CSCSB SELECTED AS EXPERIMENTAL ART
AND PHYSICS BASE

A representative of Experiments in Art and Technology from New York has selected CSCSB as a contact to set up EAT for Southern California.

Mr. Rosco Drago will be a frequent visitor to campus in his work in which he will utilize the College, the San Bernardino area and Prof. William Haney in coordinating advanced work in physics and arts. The result of Mr. Drago's EAT work will be of interest to industry in Southern California, according to Prof. Haney, as such possibilities as cordless light sources, color-impregnated plastics, etc. are studied.
