Robert Duncan Celebrates 101 Years

Mr. Robert Duncan celebrated his 101st birthday this week, and the body shows the signs of the time, but his mind is sharper than some younger people.

Mr. Duncan, residing in the West for the Winter, told us he was born in 1884, near Lompa, Texas, to parents who were former slaves. His father died when he was 6 months old and he lived with his mother and others related it to him. His mother had many children and she was a slave of a medical doctor, whose wife had many children and she was a Negro. She was "because they got a Negro to work on that farm." Mr. Duncan even sang the song "When the Angels Come," before he left the slaves and the President of the United States had to threatened to send the pinkie down to free the, so on the song he said they were free and he "Duncan could never stop." He added, "We never sold our grandchildren," he told us.

Mr. Toilet, was the name of a medical doctor, whose wife had many children and she kept housefrauen. The ancient Black folks were able to 150 in small schools, churches and other institutions because "there was no one to do it," said Mr. Duncan. Ownership and education is the most important things in the Negroes.

The dream of Dr. King is the dream of the many leaders in whose law he came, and while he is not here to carry it out, the one made most familiar to the majority of us must not and cannot allow ourselves to be stopped there - at a dream. Dr. King would not have wanted us to be stopped there. Beyond the dream are bold and active and prospective adoptive parents and professionals in the adoption field who work to find forever homes for Black children and to advocate for Black children.

Yucapita—Crafton Hills College marked the 80th birthday of Martin Luther King Friday and health care, careers and retirement, empirically and intellectually active 81-year-old Octogenarian Dr. Roger O. Edwards, at Focus on the Next 50? A Conversation About Growing Older,” at University Commons Large Demesn of Sciences Riverside campus.

Dr. Edwards feels that too many seniors are not aware of what might happen to everyone’s well being. In 1990, that figure will be 1 in 7. He wants to promote the notion that it is necessary to plan for the future and receive information science department, was the speaker. He quoted extensively from historic messages delivered by the civil rights leader who was shot to death in 1968 in Memphis. Edwards said that when James Earl Ray pulled the trigger of his rifle and shot Dr. King "he set off an explosion that rocked the world.”

He recounted the scores of cities that erupted in flames and violence at news of King’s death “as thousands gave vent to rage too strong for silence. The king was dead. And Americans, Blacks and Dr. King, the real keeper of the dream of what this nation ought to be." Ed was dead. And Americans, as thousands gave vent to rage too strong for silence. The king was dead. And Americans, Blacks and Dr. King, the real keeper of the dream of what this nation ought to be."

With words, the audience, along with the doctors and Dr. Joan Stoddard, Crafton’s dean of instruction, held hands and joined in singing what was become a civil rights anthem, “We Shall Overcome” at the closing of the program.

In his talk, Edwards said it is important to do this kind of group teaching to hospitals and community centers. "as thousands gave vent to rage too strong for silence. The king was dead. And Americans, Blacks and Dr. King, the real keeper of the dream of what this nation ought to be."

These scenes come together in one dazzling presentation. Among the 180 special-edition Hollywood musicals, the spotlight will also give prominence to the magical artistry of Black dancers from yesterday and today.

Produced by Jack Haley, jr., who created "That’s Dancing!," and David Niven, Jr., the musical features virtually every form of dance–tap, jazz, modern, ballet, swing, show, choral, Latin, dance and rap and rock’n’. In "That Dancing!" there are scenes from two films like the breathtaking "Flashdance," Michael Jackson’s "Black and White," "Beat It," and the street-wed sequence from the movie "Fame."

From the past there is the innovative footwork of Black dancers which will awe young audiences today. Among the exciting and skillful dancers are:

- Bill "Bojangles" Robinson, The Nicholas Brothers, Sammy Davis Jr. and Paula Kelly. Each provides an excellent opportunity to the performer and a front questioning善意 to provide a front questioning of the world of entertainment.

Dear Publishes:

Many times amid the hassle, hurdle and clutter, we use often said phrase, thank you as a screened.

