Holcomb Attends Temple Groundbreaking

This is a day that I have been looking forward to for a long time," said the National Civil War Pastor, Pastor of Temple Missionary Baptist Church, in San Bernardino.

"We are excited about breaking ground on our new church since we have been a member, talked about this and talking about this new church since it was a member, which has been over 10 years," said Mrs. Otis Miller, President of the Missionary Baptist Church in San Bernardino.

"We went over our goal that our Pastor White, Pastor, of Temple Baptist Church, said Mrs. Otis Miller. "The officers, members of Temple Missionary Baptist Church, one of the area's largest and strongest, are thrilled. Our new church is scheduled to complete the current work by 11 a.m. on June 1985. The church will be dedicated by our new Pastor and Mrs. For White. "We invite the public to come and share this blessing with us each Sunday beginning with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. and church services at 11:00 a.m."

ANNOTATION: San Bernardino. Our Church did a splendid job also for today because it being the first Sunday and Communion Sunday as well. All our church members are with white with white matching team. The ladies simply were beautiful and I do believe that they knew it. We have no one more than 24 years. Second side the stoppage message from our Pastor brought to us. The subject of his sermon was "In The Last Few Feet." Our Pastor then with the help of the members of our church was able to teach it. This morning was Mrs. Eljioan Smith Pastor brought to us. The subject of her sermon was "In The Last Few Feet." It was a very appropriate topic for today because it is the first Sunday and Communion Sunday as well. As usual Pastor Forbes really preached. His message was enjoyed by all in attendance. There was the Service of the Communion which demanded the morning service and friends of Temple Baptist Church share a strong sense of unity, purpose and direction, and we are determined to glorify God with our work," said Pastor White. "We invite the public to come and share this blessing with us each Sunday beginning with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. and church services at 11:00 a.m."

American Muslim Mission

Rev. Elamin

We (American Muslims) have grown very close, as within the arms of our old habits. This is a strict order that we must observe in order to get the best habits that last.

As he hung on Calvary's cross for everlasting life. The Congregation showed the greatest example of hunger, as Jesus did when he hung on the cross. There is no better and in many ways in which we continue to wage war against our old habits still lurking in our souls.

We want to achieve the dignity we claim we desire, until we give up the bad habits that detract from that dignity.

Emory cannot but be held when we choose to spend our meager resources on luxuries we can afford, i.e. designer gold and diamond jewelry, gas guzzling autos. Political dignity cannot be had from the floor to where we throw our votes away to the same repeated and broken promises. Cultural dignity cannot be had when the primary measure of our taste is what is, what remains, the ungodly thought by helpin.""

Our national holidays are designated by acts of Congress and become law by our President's signature. On these few days scattered over the calendar, all government business is suspended, our mails halt, schools are closed and many of our commercial institutions do not transact business. On January 15, 1986, a new national holiday will be observed, Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Thereafter it will also be observed on the third Monday of January. President Reagan signed this bill into law on November 2, 1984. Only Georgia Washington, the founder of our country and Dr. King have been honored. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was born in 1929 and received national attention in 1955 when he led a 381 day boycott of the Montgomery, Alabama buses. This led to the discontinuance of segregation seating on public transportation in that city.

Inspired by the example of India's Mohandas K. Gandhi, Dr. King urged the nation's black population to follow his tenants of non-violence to achieve racial equality.

As head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Dr. King led SCLC demonstrations in other southern cities. He met with hostility and brutality in many of them. His followers were beaten and he was jailed several times. He was the object of an intense FBI investigation, but he continue to publicly observe and urge the methods of non-violence. His goal was simply to end segregation and achieve full civil rights for all Americans.

In 1964, Dr. King, at 35, was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. He was the youngest person ever to win that prize. Dr. King's message was that the American Revolution had not ended and would not until every American, regard less of sex, creed, or color could share, as equal partners, the American adventure. His vision was set forth in his famous "I have a dream" speech of an America that lives up to the wishes of the founders of her Constitution - a land of true equality with "Honor and justice for all!"

While addressing striking sanitation workers in Memphis, Tennessee on April 4, 1968 on the balcony of his motel, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated by a gunman. Dr. King believed justice and equal rights belonged to all American citizens and that they could be achieved without violence and conflict.

Martin Luther King, Jr. is now a national hero, not just a martyr black leader, and his day of observance is worthy of the respect and honor of all Americans.

Martin Luther King Day will mean that his dream and message - a United States where the words ignorance, prejudice, and violence are replaced by understanding, tolerance and peace are still to be achieved. He taught us a deep way towards the fulfillment of that dream and it up to us to continue that quest.

