Senate

Editor:

At last week's senate meeting two issues were voted on the I feel the students should know how and why I voted the way I did.

The first issue was the creation of a faculty & staff privilege card. The card is to be sold to faculty and staff for a price of $5.00 (quarterly) - This card will give the bearer the same privileges & restrictions as an A.S.B. card but by no means will have the same rights as an A.S.B. card. I voted in favor of this proposal and my reasons are as follows:

The faculty and staff at present can attend student functions and use student P.E. equipment at no charge. I've seen and known of staff and faculty breaking and/or losing A.S.B. equipment with no regard of who it really belongs to. I also feel that A.S.B. money used in activities should not be one of the fringe benefits of the college employ

The second transaction was the purchasing of a portable stage for A.S.B. activities. The cost was about $550.00. A.S.B. activities committee stated it needed the stage for upcoming dances. I first voted to wave the by-laws so that we could vote to approve the expenditure. Next I voted in favor of the expenditure. I feel that the A.S.B. will get its moneys worth out of the use of this stage.

At the next senate meeting we will be deciding whether to allow the Sports Committee to purchase 6 pairs of skis at the cost of about $700.00. I would appreciate your feelings about this expenditure. You can call me at 889-0018.

Your Jr. Class Senator,
Martin L. Valdez

Dear Mom

Dear Mom:

Wow! gee whiz! a demonstration, right on Cal. State San Bernardino campus. I saw him. A picket with a sign that said "UNFAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES". He was standing right in the middle of the Gym entrance off Northpark. Wow! man.

I'm not sure if I'll be going to State College next year, I might be going to a State University, it will be the same place, however. But I can't understand why Rayguns wants the change, maybe it's easier to move troops on to a university, or maybe he just got used to moving them on to a university and doesn't want to change now.

Studying for finals is hard, and it gives you a lot of headaches, so I been taking some of those mini aspirins.

Some guy was running across campus yesterday and someone thought he was a dog, which was a reasonable mistake, because he was running on all fours, they busted him.

Sorry I couldn't make it for Thanksgiving but I was in no shape to be driving home, studying so hard and all.

love,
Mike

BOOK EXHIBIT NOW ON DISPLAY IN LIBRARY

Award-winning books, cited for their craftsmanship and design, are now on display in the Library.

The annual traveling exhibit of the Chicago Book Clinic is on the main floor lobby of the Library. The College community and the public are invited to view the 57 Top-Honor Books of the 1971 competition. The exhibit will run through December 10.

The College Library will observe the following schedule of hours during Fall Finals Week.

December 11	9 AM - 5 PM
December 12	1 - 5 PM
December 13	8 AM - 11 PM
December 14	8 AM - 11 PM
December 15	8 AM - 5 PM

The College Library will observe the following schedule of hours during the Christmas holidays.

Library open	8 AM - 5 PM daily
Closed Weekends
Closed December 25 - 27 inclusive
Closed January 1 - 2, 1972 inclusive

Pettis Report Hit

by John Traylor

Partisan politics has at last hit the CSCSB campus; ranging from a vulgar appeal to register and vote from Carolyn Sanna in last weeks Pawprint to a full fledged, four-page appeal for your vote by Congressman Jerry Pettis of the 33rd Congressional District.

How about something to protect bicycle riders from the wild car drivers? He talks about other bills as though they had eliminated smog, water pollution, and the like. Maybe he wrote it on a windy day.

Let's take a closer look at this fantastic piece of propaganda.

First, Pettis would have us believe on the first page that he is responsible for several environmental acts ranging from the River and Harbor Act of 1899, to animal protection acts this year. I'd like to know how he managed to line up those votes in 1899. Also, if you'll notice, the animal protection bills protect wild horses (?), burros (?), and eagles. Everyone knows the tremendous problem we have in the San Bernardino and Loma Linda areas with wild horses and burros, and this fine piece of legislation will protect all the asses in our whole area! Isn't that just marvelous!

Jumping right into page two, we see a picture of a person in a voting booth with jeans, bare feet, and his (or her) trusty guitar right along next to the voter. It's blatant enough to make you want to vomit. Then to his credit, he does one bit of providing information of how and when to register to vote. Carolyn Sanna also did a good job of this last week.

Moving right along into page three, we are amazed to discover that Cal State has a recycling center in our parking lot (you remember the one from last year don't you?). Oh well, Pettis was probably

"Effective Thinking in the Social Studies" is the title of the Annual Fall Conference co-sponsored by the CSCSB Department of Education and Division of Social Sciences and the Inland Empire Council for the Social Studies, to be held on campus Saturday, December 4.