This is not however, the intent of this note, because our "Thank you" is sincere, heartfelt and is deemed to convey, on behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of Opportunities Industrialization Center, Inc. an appreciation and a sense of pride is being chosen as the recipient of Black Voice's Organization of the Year Award.

To say I was surprised when our name was called, would be an understatement, (laughed), it left me humbled and without words.

Imagi being only big as them, we did what we did because of our committed to serve the "face of these" and because through it, we all, we doubted that "yes" eyes were on the stage, and hence, the fire, hence we knew our "yes" was watching us.

Thank you again, Cheryl and John, you "baby" hard.

May God continue to primo both of you and may continue to preserve the "voice" and its Fourteenth year of operation.

Sincerely yours,
Woodrow E. Bicker-Hughes

March AFB Prayer Breakfast

The Annual National Prayer Breakfast will be held the 24th of January at the March AFB MOC Club at 7:00 a.m.; the guest speaker will be Brigadier General Stuart E. Brown, Deputy Chief of Chaplains. Tickets are on sale at the March AFB Chapel at 12:30 daily. Come out and enjoy a morning of fellowship and prayer. These times of uncertainty, and stress, prayer can ease the pain. Jesus is the answer to all of our sins and sorrows.

Thank you and all the strong and talented voice, my little grade school at Edgemont School in Moreno Valley will be getting a voice lesson from their teacher and City Councilman. He will be teaching my special "Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Day" class early every week and include the telephone warning in your lesson plan as an example. The big topic is not something in a history book but it is alive and well in January 1968.

The 24th of January was the big day, "My kids told me you were going to play a world record of King recordings in your classroom..." "That's right," I answered. "I always play selections of his collection of these records for my class and they loved his voice. He named that he didn't want to say, but let the kids say if you plan those records. I'm instructing my kids not to use class and he won't be the only one, your whole class may outline on you...and maybe that won't be off the wall. The idea of the eddy launched into a dike which started Dr. King and his "holy moves forward" and I'm outdoors and political in this country. He must have been one of the morning membership for the N.H.A.A.C.C. APAC after school period that I don't waste my time listening to people who aren't enough to give me their name, and this is why.

Persis Panorama

The Persis Martell Luther King Commemoration service was a grand success on Saturday, January 18th.

The R.L.K. Committee, with Rev. Houghland, pastor of the First Congregational church was indeed fortunate to secure Rev. James Lawson on speaker for the evening. Rev. Lawson used a chain drawn out of a south block of desk, Dr. King and Rev. Houghland. He revealed the mixed racial events of the 60's, 70's and 80's as he held the audience spellbound with illustrations of the逵 of Dr. King and other personalities who struggled to bring about civil rights for all Americans.

Correspondence Secretary

MONA CAMPBELL is a correspondence secretary. This is a new, fancy name for typists who work in a word processing center. Word processing is a system of preparing, editing (correcting) and copying material such as letters and records for a business. This work is done on an electric typewriter that is attached to a computer. Today, Mona is explaining her job to two high school students.

"Good afternoon, my name is Mona Campbell. I'm glad you are interested in typing," Mona said. "Do you take typing in school?"

"Yes, Mrs. Campbell," said Trudy. "We are both in the second year typing class."

"Why are you called a correspondence secretary?" asked Wayne.

"Correspondence secretaries take care of all of the letters that come into the office. When I receive a letter, I send it to the proper person. If there is a reply, I type a clean, correct letter and an envelope. I know all of the letters that are stored in the computer," Mona explained.

"Exactly what kind of typing do you do, Mrs. Campbell?" asked Trudy.

'I type a lot of letters. Some of these letters are stored in the computer. Then I can make any changes or corrections I want. I don't have to re-type the letters. I also type reports, other kinds of letters and many, many envelopes."

"Do you keep all the letters you type?" asked Wayne.

"No, Wayne. Many of the letters need only one copy. They are not stored in the computer," said Mona.

"What does it take to make a good typist?" asked Trudy.

"A good typist must like neatness and accuracy in work, have good skills in spelling, grammar and punctuation and a fairly high typing speed," Mona replied.

