it was to must be a certain age and them in this country," she said.

None of the candidates will identify the issue. Unemployment is the #1 problem, make more money. Hence they have taken those jobs and expanded them to Third World countries, to pollute their environment and exploit their workers. She named Goerge as and General Motors as two examples of how these companies are undermining America and taking away the jobs. "Continental will show you how to do it; they had money in the bank and fled.

There is no reason a Black should not support Jackson's candidacy. Before Waters ended she mentioned her growing concern about Grenada. "We will not get the information until our administration decide to let us know what is happening. Instead of being a proud country it will be owned." She told the crowd of over 100 community people to seek information, try to find out what is going on there. "We will continue to support Jackson, since they won't give him any money anyway," commended Waters. Other people are saying I want to be with a winner. "You are adopting someone else's definition of win. What means more to me than the nomination. When Jesse Jackson has finished this campaign it will leave the South with a high registered turnout, and one can help you more than "I like you," she said. None of the candidates will answer. San Bernardino--Last week, Joseph Moten, 26, held his auburn in law and her infant son hostage for 14 hours and was charged last Friday, with three felony counts.

Moten is being held in the San Bernadino County Jail and his hostage attempt to have him come up $400,000 bond.

Moten broke into the home of his wife's sister, Judy White, last Tuesday and armed with a double barreled shotgun, threatened the elder White and her children if he could not see his estranged wife. Later, hesereased three other children to White's husband, but continued to hold the baby and mother.

Moten released his hostages and surrendered after a struggle with San Bernadino Police officers.

In an earlier incident Moten kidnapped his wife, dragged her out to a field and down on her chest. He was arrested last week in connection with the kidnapping and beating, but criminal charges were not filed.

He will receive a psychiatric evaluation.

The Daughters of Faith often fail to see the true, everlasting spiritual blessing that they bring to their community through their religious devotion.

Our religion is the only thing you have going for you. If you are a seeker, a deserter, you will see that there are others who have no benefit from thee.

When you can see, that's freedom; when you can hear, that's life. And that's how we view the world.

The system has set itself up. It sets things up. It's the way the world operates. People are not prepared to see the implications of what they are doing.

Father I have made known unto you. And all of you here aren't Muslims. There are other religions, other beliefs, other ways of living. They are not preparing themselves to keep that religion.

Failure is something which affects us all from time to time. Our faith possesses one of the world's greatest gifts, which is forgiveness. God is our creator and we have to accept his will.

Moreno Valley School Board Election is happy to announce that his campaign to become a member of the Board is getting high and low class attention. The "Low Class" is tearing down the aisle with Miss Marcella Lewis at the "Chapel of Love" in Riverside on Saturday, Oct. 29, 1983. Mrs. Lewis is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Eason of Sunnymead. As the two become one may the grace of God follow them the rest of their life.

Miss Brunner was up and down the field of play like a streak of lightning in a game that ended 11-6. Miss Brunner was a young lady like you, for your participation and effort. We hope that other girls will follow the model of dedication which they held recently at the elementary school. It was well done, thank you very much.

They seemed accidental—tragedies that had been shadowed and surrounded by tears. But you and I knew better Virginia. You, who had tried many times to leave this world, had truly left it. No longer will your eyes show sadness from too much giving and not enough receiving.

That day I didn’t take a last look. But I still hung on to your first one—and I knew the truth.

I remember the first time I saw you, sitting there surrounded by the writers of that day—a part of us. You had opened your door to us—"a Writers’ Workshop." It was called and we were all there. But the past, the novel, the rock, the esquisses, the Dr. was there—and more. There sat with your ears so sensitive—and listened to our worried words. I watched as your diamond-sparkled fingers brought the glass to your lips and then waited expectantly—for you to take a puff all of cigarette and speak.

I was fascinated by you and hung on to your every critical word. For you had been there. You had been among them—the Hollywood stars, the producers, directors, and the writers. I didn’t want to believe the tales and then one morning just before noon, I saw your hands shake before you had your first one—and I knew the truth. But I still hung on to your every critical word.

You were still the intellectual Virginia, the sensitive, caring, and warm Virginia. We talked of your depression and you told me, "I find many times to leave this world and he declared me with, taking my children from me." I saw the tears fall.

Depression was Virginia when you bought the mate and came to live amongst us. But your days brightened when you found you had friends and became a part of our world. But then you suddenly left us to become a recluse and went back to the emptiness of Malibu with the house high in the hills, surrounded by trees and no one.

I saw you there too Virginia and saw your hands shake there too. Smiles were on your face but I looked beyond them and saw eyes enlightened by too much giving and not enough receiving. The last time I saw you, we looked at your daughter no longer of this world and of the anger you felt for her taking it all away from you.

"I never had the chance to know her as a mother knew a child and I had begun to know her as an adult," you cried out that day. I saw the tears fall.