We Remember Martin

I Have a Dream

Martin Luther King Jr.'s historic address at the Lincoln Memorial during the March on Wash ington, August 28, 1963.

"I have a dream that one day this nation will stand up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal." And if America is to be a great nation, this must become true. Let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the hoogthing of Alabama, the majestic Mississippi.

Let freedom ring from the snow-capped Rockies of Colorado. But not for me; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia. Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee. Let freedom ring from every mountain and molehill of Mississippi. From every mountain and molehill of Mississippi.

We remember him as a "drum major for justice." He is so remembered. And he, by his life's example, still leads us towards the fulfillment of that dream and it is up to us to continue that quest.

The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. wanted to be remembered as a "drum major for justice." He is so remembered. And he, by his life's example, still leads us towards justice. Towards the fulfillment of his dream. Today we honor Dr. King and his memory. Today, and for all tomorrows, we are committed to helping fulfill his dream.

Martin Luther King Celebration: Mrs. Elsie Jones and the committee will be hosting the annual Martin Luther King Celebration on Sunday evening at the high school.

My James is quite diligent and persistent in her direction of the program this year and it is an annual success. Please come out and help to celebrate the birthday of this magnificent man.

Perris Panorama's Director Armin Altamekas, owner of the Perris Medical Clinic is to be recognized along with other black doctors in the Inland Empire at a special dinner to be held at U.C.R. on Friday, January 11.

Dr. Armin Altamekas is a well known and respected physician who has practiced in the Perris Valley since 1963 and moved to his present facility in 1983 according to Elaine Barnes, office manager for the clinic.

Barnes said that Dr. Altamekas earned his intern and externship at Riverside General Hospital. It was during his time at General that Dr. Altamekas recognized the great need for proper medical care in Perris Valley because of the numbers of patients being treated at General. Thus began his practice here and he has been an extremely valuable asset to our valley up to this day. Congratulations to Dr. Altamekas and his capable staff.

Congratulations to Elaine Jones on her wedding last Saturday. It seems that we couldn't attend but we wish the newlyweds much happiness.

Conditions to My and Mrs. Hutchinson in the bliss of their marriage. We welcome them home with open arms and express our deepest sympathy. "Cope is for dope," and destroys all hope.

Letters to the Editor; Perris Responds to Stink Bug Article

Dear Editor,

Your December 8, 1984, editorial, "Stink Bug," reflects a point of view that is out of touch with the thinking of the Board of Trustees of Perris Union High School District.

I would like to point out that the stink bug is a natural part of our environment. It is not an invasive species, but rather a native species that has evolved to survive in our local climate. The stink bug is a beneficial insect that preys on other insects, such as aphids and scale insects, which can be harmful to crops and plants.

In conclusion, I urge you to reconsider your editorial and to provide a more balanced perspective on the stink bug.

Sincerely,

Black History Parade Schedule Activities

There will be several events scheduled for the parade, including a parade on the steps of the U.S. House of Representatives, a parade on the steps of the U.S. Senate, and a parade on the steps of the U.S. Supreme Court.

CARL ARMSTRONG is a security guard at the Sojourner Truth housing project on the weekend. He is training a new guard for the night shift.

"I don't have much experience, Mr. Armstrong. Do you think I can learn the job?" asked Wilt.

"Call me Carl, Wilt. You won't need much training. I can see from your letters of recommendation that you are an honest young man. You have a good character and a fine background," replied Carl.

"What does a security guard do?" Wilt asked.

"You patrol one area of the projects after another. You have to keep your eyes and ears open at all times," Carl said.

"Do I get to wear a uniform?" asked Wilt.

"You bet. You'll wear a grey uniform just like mine," said Carl.

"What about the cop on the beat? Will he give me any trouble?" asked Wilt.

"No, Wilt. The police who patrol these streets will give you all the help you need. You patrol inside the grounds. They patrol outside. If you cooperate with them, they'll cooperate with you," Carl replied.

"I don't know if I'll like working all night," Wilt said.

"Nights and weekends are the times when security guards are needed most, Wilt," said Carl.

"Well, I guess I'll get used to the night shift," Wilt said.

"You might be able to get part-time work. Sometimes, Mr. Benson hires guards on a night-by-night basis," Carl replied.

"I need a full-time job. I'm sure I'll be able to sleep during the day. My neighborhood is pretty quiet," said Wilt.

"You asked about the uniform, Wilt. You also wear a badge and carry a gun," said Carl. "You will be an important person around here. You'll be protecting the people in these buildings from burglary, theft and vandalism."