"Will offices hire men as typists?" asked Wayne.

"A few years ago, 97 percent of all typists..."

THE AOIP Family & Community Reading Newspaper

The ADVANCER is the property of the national Assault on Illiteracy Program AOIP and is its official umbrella type remediation instrument. In addition to the Title I type classes for which it is designed primarily, it is to be used in all AOIP programs and projects. All literacy-enhancement programs and projects of AOIP-participating organizations are considered a part of AOIP.

The ADVANCER is prepared largely by the teachers in the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. They are assisted, with helpful cooperation, by the teachers and other professionals in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

These highly trained and deeply committed teachers—along with others in the more than 80 national organizations comprising AOIP—have far more concentrated experience than any other educators with Title I-type students. By focusing The ADVANCER primarily on such extraordinary needs, the supportive concerns of all other students are embraced automatically.

Did You Know That...

The National Coalition of Title I Chapter I Parents is a very important community-building organization. The coalition was formed in 1973 by a group of 50 parents to help parents learn how to be a part of their children's education.

Title I (now called Chapter I) is the largest program for grade schools and high schools that gets money from the federal government in Washington, D.C. The money is to help children who are behind in school. This means that these children can have extra help in reading and math.

The coalition has a National Parent Center in Washington, D.C. This center is the only one of its kind in the United States. The center provides many kinds of information to parents. It helps parent groups to learn how to play an important part in the education of their children.

Every year this organization has training meetings for parents, teachers and representatives of the community.

Is there a chapter of the National Coalition of Title I Chapter I Parents in your community?
HISTORIANS call 1800 the "Year of Freedom." In this year three Black rebels appeared on the stage of history. Gabriel Prosser led the first important uprising of American slaves; Denmark Vesey bought his freedom; and Nat Turner was born.

NAT TURNER was born in 1800. His father and mother were born in Africa. His father escaped back to Africa. Nat’s mother tried to kill him at birth because she did not want to bring another slave into the world.

As a young man, Turner became very religious. He began to read the Bible every day. He believed that he was a very special person. He believed that God had set him aside for some great purpose.

"Having soon discovered that to be great, I must appear so," Turner said, "I studiously (carefully) avoided mixing in society and wrapped myself in mystery devoting my time to fasting and prayer."

Turner became a very important person in the slave community of Southampton County, Virginia. He was called the "Prophet." All the slaves looked up to him. They asked him for advice.

One day Nat Turner had a vision. He saw Black and White spirits wrestling in the sky. The sun grew dark and there were streams of blood everywhere.

In 1831, Turner believed that Judgment Day had come for all slave owners. He chose four disciples (followers of a teacher or leader) and set out for the town of Jerusalem, Virginia. Some people say he was inspired by this verse from the Bible:

"From that time began Jesus to show unto his disciples, that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests, and scribes and be killed..."

—Matthew 16:21

At 10:00 p.m. on the night of August 21, 1831, Turner and his followers went to the home of Turner’s master, Joseph Travis. Travis, his wife and whole family were killed.

The little band moved quietly and quickly through the night, killing men, women and children. Within 48 hours, Turner had added 60 armed slaves to his band. They killed 55 Whites before moving on to Jerusalem.

Three thousand White men came to Southampton County to stop the slaves. A massacre (cruel and violent killing of a large number of people) took place. Angry White men killed many innocent Blacks.

Turner hid in a place called the Dismal Swamp. He stayed there for almost two months. During that time, a large part of the South was in a panic.

On November 11, 1831, the "Prophet" was hanged in the town of Jerusalem. Turner had said that it would grow dark and rain after his execution. It did rain that evening.

Nat Turner’s insurrection was a landmark (a very important happening) in the history of slavery. Old Blacks around Southampton County, Virginia used to date everything from "Old Nat’s War."

"You like your job, don't you?" Trudy asked.

"Yes, Trudy. I do interesting work and I’m good at what I do. This makes me feel so good about myself," Mona replied.
The United States is divided into six regions. They are:

1. Northeast
2. Southeast
3. North Central
4. South Central
5. Rocky Mountain
6. Pacific

The Northeast is a group of ten states in the northeastern part of the United States. The Northeast is divided into two groups of states: the New England States and the Middle Atlantic States.

