Sickle Cell Organization May Close Doors in 6 Months

Making an alarming prediction that the Sickle Cell Organization may close doors in six months, Dr. Leonard Barker, past Presi­dent and active board member made an appeal for the help of the entire community to keep the Sickle Cell Organization from closing. Barker has reputation for not sugar coating things and he goes way back with the organization. So the audience was informed of the problem.

Unless a Foundation, County or State Grant comes through the Sickle Cell Organization will close its doors in April of 1985 when a large Federal Grant that was administered by Barker, sources say, will be terminated. Barker said that Glenda Wines of RBCS-Channel 7 was helping them through the temporary hardship associated with the Sickle Cell. Wines, the Health and Medical reporter for RBCS told all of the breakdowns and experi­ences in the fight against the disease.

"The nature of the disease, made it difficult to collaborate in the atmosphere of fun and leisure, even when one thinks about Poster Child Derick L. Grant, who has trouble playing football with the rest of the children because of the pain caused by the sickle cell disease, but Actress Kellie Presley has performed beautifully. She has a beautiful voice and personality and maintains well with her audience, including them in her performance," Barker said. The audience was informed of the closing of the Sickle Cell Organization and that they expected doors to be closed in June of 1985. The letter was terminated. The letter stated they (County) could no longer house the organization, no reason was given. The saving grace Black Voice found out, was through Thornetta Dale, who took immediate action. The letter was sent last June, as the organization's County con­tract was terminated. The letter stated they (County) could no longer house the organization, no reason was given. Propositions if Passed Will Hurt Vote No On These Propositions They Will Hurt You

The following initiatives on the November ballot pose a grave threat to the lives of Black and Brown people in California. We must remember the costs in Mental Health and Social Services, the erosion of the Black Community’s Government and the jobs and services lost under Prop. 13. The following information is a summary of the November ballot discussion of the propositions set to appear on the ballot. The November ballot count to the Black Community.

PROPERTY TAXATION: Propositions 35-40 (Constitutional Amendment)

Proposition 38 requires California to support an amendment to the state constitution to permit it to proceed with a one-time, one-year sales tax to provide $1 billion for public education. This proposition is intended to provide educational funding for all students, including those in English Language Learner programs. It is a temporary measure to provide short-term funding for education and is expected to expire in 2021.

Proposition 39 would allow for the establishment of a permanent public financing system for candidates running for election. It is a constitutional amendment that would require candidates to raise funds from a combination of public and private contributions. The initiative would limit campaign contributions to $1,000 per person and would provide public funding for candidates who decline public financing.

Proposition 40 would reduce the amount of money that candidates can spend on campaign activities. It would limit campaign expenditures to $250,000 for Propositions 38 and 39, and $500,000 for all other initiatives on the ballot. This measure would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $500,000 on any single initiative.

Proposition 41 would limit campaign contributions to $500,000 for Propositions 38 and 39, and $1 million for all other initiatives on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $1 million on any single initiative.

Proposition 42 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $2 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $2 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 43 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $3 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $3 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 44 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $4 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $4 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 45 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $5 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $5 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 46 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $6 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $6 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 47 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $7 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $7 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 48 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $8 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $8 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 49 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $9 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $9 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 50 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $10 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $10 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Proposition 51 would prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $11 million on any single initiative on the ballot. It would also prohibit candidates from raising or spending more than $11 million on all initiatives on the ballot.

Joe Kellie Patterson was outstanding as she performed for the audience. A lot of people don't vote because they think it doesn't count. But think of all your friends who think the same way you do about the future of our country. Get your friends to vote with you, and together your votes will count more. This year, vote with a friend.

Second Annual Latino Unity Banquet

Preparations are underway for the Second Annual Latino Unity Banquet. With a central theme of Voter Mobilization, the banquet will be held on Thursday, November 1, 1984 at Barrows Social Convention Center, located at 3400 Orange Street, Riverside, California.

According to Dr. Armando Navarro, Congress for United Communities, State President, "the purpose of the banquet is to give further impetus to the unity efforts designed to get out the vote against propositions 41, 29, 36 and 38 and support those candidates who are against them."

The banquet's program will include presentations by U.S. Senator Alan Cranston, UFW National President, and Dr. Armando Navarro, CUC State President. Invited to give the keynote address will be either Congressman Bob Garcia of New York or Congressman Bill Richard of New Mexico, Chairman of the Hispanic Congressional Caucus.

Attending the program will be several honored guests which include: Congressman Mathias Martinez, Congresswoman Estaban Torres, Congressmen George Brown, Carmen Fenz, California Democratic Party, Vice Chairman, and others. Also, the Spanish International Communications Corporation (SICC) will be honored for its contributions in facilitating activities that have been directed towards the defeat of the discriminatory Simpson/Mazzoli immigration legislation.

