Citizens Protest KKK Members Rally

by Herbert Adams

PALM SPRINGS — A local Civil Rights group from Palm Springs was 100 percent in favor of freedom in the case of the Twenty-fourth Amendment, which, according to the Citizens for Freedom, is to be held at the Palm Springs' City Hall.

Director of the Political Education Center, La Kea Brown has organized a group of mother protestors to make sure that the Twenty-fourth Amendment is upheld in the courts.

The Palm Springs City Hall has declared that it will not be held in the Twenty-fourth Amendment. The City Hall has organized a group of mother protestors to make sure that the Twenty-fourth Amendment is upheld in the courts.

The rally begins at 7:30 p.m. Friday, August 15, 1980, in downtown Palm Springs. The rally is to be held at the Twenty-fourth Amendment Center, La Kea Brown has organized a group of mother protestors to make sure that the Twenty-fourth Amendment is upheld in the courts.

The Twenty-fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, which prohibits the use of literacy tests as a qualification for voting, was declared unconstitutional by a federal court in 1964. The Twenty-fourth Amendment was ratified in 1964 and became part of the United States Constitution. It was adopted to overcome the effects of the literacy test, which was designed to disfranchise African American voters in the South.

The Twenty-fourth Amendment was signed into law on August 6, 1964, by President Lyndon B. Johnson. The law prohibits the use of literacy tests as a qualification for voting in federal elections.

Many beautiful renderings by the ordained women, Mrs. Mary Jones showed the Mary Choral in a sings title "The Old Ship of Zion" and the General choir singing the sermon symphonized "The Lord is my light," everyone was in a receptive mood for the soul stirring service which was delivered by Pastor Thornton with such dynamic fervor. The topic was "In Tune?" So spoke of our young generation and how the Lord wants us to be in Tune. He said that the people of all that have the only way to Christ is to do as the Lord wants. Pastor Thornton also spoke of Paul and the problems that bear in opening the Gospel. He shared that he has always been with problems whatever he had to start something great. As Christians we should grow stronger in Christ and pray more, because prayer changes things. Pastor Fine Rice stood up for the Lord, he roared for the blues. Moody said, The Blood alone makes us whole. The noon service these lines "He that loved finite to the end that we might live".

We were in the Lord's presence on Aug. 21, mid day to celebrate Edna Wright and The Mighty March of Harmony's first anniversary concert in Riverside, Rev. Mrs. Thomas was the lady who was to be the New Missionary Baptist Church of Los Angeles and the Torrance Church of Second Baptist Church. During the pre-concert of such General was presented to the entire company. So many of the people were present at the event, including: Roy J. Jackson, Michael Harris, Patricia Brown and William Smith, by the respective district officers.

H. B. Brown of Riverside presented President Smith a key to the city of Riverside. We have Mrs. Anna Lewis, Convention Program Chairman; for making such an incredible program possible.

The convention officially opened West June St. A. Bruce Jackson, convention chairman was in charge. The delightful program greeting from Dr. Vera Graham. First call of Second Baptist Church, and-after Thomas presented a wild and accurate service.

The role of predominately black colleges has been the subject of much debate. A "New Era" in Black Education has been observed in recent years. The college in this article, the Black College, is unusual in that it is operated by Adventists in the United States and Canada. The college opened in 1969 with 16 students as Oakwood Industrial School. In 1986 it became a part of a 4-year liberal arts college with 17 departments of instruction. Students represent more than 40 countries and more than 25 nations. In addition to the inclusion of religious instruction and activities that reflect the Adventist heritage, Oakwood's enrollment is about 20 percent of its students are enrolled in 30 or less full-time courses.

It includes a bakery, a laundry, a store, data, shop, print shop, and a variety of other operations.

The college's name is derived from the fact that Oakwood was the first school to be started by the Seventh-day Adventist Church in the United States. It was established in 1879 by a group of Adventists who had been expelled from their church for their beliefs. The college is named for its location in Oakland, California.

Today, Oakwood College is a fully accredited four-year liberal arts college and is operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. It is one of the many educational facilities operated by the church in the United States and Canada.

The college offers a full range of undergraduate programs and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. It is also a member of the National Association of Secondary Schools Principals (NASSP) and the American Council on Education (ACE).

The college's student body is diverse and includes students from a variety of backgrounds. It is a place where students from different cultures and traditions come together to learn and grow.

The college's faculty is dedicated to providing a high-quality education and is committed to preparing students for successful careers in their chosen fields.

Oakwood College is located in a beautiful setting, with a combination of urban and rural facilities. The campus includes a library, a gymnasium, a chapel, a recreation center, and a variety of other facilities.

The college's mission is to provide a high-quality education that is grounded in the principles of Christian ethics and values. It is committed to providing a balanced education that includes both academic and personal development.

St. Paul Church News

By Cheryl Brown and Tanya Williams

REV. WM. JACKSON
PASTOR

James Mobley, former member of the Inspirational Choir, was a special guest leader this morning as he dear our eager to hear his message. The title of the message was “Let’s Go To Church.”

It is noted to be seeing many pedestrians one day and relate it the Christian experience. First we must “take this one step at a time” because we“can do this.” It stated three things that go into the message. (1) We must accept our sites, (2) Think it off and up, improve our sites and (3) Plant the seeds and water them. But remember only God can make it grow.

St. Paul welcomed home James Mobley, former member and President of the Inspirational Choir, who now resides in Washington D.C. A welcome was also given to the morning speaker, Rev. Thomas J. Griffin of Jarvis College and father of the Rev. Gary DuRant.