"Why don't you start your own company?" asked Wilt.

"That's what I'd like to do. I want to build up a route of customers and hire two or more guards to help me. We can patrol many stores on a route," said Carl.

THE ADVANCER

THE AOIP Family & Community Reading Newspaper

The ADVANCER is the property of the National Assault Against Illiteracy Program (AOIP) and is its official umbrella-type remediation instrument. In addition to the Title I type classes for which it is designed primarily, it is to be used in all AOIP programs and projects. All literacy-enhancement programs and projects of AOIP-participating organizations are considered a part of AOIP.

The ADVANCER is prepared largely by the teachers in the National Society of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. They are assisted, with helpful cooperation, by the teachers and other professionals in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

These highly trained and deeply committed teachers—along with others in the more than 80 national organizations comprising AOIP—have far more concentrated experience than any other educators with Title I type students. By housing the ADVANCER primarily on such auxiliary media, the supportive concerns of all other students are accommodated automatically.

A Message to Teachers and Tutors

It is important to know that the primary purposes of this “fun to learn” newspaper, known as The ADVANCER, include the following:

1. To serve as a supplemental—not a basal—reading-motivational and comprehension-enhancement tool;

2. To help rebuild the pride or sense of worth so deliberately and systematically stripped from Black families generations ago but which still remain unredressed to such a large degree today that many Black young students and adults have little or no will to learn or achieve;

3. To enable Hispanic students and their parents to better understand that America is their home whether they were born in the continental United States or not...and that they have a rich heritage upon which to build a bright future;

4. To maximize parental and other adult involvement by inserting The ADVANCER within the adult-oriented local cooperating community-building newspaper; And,

5. To assist in gaining a better racial understanding by students (mainly other Whites) in appreciating to a greater degree those aspects of the Black and Hispanic cultures which have been distorted so greatly and which remain unredressed to this day.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
February 15, 1929—April 4, 1968

This week marks the 56th anniversary of the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. On December 5, 1955, Dr. King led the bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama. This was the most successful boycott in U.S. history. In August 1963, during the first March on Washington, he gave his famous “I Have a Dream” speech.

In December 1964, Dr. King received the Nobel Peace Prize in Oslo, Norway. Dr. King was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee on April 4, 1968.
Historians call 1800 the "Year of Freedom." In this year three Black rebels appeared on the stage of history. Gabriel Prosser led the first important uprising of American slaves; Denmark Vesey bought his freedom; and Nat Turner was born.

Denmark Vesey was born a slave on the island of Santo Domingo [now the Dominican Republic] in 1767. He lived in the West Indies until he was 14 years old. He was sold to a Charleston, South Carolina slave trader. This man sold slaves between the islands of St. Thomas and St. Dominique. The slave, Denmark, traveled with his master.

In 1800, Vesey won $1,500 in a lottery. He paid his master $600 for his freedom. He became a Methodist preacher. As a free Black, he was able to visit many plantations.

Vesey was a handsome young man who was subject to seizures. He was well educated and spoke several different languages.

For five years, Vesey planned a slave uprising. Toussaint L'Overture [the man who freed Haiti] was his hero. One of Vesey's favorite quotations from the Bible was these words of Joshua:

"And they utterly [completely] destroyed all that was in the city, both men and women, young and old, and ox and sheep...with the edge of the sword."

(Justin 6:21)

Vesey told his followers that they must strike the first blow. "God," he said, "helps only those that help themselves."

During the Christmas holidays of 1821, Vesey chose the leaders of the uprising. He chose these leaders from the skilled slaves and class leaders of the Methodist church. Peter Poyas, a carpenter, became Vesey's first assistant. He was in charge of organizing and training the slave recruits [new members].

Vesey had a very good plan. Each leader had a list of slave "soldiers" and what they were to do. The leaders were the only ones who knew the details of the plot. The soldiers knew only the name of their leader and what they were to do. About 9,000 slaves joined Vesey's "army."

July 16, 1822 was chosen as the day of the uprising. About July 2nd, a house slave told his master that some slaves were planning something. He could only give very minor details about the plan.

Vesey and 35 of his men were captured and later hanged. Only one of the leaders confessed.

Peter Poyas told the other leaders, "Do not open your lips. Die as you shall see me do."

First 25 Mentor Teachers Go Into Action

The Board of Education recently appointed 25 classroom teachers to posts as mentor teachers.

The mentor teacher position was created in recent school reform legislation under Senate Bill 813. These selected top-rated teachers will help new teachers and will perform other special tasks in addition to their classroom responsibilities for which they will receive an added $4,000 per year.