THE COLLEGE PLAN for THE COLLEGE MAN

busy trying to line up votes to put a VA hospital right along a large fault in the Loma Linda area. Then comes the climax of the whole newsletter. He goes along explaining how he is for the volunteer army, citing a vote of 198-200 for extending the draft two years. According to the Congressional Quarterly of April 2, 1971, this 198-200 vote was for extending the draft one year instead of two. Pettis voted against, that being the President's position. Then, CQ, April 9, 1971, reports that the two year extension was passed 293-99, Pettis voting yes, again the President's position. This vote also dropped student deferments. What does Mr. Pettis have to say to that? Ask him if he ever has enough nerve to appear on this campus.

Page four, after page three, is an anti-climax. All he does here is tell you how to get pamphlets from the Government Printing Office for 35¢, which he will gladly spend for you if you send him a list of the ones you want (and presumably, your vote). Yes, it seems that partisan politics isn't satisfied with the present level of apathy for student government, they want to get in the act also

By Val Saramillio

As one drives towards the back parking lot he may have noticed "another" road, and might have gone as far as to wonder where it leads. Pawprint decided to venture into the unknown and was rather surprised at the discoveries made. Being an inquisitive bunch, we reached the decision to change rumor-conjecture- to fact.

Following the road, we came across a self-contained building complex with a neat sign - Physical Plant. Doing some undercover work, we found that Mr. Brown is the head man, and has been since 1965. Mr. Brown, once confronted, gladly explained the various operations and functions of the plant, (who works where and what it owns).

The Physical Plant complex is the operation which maintains and guarantees our physical comfort and enjoyment while here at CSCSB. It has five major departments, plus an administration branch which employs a total of 77 people, with 17 of these being CSCSB students.

Custodials is the largest department with 39 employee (11 students). These are the individuals who keep the interiors of all campus buildings clean. They also do all the moving of furniture (recently moving the Library to its new location).

Ground Maintenance employs 13 people (1 student), and maintains the landscaping, walks and roadways, the vast underwater irrigation system and the upkeep of the exterior areas of the buildings.

Building Maintenance and Construction or better known to some as BMC, has 9 employees.

ADVISEMENT WEEK

December 6-10

Each student is required to obtain a signed Advisor Card from his advisor prior to registration. The card must be presented for entrance to the registration area.

Registration packets may be obtained during advisement week at the Office of Admissions and Records by continuing students and those admitted prior to December 1 for winter term.

After you have picked up your registration packet, you need to:

- 1) go to your division office (listed below)

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATIONS

Students should check with their advisor or Division Office concerning graduation requirements pertaining to Comprehensive Examinations.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENT CHECK

A candidate for spring graduation must file a Graduation Requirement Check at the Office of Admissions and Records by January 26. No Graduation Requirement Check should be requested until a senior has completed 150 quarter hours, including the current work in progress. If the student does not complete the requirements in the term for which the Graduation Requirement Check was filed, a second graduation check must be requested indicating the new date at which he expects to graduate.

A one-time fee of $6 is required when the request for Graduation Check is submitted. The fee is paid to the Bursar, Room A-111. A $2 late fee will be assessed after the January 26 deadline.

PETITIONING FOR POSTGRADUATE CREDIT

Senior students who need fewer than three courses to graduate may be permitted to enroll for postgraduate credit during the final term of their senior year. A petition form for this purpose is available in the Office of Admissions and Records. This form must be completed prior to enrolling and must be approved by the Office of the Dean of Academic Planning.

At first
Like a dawning night
I felt
As if I were unraveled
From my heart

There she wept
Like a silent stone
For dead long gone
And wounds unerased

The slimness
Darting forward
From behind
Dark eyes clouding my answers
And making them thoughts

Thousands of grains
Have slipped away
To where
Beyond the blackness
They hide in some distant star

From whence
They travel swiftly
And kneel at her feet
To warm her toes

Sculptor, Karate Expert Tony Gneck Plays With Dolls!

By Frank Campbell

Anthony "Tony" Gneck, Junior Art major, plays with dolls.

But chide him about it at your own risk - he's also a Sixth Degree Black Belt Karate instructor.

Tony teaches CSCSB students the fine points of Karate as an avocation. His first love, sculpture, accounts for the doll bit.

"I buy used dolls at Goodwill," Tony said recently, "and repair them. Sometimes I switch parts just to see the effect." He recently brought a doll to class. It had an oversized head and short stubby arms and legs. It was eerie.

At home, in an old house tucked into an orange grove in east Redlands, Tony is surrounded by dolls and surrealistic sculpture. One piece, featuring a doll's head and multiple arms is a Thai dancer's nightmare. An eight-foot statue in resin dominates the front porch. Its flowing free form is topped with an abstract head of a Geisha girl. Tony grinned as he easily lifted the piece for Mark Biddison, Pawprint photographer. "It's lighter than you think."