A Rotarian special tribute will be made to the late UCR Chancellor, Dr. Thomas Rivers in recognition of his legacy, leadership, and many contributions to the people of California. His wife, Concha Rivers will also be present to receive a financial contribution from the Congress for United Communities for the Thomas Rivers Scholarship fund at UCR.

The program starts at 5:30 p.m. with a mixed reception. Dinner will be served from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. The formal program begins at 9:00 p.m. The cost per person is $25.00. Tables of eight are available for $200.00 each. For information or reservations call (714) 693-0207.

Williamson Named Superwoman

by NWPC at Brown Fundraiser

Last week, Bill Stallen, actor, who played Party Dink's father addressed a group of "Super Women" at the home of Alice Young in the hills of Riverside. The National Women's Political Caucus (NWPC) held a fund raiser for Congressman George D. Brown, Jr., which honored several Riverside women. Stallen, was in town for the meeting on Nuclear Freeze and is one of a group of actors and activists who are supporting Nuclear Dismantlement. He said we must stop this insane filing that is happening in our country. Congressman Brown, he said, is no new comer in the bilateral Nuclear Weapons Freeze issue he voted 400 to 1, 10,000 votes against the freeze. He urged support of him to those gathered. Superwomen were saluted as such because Lois Lane (Margo Kidder) was formerly slated to do, because she sent a message and Stallan was a good replacement for her. The Superwomen were Entice Williamson, NWPC President, Riverside Branch, Mitzi Curtis, Supervisor-Treasurer, AFL-CIO, Little Rock, Community leader, Penny Nunnally, of Streamline forms, Riverside Councilman Jean Manfield and Jane Block, Community leader and Jane Papa.

Carlotta, The Library Assistant

CARLOTTA SORINO is a library assistant at the main branch of the public library. This afternoon she is explaining her work to a group of student volunteers.

"Right this way, ladies and gentlemen," Carlotta said. "Here are our card catalogs. There is a card for every book in the library. One of your duties will be to type and file these cards."

"Do we have to be able to type very fast?" asked Eva.

"If you can type fast, that's fine," said Carlotta, "but we need accuracy more than we need speed."

What else do we have to do?" Jorge asked.

"Each week I will assign two of you to take care of the circulation area," Carlotta said.

"What is the circulation area, Ms. Sorino?" asked Jim.

"The circulation area is where books are borrowed and returned. You stamp the card with the date that the book is to be returned to the library. You use a special machine to take a picture of the person's library card. This is how we know who has borrowed our books," Carlotta explained.

"What do we do if a book is returned late?" Pete asked.

"We charge 10¢ a day for each book that is returned after the due date. That is the date that is stamped on the card in each book," Carlotta responded.

"That is a very nice display over there, Ms. Sorino," said Essie. "Who made it?"

"That display was made by one of the other library assistants," said Carlotta. "That will be one of your duties, too. You will also keep the bulletin board up-to-date."

The ADVANCER
THE AOIP Family & Community Reading Newspaper

The ADVANCER is the property of the National Assault On Illiteracy Program (AOIP) and is its official umbrella type remediation instrument. In addition to the Title I type classes for which it is designed primarily, it is to be used in all AOIP programs and projects. All literacy-enhancement programs and projects of AOIP-participating organizations are considered a part of AOIP.

The ADVANCER is prepared largely by the teachers in the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. They are assisted, with helpful cooperation, by the teachers and other professionals in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

These highly-trained and deeply committed teachers—along with others in the more than 80 national organizations comprising AOIP—have far more concentrated experience than any other educators with Title I-type students. By focusing the ADVANCER primarily on such extraordinary needs, the supportive concerns of all other students are embraced automatically.

Did You Know That...

Some of the largest and most active organizations in our communities have Greek names? These organizations help to build our communities. They are called community-building organizations.

These organizations with Greek names are called fraternities (fra-tur) and sororities (sa-hor). A fraternity is a fellowship of men. A sorority is a fellowship of women.

The name of another organization with a Greek name is the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa.

We have already learned that Phi (fy) is the 21st letter in the Greek alphabet. Phi is written like this Φ. We have learned that the 4th letter in the Greek alphabet is Delta. It is written like this Δ. We know that Kappa is the 10th letter in the Greek alphabet. It is written like our letter K.

The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa was founded in 1923. It is a society of teachers. The sorority encourages the growth of teaching as the finest art among Black people.

Today, there are nearly 5,000 members of the sorority in the United States and abroad.

The sorority has given more than $200,000 in scholarships to deserving students. It sponsors the Ashmun Street Children's Library in Monrovia, Liberia (West Africa) and other reading centers and clinics.

Is there a chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa in your community? If there is, get in touch with them and tell them you heard about them in The ADVANCER.