All mentor teachers are classroom teachers in the district who have completed their probationary status (two to three years, depending on when they began teaching in the district) and who have at least five years of recent experience in the classroom.

The new mentors demonstrated knowledge and exemplary ability in the art of teaching, in effective communications skills, in subject matter, in a range of teaching strategies, and in other related skills. In this latter requirement, applicants were interviewed by a committee composed of teachers elected by district teachers and administrators. There were separate committees for elementary and secondary applicants, each with four teachers and three administrators.

Before final selection was made, applicants were observed teaching in their classrooms. All mentors will continue in their teaching assignments, but will work with new teachers after normal classroom hours. They may have to be replaced in their classrooms from time to time during the year due to mentor duties, but such absences will be kept to a minimum.

Those selected as elementary mentor teachers are:

Kathy Ballard, who teaches kindergarten at Barton. Her experience is mostly with kindergarten and primary grades. She is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley.

Janice Christian, who teaches first grade at Monterey. Most of her career in the district has been at the first grade level, but she has taught a fifth grade. She is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley.

James Ferranti, who teaches at Kimball as an ESAA (Emergency School Aid Act) resource teacher. She has taught kindergarten, grades 1-3, and has been a resource teacher. She is a graduate of Scripps College in Claremont.

TUTOR'S GUIDE

The primary objective of The ADVANCER is to fulfill a basic part of the reading, motivational, comprehension enhancement and ego strengthening needs of our young and older adults not presently in any formalized public school system. Its secondary purpose is to serve as excellent supplemental reading for the large number of young people in public and other formalized schools, where such help is indicated.

This new learning enhancement tool is being put together on a volunteer basis (there are no paid staff) either nationally or locally in ACP's (A CP). By experienced professionals who often have varying views concerning how (level-wise) such students should be approached. Since many of you, too, are experienced in reading, we welcome your comments and would appreciate greatly your suggestions. Also, we invite—and urgently need—articles or sections for inclusion in The ADVANCER. Each article must include a set of questions for use in our Tutor's Guide.

Since we may have to combine similar articles and significantly edit others, we feel it is best to maintain a policy of no credits. The objective of all of us is to do what we can to eliminate the aridness of literature wherever it exists.

General Guidelines

This guide is primarily designed to arouse and maintain motivation in the student by continuously highlighting those elements in these articles which focus on issues of major concern to them, address their ego strengthening needs and sound self-confident and productive alternatives to preconceived notions and ways of thinking that have hindered us from maximizing our potential.

This orientation can help make the necessary mechanical process that follows more meaningful and acceptable to the student—something that he/she can see as making sense and helpful to them. Accordingly, we suggest that you:

(1) Motivate student interest by introducing difficult words in each article with a discussion. If a chalkboard, easel or chart paper is available, write them before or as they are used in context.

(2) Guide the reading of each article by posing questions using words in the text. If necessary, take a sentence at a time. As the student progresses, you can take a paragraph at a time.

(3) Teach one skill after each article.

(4) Have student re-read to put the skill word taught back into context.

For this issue, you might concentrate thusly:

1. COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS:

ON GUARD—Ask: Where does Carl Armstrong work? When does he work? How did Carl know that Willie is an honest person? When are security guards needed most? Does Willie want a part-time or a full-time job?

DID YOU KNOW THAT—Ask: Who do the emergency shelters of the American Women's Clergy Association serve? When are the shelters open? How many members does the Gospel Music Workshop have? Why was this organization founded?

INMARK VESSEY—Ask: Where and when was Denmark Vessey born? How did Vessey get the money to buy his freedom? How long did Vessey plan the slave uprising? Who was Vessey's hero? Who did Vessey choose as leaders? Who was Peter Poyas? Who told the masters about the plot?

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—Ask: Name five other ethnic groups in the U.S. Where do most of the Japanese live? Where do most of the American Indians live? What is the difference between Asian Indians and American Indian? What is another name for American Indians?

2. SKILL-BUILDING EXERCISES

Let's review the short vowel sounds. A single (one) vowel in the middle of a word is usually short, e.g., hat, get, kit, rib, tub. A silent e at the end of a word with a single vowel usually makes the vowel sound long, e.g., hate, kite, robe, tube.

Listen to the words below. Write the short vowel on the line:

1. rat
2. name
3. hoot
4. feet
5. hone

hide
rib
rain
cube
cow

leap five but flute

tune
wine leak
cake
rake

For this issue, you might concentrate thusly:

1. COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS:

ON GUARD—Ask: Where does Carl Armstrong work? When does he work? How did Carl know that Willie is an honest person? When are security guards needed most? Does Willie want a part-time or a full-time job?