The New England group is made up of six states: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

The Middle Atlantic group is made up of four states: Delaware, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

The area of the Northeast is 172,000 square miles. This is about 6 percent of the area of the United States. About 25 percent of all the people in the U.S. live in the Northeast. Almost 50 million people live here. New York City, the largest city in the United States, is located in this region.

About 79 percent of the people of the Northeast live in cities. Others live on farms or in small towns. Most of these people are descendants of people who came to America from many different countries in Europe.

Over 5 million Black people live in the Northeast. This is almost 10 percent of the population of this region. These Blacks are descendants of Africans who were brought here as slaves or indentured servants (persons who are bound by a contract to work for another for a certain length of time). Free Black people have also come to the Northeast from African and the Caribbean countries. These people are called immigrants.

In 1980, there were almost 5,000 Black elected officials in the United States. There were 587 Black elected officials in the Northeast.

More than 2 million Hispanics make their homes in the Northeast. About 1,500,000 Puerto Ricans live here. There are about 177,000 Cubans, 88,000 Mexicans and 846,000 Hispanics of other Spanish origins.

Most of the other ethnic groups in the United States live in the Northeast. This includes 217,799 Chinese, 120,800 Asian (East) Indians, 79,000 American Indians or Native Americans, 75,100 Filipinos, 68,200 Koreans, 46,900 Japanese and 24,900 Vietnamese.

The Northeast is a great manufacturing and trading region. Thousands of factories are found here.

Many large businesses have their main offices in the Northeast. Some of the largest banks in the United States are found here. There are also many companies that publish books and magazines.
Blaze and Harmony were orphaned brother and sister. All they had was each other. They loved learning above all else, which gave them their super powers. Eventually, they created a super serum which gave them their super powers.

They use these powers to help those who need assistance.

Some nutrients are lost during cooking but cooking makes some vegetables easier to digest and that makes more of the nutrients available to the body!

About 1/3 of the nutrients are discarded with the cooking water!

Therefore vegetables should be cooked in as little water and for as short a time as possible!
We Are Somebody Corner

"We Are Somebody Corner" is a segment in the ADVANCER, a publication that focuses on reading and motivational challenges for young people. It is part of the ADVANCER, which is designed to enhance the reading, motivational, comprehension, and ego strengthening needs of young adults and older adults not presently in any formalized public school system. Its secondary purpose is to serve as excellent supplemental reading for the large number of young people in public and other formalized schools where such help is indicated.

The primary objective of The ADVANCER is to fulfill a basic part of the reading, motivational, comprehension enhancement and ego strengthening needs of our young and older adults not presently in any formalized public school system. Its secondary purpose is to serve as excellent supplemental reading for the large number of young people in public and other formalized schools where such help is indicated.

This new learning enhancement tool is being put together on a volunteer basis (there are no paid staff other than professional volunteers in the field who make this program possible). The ADVANCER is being written by experienced professionals who have expertise in reading and educational processes who are interested in helping children and adults develop their reading skills and understand the world in which they live.

The ADVANCER is designed to be used as a supplement to any reading program. It is not intended to replace the regular reading program used in schools. The ADVANCER is a tool that can be used to enhance the reading skills of children and adults and to help them develop a better understanding of the world in which they live.

The ADVANCER is divided into three parts:

1. Reading Comprehension Questions
2. Correspondence Secretary
3. Geography Lesson

Reading Comprehension Questions

Question 1: What is the main idea of the article? The main idea of the article is that the National Parent Center is a significant organization that helps parents and children improve their reading skills.

Question 2: What is the purpose of the National Parent Center? The purpose of the National Parent Center is to provide parents with the tools and resources they need to help their children improve their reading skills.

Question 3: What is the significance of the National Parent Center? The National Parent Center is significant because it provides parents with a resource that can help them support their children's reading development.

