Attorney Terence O'Brien, Retired County Librarian of San Bernardino, is a warm, personable organizer, he said at the event.

He cautioned that the over abundance of programs and the potential for non-involvement could be a problem. O'Brien proposed a "labor contracts" which would include the President or his designee, legal counsel, personnel manager, human resource officer, and equal employment officer.

He proposed the committee to help a company retain the older, more experienced worker, but to obtain the best man for the job.

An adjudicated program that has saved her company $700,000, has strengthened the company's culture. O'Brien thought the committee's approach was a better way to live. An Educators' Opinion

This morning, I will have the honor of addressing 8,000 of my colleagues in the education field, and filling their heads with thoughts that may or may not permanently make headways, but do make their hearts, minds and souls think. They are people who have dedicated their energy, their talents, their love to the task of bringing out the best that American education is and what it can be if given the chance to become.

I should like to say that Blacks are not asking for a hand-out, a hand in the mouth that is based on principles of equality. They are asking for a hand up, a hand that is based on principles of sympathy and brotherhood.

To implement the new program, the Secretary of Education has formed a "Operation Fair Share" committee to work with Blacks. The committee will focus on the following areas:

- Development and implementation of meaningful action plans to aid in preventing and overcoming unemployment and poverty among Black Americans.
- Assistance in obtaining loans for home and farm development.
- Assistance in obtaining loans for school and college development.

Drug Pushers Beware!

Community residents on Gilbert and Fifteenth Street in San Bernardino are coming out for a meeting because they are tired of the drug sales on their street and in the community.

They are angry about the pushers returning to their streets after the election of new Mayor.

They are angry with neighbors who allow their homes to be used to harbor these dealers on society.

The pushers they complain, are also responsible for the increase in thefts in the community, they bring in people who steal from senior citizens, push drugs to children, have the younger ones throw off the police by teaching them to sell common drugs as Marijuana, using an off-the-street ground.

The community is tired and putting those who are involved in drags on notice. You are unsanctioned and you will leave.

The present mood of the people is, maybe it’s time to take a closer look at the Philadelphia Plan (Houston the L.A., Battering Ram) or other legally sanctioned alternative.

Reagan's judicial wave

By Julian Road

What are you, more Republican than the Republican? Who are you and why are you so much more Republican than the Republican?

If you haven’t noticed Reagan’s judicial policy, I’ll state for you that he is at the forefront of the current struggle to install judges. His administration and from the beginning began a precipitous down grade of American Black judges.

In his position paper, President Reagan’s judicial policy is stated in a provocative manner, that all the positions are reserved for White males.

President Reagan’s judicial policy today as much as President Reagans’ judicial policy yesterday. If it’s true, that the government is going to remain sovereign, then the judicial policy is to remain sovereign.

President Reagan’s appointments to the Supreme Court and the lower federal courts—will have a more profound effect. They determine to reverse this could be a concerted opposition to the laws and policies of the administration. They may undertake essential civil rights protections removed over the last 25 years.

The relative youth of Reagan's appointments will influence the policy onto the 21st century.

While less than 6 percent of Lyndon Johnson’s judges were black, 67 percent of Carter’s judges were black. And 9 percent of the district court judges appointed by Reagan have been Black.