Like Sabatini's Scaramouche, Tony was "... born with the gift of laughter and a sense that the world is mad." He's been active in sculpture since he was 14 and has drawn and carved primitive masks and relief figures in wood. He has worked in clay, wax, bronze plaster, wood, concrete and resin.

The short, wiry ex-Marine ran a hand through his close-cropped beard. "I have one piece in Completing his tour with the Marines, Tony worked for seven years with the Santa Fe Railroad as a switchman. All this time he continued to work with art and sculpture.

concrete," he said, "that weighs 1,300 pounds. It's an abstract crucifix."

How does an artist get involved in karate?

"It was easy," Tony said. "I joined the Marines when I was 17 and spent some time in Hawaii. It was there that I first became interested in karate. They taught the Kum Fu, or Gum Fu style. Later, I re-upped and was sent to Okinawa. On Okie, they taught the Shoryn, or Chinese, karate."

"One of the first things our instructor assigned us was to kill a tree with our bare hands. The idea is to teach patience. And it works! It took me a year and a half, hitting the tree each day, to girdle it and kill it."

"It was during this period," he said, "that I did an eight-foot male figure in resin."

Much of Tony's work has been sold, and he has exhibited in many shows.

Tony's house is a work of art in itself. The front yard is planted with cactus, succulents, bamboo and a yucca tree. Not the least interesting front yard decoration is a visible studs that support the downstairs ceiling. Here Tony writes the poetry that is his newest interest.

"I do all my writing in bed," he said.

And having seen some of his poems, I believe it.

Outside the house, a flock of chickens peck busily at the hard packed ground.

"Yeah, we have chickens," he said, "a couple of fighting cocks, some ducks and a green parrot that flew in one day and stayed."

Now a Junior, what will he do when he receives his degree? "Try to keep from starving to death," he said.

"Oh, I'll keep teaching karate because I believe it's a fine discipline for young people. And I'll continue with sculpture because I like it. It's a crazy world we live so I'll hang in there with poetry, too.

Move over, Scaramouche. You've been topped.

small cemetery, complete with gravestones.

"The stones?" Tony laughed. "I found them in a heap in a friend's backyard. He gave them to me and I planted them. Adds a touch of the bizarre."

And bizarre is the word for casa Gneck. Sculpture, paintings, dolls and montages fill the rooms to overflowing. On one corner of the house, Tony has built a slat greenhouse, where he grows the plants he uses for landscaping.

"Most of them," he said, "I pick up in the desert and transplant them here."

The gnarled hands that wield karate chops with ease have green thumbs.

Tony's altair is unique. Reached by climbing a 12-foot ladder that is a permanent part of the bathroom decor, the studio - and sleeping quarters - is tucked under the roof. The flooring is made up of old barn doors laid on the clearly

DID YOU KNOW our school has 2,542 pencil sharpeners scattered throughout the campus? How many students use pencils nowadays? Do you suppose the State Education Code prescribes one pencil sharpener per classroom? If it's legal it must be right, so I will not say another word. (But one would think one or two per building would be sufficient. Who on the board of trustees holds stock in a pencil sharpener manufacturing firm?)

THE CSCSB COMMUNIST Party spokeswoman questions Carolyn Sanna's motives in her intemperate remarks of Nov. 18. "What does she mean labeling us extremists? We are dead center on the political spectrum; it's the fascistic Democratic and Republican Parties who are the extremists. They're so right of center it would take a revolution to drag them back out of their cesspool of repression, iniquity, malfeasance, and fornication," she remarks sociably.

WOMEN'S LIB NEVER gives up. They are after me again for calling them "the other sex". They insist I call males "the other sex." "And not very, at that," their spokesman observes.

IF YOU anticipate flunking your finals, don't drop out of school. The USMC representative will be on campus Dec. 3 and he says coarsely, "Don't drop out, drop in, USMC! At this time in the history of our great corps, we'll take anything we can get, even long-haired, pot-smoking, drug-pushing, far-out left-wing commie college freaks."

FOR THOSE INTERESTED, if you've ever wondered why the urinals in the Men's room on the first floor of the Library have different attachments, it's because the Psychology department is running an experiment to see whether students prefer the foot-pedal or the hand lever as a means of flushing. Sources close to the department head inform me that so far the pedal is running 7 to 1 over the lever. "Students are even beginning to line up behind the pedal rather than use the other one," my source says emptily.

AN IRRELEVANT THOUGHT: how much of what you learn today will you remember ten years from now? "It is better to have learned and forgot than never to have remember at all." -- (I forget who)