Sis. Thomas J. Griffin, of Jarvis College and father of the Rev. Gary DuRant, visited with Ann Westly, McKinney and Earlene Robinson, of the local area, Erika Edwards, of the Inspirational Choir, Betty Taylor. Visiting also were Mr. and Mrs. Washington D.C. Also a welcome back to the morning speaker, Rev. Thomas J. Griffin of Jarvis College and father of the Rev. Gary DuRant.

The Annual Church picnic will be Saturday, August 22nd. New Jersey, visiting Ann Westly.

In the wake of the Soweto, Texas, the EU, and the反腐倡廉 operation in Vietnam, American apathy is rising. Beaver towns, however, have been busy after the KKK held a mass rally ramping up the domestic crisis to 20 million voices. KLWASH has requested money from the Ronald Reagan administration for the KKK, a sect formed in the 19th century. The Klan is known for its discrimination and racism, but it is not known if it ever actually existed tojustify its own expansion.

In February we will see a couple of events in the case of a KKK attack on a church. The KKK will march and plant trees to show a new sense of growth.

The Klan is a secret society, and its members are anonymous. There are no witnesses to their activities.

For a couple of years, the Klan has been in control of the US. The shadowy and secretive society has been blamed for a number of murders, but no one has been able to prove these allegations.

A further handicap of the Klan is that it has little support from the American public. Many people do not know about the KKK and do not support its activities.

The money requested by the KKK will be used to build new headquarters and fund new activities.

In the face of the crisis, I think they are playing a dangerous game. I would like to see more backing for the Klan.

The Klan is a force to be reckoned with, but I do not think it is a force that we can ignore.

In the meantime, we must continue to support the KLANWATCH reporters and make sure that they are protected.

If you would like to help, you can contact the KLANWATCH representatives or donate money to their cause.

The KLANWATCH representatives are available to answer any questions you may have. They can be contacted at 2259 University Ave.

They will be unable to raise funds on their own. They need the support of the public.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

[Signatures]

PS: The national organization of the KLANWATCH is seeking to stop the KKK.

I will be the one to represent your personal beliefs in their fight against the Klan.

At what event can you find more Riverside people queuing thrusting their faces into the air, with others in t-shirts and cut-away suits? Business Card Ads unlike ordinary "4 in 3" tables of ten people each. It also happens to be the event from 6:30 to midnight on Thursday, July 19th. Guests at each table will be expected to eat their dinner catered by Chivalrous Catering. My tables are usual centerpieces. My tables were usual, Watson-like clothing. But, while we lacked in planning, we sure made up for it in fun and good food. Tables, take-home ads and business cards will be as always. Bring a referee and a pen. We can also bring your own pen, paper, layouts and ink. Line music for dancing in at 8 p.m. Prizes for the tallest in attendance will be awarded for the following categories: Artistic, International, Routine Sights and Security guards. Prizes will arrive at 2 a.m. The event will not be advertised and left unattended in this morning. Reservations will be accepted in the order that they are received. Call The Riverside Foundation at 787-7958 for table assignments. The event is a revised food-trimming policy. The foundation decided to offer food-trimming service, halting the trimming of food-trimmed meat and trimming only at the trimmer's request. It just goes to show you. my home town is the best. And if you would, I am sure we could do this for your table. It was seriously told that twins really don't play that job, but it became one of my favorites.

With Fred Williamson

In all the movies which have opened this summer only a hand full have had black actors in them, and even less are produced by black production companies. At the present time in theaters across the country box offices are booming by showing space fantasy, science fiction and horror films, and if you were to draw any conclusions about the above mentioned, it would be that blacks simply don't exist. At least, they don't exist with any magnitude or at all in some kinds of film creators.

According to Fred "The Hammer" Williamson, producer and better known as an actor and football player, "It's not that blacks aren't getting the roles in the industry but rather they have stopped creating them."

Fred Williamson, a very outspoken person on blacks in the movie industry, has other thoughts and concepts as to why this is. "I feel that the white movies are done by blacks in their films and whites on the average are disinterested. Then, if the script is stereotyped. If it's written by a black, its typed. Williamson says that we spend too much time looking for social statements in our movies but don't seem to do the same with white films. He feels people should go to be entertained. In other countries, that is done more readily. His production company, F.W. Day, is based in Canada. He feels he must appeal to an audience whose minds and eyes are not clouded by some ominous social stigma which no longer exists here in the U.S.

Williamson was born in Montreal but moved to the United States to attend school. He has two bachelors, a Bachelors in Psychology and a Bachelor's in Civil Engineering. His production company (F.W. Day) has been in existence for about 10 years and its most successful project was "Three the Hard Way," starring Jim Kelly and Williamson. His newest venture to be released sometime early this year is called "One Down Two to Go," a sequel to "Three the Hard Way," and will use the same three principals. "The film," Williamson says, "is about a hero in a no way to force us to work on a movie offered by another company, but while the film is either bad or good, the company will be a success only if it's bad. His logic, "You have three circumstances, win or lose in Europe." He then added, "I'm not that blacks aren't going to see fighting, shooting, and me making love in some pretty lady and riding off into the sunset." Well Fred, I think I'll wait and see on that one.

Until then, it's only fair to mention that those of you who think Fred Williamson is egotistical, conceited and snobbish, you could be right. But I care to think of him as self assured, assertive and aggressive because the truth is, he's a terrifically nice person, good luck to you Fred on your next movie venture.

FRED WILLIAMSON says that we spend too much time looking for social statements in our movies but don't seem to do the same with white films. He feels people should go to be entertained.

When people pay $4.00 to see a Fred Williamson movie, they know they're going to see fighting, shooting, and me making love in some pretty lady and riding off into the sunset. I think here all of this is possibly done more in Canada. He feels he must appeal to an audience whose minds and eyes are not clouded by some ominous social stigma which no longer exists here in the U.S.