A Message to Teachers and Tutors

It is important to know that the primary purposes of this "fun to learn" newspaper, known as The ADVANCER, include the following:

1. To serve as a supplemental—not a basal—reading-motivational and comprehension-enhancement tool;

2. To help rebuild the pride or sense of worth so deliberately and systematically stripped from Black families generations ago but which still remain unredressed to such a large degree today that many Black young students and adults have little or no will to learn or achieve;

3. To enable Hispanic students and their parents to better understand that America is their home whether they were born in the continental United States or not...and that they have a rich heritage upon which to build a bright future;

4. To maximize parental and other adult involvement by inserting The ADVANCER within the adult-oriented local cooperating community-building newspaper; And,

5. To assist in gaining a better racial understanding by students (mainly other Whites) in appreciating to a greater degree those aspects of the Black and Hispanic cultures which have been distorted so greatly and which remain unredressed to this day.

The ADVANCER is designed to...
Not long ago a man from a village in Zambia wrote to a local newspaper to ask for some advice.

"I live near a bus stop," the man explained. "I left my village a few years ago. Many friends and relatives from my village stop off to visit me on their way to and from Lusaka, the capital."

"According to custom," the man continued, "it is my duty to give my tribesmen food and money for their journey. I have a good job, but I am not a rich man. These people keep me poor. I do not dislike them, but what can I do?"

The man was very serious. Many Africans are bound by family and community ties. Unwanted guests are no laughing matter. If these guests come often enough or stay long enough, they could eat this man out of house and home. He may be forced to choose between the older values such as family loyalty and the demands of a new, changing Africa.

Like this man, Africans often find that they must choose between older and newer ways of doing things. Such choices affect ways of spending money. They also affect ways of making money.

Most Africans make their living from the land around them. For hundreds of years, almost all Africans were farmers or hunters. Now many Africans work in factories and stores. But most Africans still make their living as farmers or hunters. In Black Africa three out of every four people earn their living by farming.

There are three groups of Africans who live off the land. They are: hunters and food gatherers, herdsmen and farmers.

Today, very few Africans make a living as hunters (hunting wild animals for food) or food gatherers (picking wild fruits and berries). Some of the people who still make a living in this way are the Pygmies and the San.

The Pygmies are sometimes called Negrillos. The average Pygmy adult male is under five feet tall. They were the only inhabitants of the Congo Valley before the farmers came. Today there about 35,000 Pygmies. They live in small bands. They depend on the forest for most of their food. They trade with nearby farmers, too.

The San people are sometimes called Bushmen. They live in caves or small huts on the Kalahari Desert in Southwest Africa and in Botswana. They seek out their quarry—antelopes, for example—by following footprints in the sand. Often the San kill the animal with arrows dipped in poison. Then they carry the carcass back to camp where they skin and butcher it for meat.

(More next week)
Before going on with "Our Geography Lesson," let's take time to see how much we have learned about the countries of West-Central Africa.

For the next few weeks this page will test your knowledge and help you remember the facts. Feel free to use your back issues of The ADVANCER for help. Try to take all parts of the test BEFORE you look at the answers.

WEST-CENTRAL AFRICA

Here are the countries of West-Central-Africa. (The numbers in parentheses are population figures. You will use them later):

- A. Angola (6,580,000)
- B. Cameroon (8,250,000)
- C. Central African Republic (2,446,000)
- D. Chad (4,574,000)
- E. Congo (1,525,000)
- F. Equatorial Guinea (345,000)
- G. Gabon (585,000)
- H. Sao Tome & Principe (83,000)
- I. Zaire (28,504,000)

A. Match the following capitals to the countries above by placing the letter of the country (A-I) in the space beside the capital.

1. Bangui
2. Brazzaville
3. Kinshasa
4. Libreville
5. Luanda
6. Malabo
7. N'djamena
8. Sao Tome
9. Yaounde

B. The numbers in parentheses ( ) beside the countries above are population figures. Place the countries in order from largest (1) to smallest (9) by placing the numbers 1-9 in the spaces beside the countries.

[Clue: In the number 1,500,000, the 1 means millions; 500,000 means 500 thousand. Drop the last 3 zeros and compare the millions and hundred thousands. For example, if you had 1,500,000 and 1,400,000. Drop the zeros—then compare 1,500 and 1,400. 1,500 is larger so it is #1.]

C. Match the following ethnic groups with the countries by placing the letter (A-I) of the country in the spaces.

[Note: You may use a country more than one time.]

1. Azanda
2. Bakota
3. Bakongo
4. Bakuba
5. Banda
6. Bantu
7. Bamum
8. Bayaka
9. Fang
10. Mbede

AOIP Force
Featuring Blaze & Harmony

Last week, Harmony had to fight a dangerous robot. After winning the fight, she called Blaze...

Hey, Harmony! What's up?

I caught one of the thieving robots. Dangerous suckers, that's for sure!

Do you have any idea who set this robot caper up?

No. I don't!

Not only are they stealing books—they're also dangerous—and may hurt people!

But we have to stop them fast!!

We need more manpower to help us spot these robots and find their creator!!

Let's call the AOIP kids. We need their help!

OK. Good idea!!