Riverside United Way Up 43 Percent

At first glance, you might consider the Riverside Area United Way's 1983 campaign goal of $2 million—43 percent more than the $1.4 million raised last year—to be a pipe dream, or at least a distant hope. After all, this is the economically-strapped 80's. But John Treadway says it's not so. What John Treadway may not know is that just the sees the old figures as unrealistically low. It's a challenge which all of the figures indicate is clearly within the easy grasp of the Riverside area to fulfill, "says Treadway, the 31 Campaign Chairman. "Only 16 percent of the area's employee population actually made a contribution to United Way last year; that number was increased by only 9 percent, which we would increase to $600,000." The Riverside Area United Way supports 41 community service agencies. According to the Chairman, the higher goal is simply a matter of those agencies with services as diverse as the Boy and Girl Scouts, rape and domestic counseling, and emergency medical care—taking a hard look at their needs. Previously, Treadway says, campaign goals were established through simple incremental increases. The 1984 figure was developed directly from the perceived needs of the agencies.

One innovation he cited for this year's campaign is a corporate giving guide, which will help corporations determine minimum contribution levels based on number of employees.

For instance, the guide calls for donations of $20 per employee to increase to that amount, donations between $20 and $24.99 to increase to $25, etc., through a 10 percent increase for those above $35. If the guidelines are followed, he notes, the prospects for "funding are almost good enough," and even $1 million is "not beyond reason." Agencies supported by the Riverside Area United Way serve the communities of Ben­ning, Beaumont, Lake Nor­ris, Rancho Cucamonga, and Riv­ erdale. The campaign, this year entitled "Nice Racing to Victory," con­tinues through December 8, when the expected victory celebration is scheduled.

Mayes Candidate for Val Verde School District

Rose Mayes is a candidate for the Val Verde School Board. She is a 3-year resident of Perris in the Mead Valley area.

She is employed by the Wal Street Bank and is the chair of the Black History Month Committee.

Mayes says “My commitment is to be elected to the Board of Trustees of the Val Verde School District so that I can continue to serve the needs of an ever increasing technological society.

Pianalto Candidate for Riverside School Board

Robert J. Pianalto, local businessman, and long time volunteer in the Riverside Unified School District matters, is a lead candidate for the November 8 Riverside Board of Education election. A Riverside resident for over 15 years, Mr. Pianalto has served on over eight key district committees and boards, including the minimum competency standards committee and the district community advisory committee.

Mr. Pianalto was enrolled in California schools prior to his 22 years of service in the United States Air Force. A Southeast Asian Veteran with over 135 combat missions, Mr. Pianalto retired from the Air Force in 1980.

Mr. Pianalto has indicated that he intends to support strong discipline/atmosphere in the classroom and to prevent the deteriorating of the school's academic and social atmosphere. He claims, is the biggest crime, and our politicians are in league with the criminals.

Every candidate for education make sure that all students get the maximum education from each educational dollar,” he said.

Mr. Pianalto was the 1983 recipient of the Riverside Volunteer of the Year award for his work with the Riverside School District. He was honored earlier with the PTA Honor- ary Service Award for similar volunteer activities.

Mr. Pianalto lives in Perris with his wife and their children, a daughter who attends UCR, and a son who attends Riverside schools.

Editorial

S.B. Board Should Take Another Look

We are concerned the San Bernardino Board of Supervisors are disobeying the Civil Service Commission. We don’t know all the reasons, but we do know there are people who have had nowhere to turn. Board, take anotherlook, we hope you’ll find another way to resolve issues.

Letters to the Editor

Moreno Valley Forum

To the Editor,

I am compelled to write this letter because of the inaccurate and misleading article concerning the Moreno Valley PTA’s “Open Forum” for the School Board candidates. The reporter stated that all the candidates agreed on issues. This is not true.

I received many reader letters, but one from a prominent tenant deserves a response. This tenant claims that he is in jail for refusing to raise his rent and holds Karl Marx by reporting his income on a Form 1040. He feels that any laws we pay we are a totalized robbery and that American file income tax returns out of fear of being jailed. He then says, “Free people do not fear their servitude, they Rev them!”

He also says that anyone accepting “legal tender” (the term used on our currency) is being robbed of what the legal tender is buying. The lack of effective control of the value of our money, so that inflating our “legal tender” steals billions from us, he claims, is the biggest crime, and our policemen are the biggest crooks. What bothers him is that these politicians are walking the streets while he and other petty thieves are filling our prisons to overflowing.

His comments on democracy are interesting. He says, “Democracy is majority rule whether the majority is good or bad. A lynch mob is democracy in action.” He refers to both the bible and constitution to prove that democracy is illegal and immoral.

He says that more than 200 million Americans believe that government spends too much money, which contributes to inflation, but that our politicians are so unresponsive that they react except to increase their salaries, expense reimbursement, pensions and welfare benefits.

The devolution of our money, through inflation, as he sees it, has created a very sophisticated system of slavery. Our politicians have convinced, that paper is valuable and money, and he thinks all with the exception such paper are slaves, because the paper has no initial value and goes down in value every day.

This prisoner closes with some comments on his trial. As he recalls, the United States attorney who prosecuted him told the court that the income tax and reporting was voluntary. An IRS agent, under oath, he says, also emphasized that the income tax and reporting was voluntary. He claims to have served on over eight key district committees and boards, including the minimum competency standards committee and the district community advisory committee.