Correspondence Secretary

The Correspondence Secretary is responsible for answering letters and providing information about the National Parent Center. They can be contacted at [address].

Geography Lesson

The Geography Lesson focuses on the United States and its regions. It includes information about the states, cities, and the Northeast region.

 OUR HISPANIC NEIGHBORS

Rosa Dolores of Spanish Harlem

We have been learning every week in The ADVANCER that Hispanic Americans are very much like us in many, many ways. Hispanic Americans are Americans whose ancestors came from places like Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean.

Hispanic Americans have a rich and colorful history. Let's try to learn some more important things about them and us each week in The ADVANCER.

Did you see the movie "West Side Story"? If you did, you will remember that the story was about teenage gangs in New York City in the 1950's. Rosa Dolores Alverio (you know her as Rita Moreno) played the part of Anita in that movie.

Rosa Dolores was born in Humacao, Puerto Rico. When she was still very young, the Alverio family moved to the part of New York City known as "Spanish Harlem."

Soon Rosita (little Rosa) was dancing for free at different neighborhood events. The first money she earned was $10.00 for dancing at a Bar Mitzvah (a celebration for a Jewish boy. When he is 13 years old he is considered an adult). She was 12 years old.

Rosita's family was very poor. When she was 15 years old, she got a job dancing in a nightclub. Later, she worked for a radio station and won a small part in a Broadway play.

Rosa went to Hollywood. She changed her name to Rita Moreno. She found a few small parts in TV shows.

Rita's first big break came in the movie called "Garden of Evil." Her picture appeared on the cover of Life magazine.

Then Rita Moreno got parts in other movies, like "Untamed," "Seven Cities of Gold," and "The King and I." She also played in a musical called "She Loves Me" in London, England.

Rita Moreno's biggest part was Anita in "West Side Story." She won an Oscar for her part in that picture. An Oscar is a little statue made of gold. It is given each year by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for achievement in motion pictures.

Rita Moreno won a Tony Award for her role as Googie Gomez in a Broadway musical comedy called "The Ritz." She also played in the movie.

Rita believes that it means a lot for a Puerto Rican woman to win a Tony Award. "I feel that it is important to keep going forward as a Latin performer in America," Rita once said. "The Tony means one more step forward for all of us."

Another time this popular Puerto Rican actress said, "It means a great deal to my people every time one of us gets some kind of recognition... in the English-speaking world, because not many of us have really made it in both the Spanish-speaking and English-speaking worlds."

The Tumbleweeds

Pablo wanted to earn some money so he could buy a new toy plane for $2.50. His uncle made a deal with Pablo. He said, "If you clean my yard I'll pay you 25¢ for each tire, 5¢ for each bottle, 9¢ for each brick and 7¢ for each garbage bag.

Citizenship

What Makes You a Citizen of the U.S.?

Only citizens of a country get the full protection of the laws. There are two ways to become a citizen of the United States. One way is by birth. The other way is by naturalization. There are no other ways of getting U.S. citizenship.

If you were born in the United States, you are a citizen by birth. If you were born in one of the territories of the United States, you are a citizen by birth. The territories of the United States are Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands in the Caribbean and Guam and American Samoa in the Pacific Ocean.

If you were born outside the United States but one of your parents was a U.S. citizen, you are a citizen if your parents recorded your birth with the U.S. consulate (office of the government official appointed by the U.S. to look after its interests and help its citizens in a foreign city).

Naturalization is the way that millions of Americans have become citizens. Let's see how a young man from Jamaica became a citizen of the United States by naturalization.

Thomas Manley went to the U.S. consulate in Kingston. He told the U.S. official that he would like to become a permanent resident in the United States. The official stamped his passport and gave Thomas papers to fill out. These papers were a request for an immigrant visa (a permit to enter the U.S. permanently).

After five years, Thomas went to the U.S. district court in New York City. He filed a petition for naturalization with the court clerk. Thomas studied all about the history and government of the U.S.

Thomas passed the citizenship test with a good grade. Then he went back to the U.S. district court, along with hundreds of other people from many different countries. They took an oath and became American citizens.
