TO BE PRESENTED directed by Michael Andrews,
TOMORROW NIGHT will present a Christmas
concert tomorrow night,
Saturday, December 14, at 8:15 p.m. in PS-10.

Featuring music of many periods and countries, which ranges from Gregorian chants to contemporary carols, the concert is open to members, family and friends of the entire College community. The public is also invited.

Opening the concert will be "O Magnum Mysterium" sung by the men's chorus with David Johnson as soloist. The program also includes "Angelus ad Pastores Ait" by Monteverdi, a Mozart motet, "Ave Verum Corpus," a 13th century English carol, three 16th century Spanish carols and other old-world carols and anthems.

STATE COLLEGE PARKWAY
TO BE LANDSCAPED BY CITY

Work has begun on the construction of the irrigation system in the median along State College Parkway from Kendall Drive to North Park Boulevard. The City of San Bernardino has contracted with the Pacific Construction Irrigation Company to complete the work for $22,000, and is expected to be completed in approximately three weeks.

The city will begin planting of the strip as soon as the irrigation installation is completed. Landscaping is planned for both sides of State College Parkway, including the small park and bank on the west side as well as the observation point on the east side of the road.

The city eventually plans that State College Parkway will have six lanes with curb installations.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS Edward Sanford (Business Administration) served as an expert witness during a three-week, $6 million anti-trust suit recently in Seattle, Washington. The result of the suit, brought by the State of Washington against a pipe and construction company, was used to settle 12 other similar cases in which Dr. Sanford had also been summoned as a witness and on which he acted as consultant.