DID YOU KNOW THAT—Ask: Who do the emergency shelters of the American Women's Clergy Association serve? When are the shelters open? How many members does the Gospel Music Workshop have? Why was this organization founded?

INMARK VESSEY—Ask: Where and when was Denmark Vessey born? How did Vessey get the money to buy his freedom? How long did Vessey plan the slave uprising? Who was Vessey's hero? Who did Vessey choose as leaders? Who was Peter Poyas? Who told the masters about the plot?

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—Ask: Name five other ethnic groups in the U.S. Where do most of the Japanese live? Where do most of the American Indians live? What is the difference between Asian Indians and American Indian? What is another name for American Indians?

2. SKILL-BUILDING EXERCISES

Let's review the short vowel sounds. A single (one) vowel in the middle of a word is usually short, e.g., hat, get, kit, rib, tub. A silent e at the end of a word with a single vowel usually makes the vowel sound long, e.g., hate, kite, robe, tube.

Listen to the words below. Write the short vowel on the line:

1. rat
2. name
3. hoot
4. feet
5. hone

rib

rope

RUDOLPH D. YAS--NAME
Roberto Clemente was a great baseball player. He was also a great man. He was born in 1934 on a sugar plantation in Puerto Rico. His father was the plantation foreman.

When Clemente was 20 years old, the Brooklyn Dodgers signed him for a bonus of $10,000. This was more money than the Dodgers had ever paid a Hispanic player.

The Pittsburgh Pirates won Clemente in a special draft. For five years he was a disappointment to the Pirates. But in his sixth season, he scored a very high batting average. On September 30, 1972, he became the 11th player in major league history to bat 3,000.

In the 1971 World Series, Clemente led the Pirates to victory over the Baltimore Orioles. He was very proud of this victory.

That same year, Clemente began building a "sports city" for Puerto Rican youth. He believed this would be a way of keeping young people from taking drugs.

Clemente was always trying to find a way to help other people. He really believed that "anyone who has the opportunity to serve his country or his island and doesn't, God should punish him."

Roberto Clemente lived in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico when he wasn't playing baseball. The people wanted him to run for mayor of the town. He knew he could win the election, but he said, "No." He didn't want people to vote for him just because he was famous and popular.

Clemente's teammates loved him. They helped them in a special way. One of his teammates said, "He inspired us to give nothing less than our best."

In 1972, a big earthquake hit Managua, Nicaragua (a country in Central America). Many people were homeless and hungry. Clemente helped to organize a relief committee. He filled an airplane with food and supplies and took off from the airport at San Juan, Puerto Rico. On December 31, 1971, his plane crashed. The hero was dead.

In January 1973, a special election was held at Cooperstown, New York to vote Roberto Clemente into baseball's Hall of Fame. Only one other player in the history of baseball, Lou Gehrig, has ever been admitted to the Hall of Fame in this way.

Yes, Roberto Clemente was a great baseball player, a proud Puerto Rican and a great man!

Coming of Age

A few weeks ago in an article called "Opening a Bank Account," you read that "In most places in the United States, you must be 18 years old before you can open your own checking account."

Here is a table that shows how the laws in different states determine who is an adult. The laws in some states have changed. Do you know the laws in your state?

SCIENCE

You don't have to depend upon a rooster to wake you up. You probably have a clock.

There are many kinds of clocks. Benjamin Banneker built the first wooden clock made in America in 1761. It was a wooden "striking" clock. With a watch he borrowed as a model, Banneker built his wooden clock. He carved out all of the parts of the watch with a pocket knife. Banneker's clock kept perfect time. It struck exactly on the hour for more than 20 years.

Electric clocks were first made in the late 1800's. The quartz clock was invented in 1929. An atomic clock was invented in 1948. Digital clocks have no face and hands. They show time as numbers.

Everyone is familiar with that old clock that goes ring-g-g-g every morning! That's right—the alarm clock.

Do you know what makes an alarm clock ring? Inside the clock is a spring. This spring unwinds and turns a wheel, called the drive wheel. The drive wheel turns another wheel, called a clicker wheel. The clicker wheel has many teeth. The clock also has a hitten arm. The teeth on the clicker wheel make the hitter arm move back and forth. When the hitter arm moves, it hits against the bell on the alarm clock. Then the alarm goes off, waking you from a sound sleep.

Good morning! A new day has begun!
