CSCSB BEGINS FIFTH
ACADEMIC YEAR TODAY

The 1969-70 academic year officially begins today.

Some 1800 new and returning students are expected to enroll on September 25 and 26 in the College Gym.

In what is anticipated by the Registrar to be the largest enrollment in CSCSB's four-year history, the record number of students will register in two groups, as follows:

Thursday, September 25, juniors, seniors and graduate students
Friday, September 26, freshmen and sophomores

The College must cut off enrollment at 1800 students, due to lack of facilities.

Scheduled for today is the meeting of new faculty in PS-10 at 9:30 a.m.

On Monday, September 22, a general faculty meeting will be held from 9:30 a.m to noon in PS-10.

Now playing!

"RATS, ETC." Next weekend,
TO RETURN the successful
Summer Theater
presentation, "Rats, etc." will be shown in a return engagement September 25, 26 and 27
at 8:15 p.m.

The three modern, one-
act plays by young playwrights
will be performed by the Players of the Pear Garden
in the Little Theater.

"Rats," "Ex-Miss Copper Queen on a Set of Pills," and
"It's Called the Sugar Plum," directed by William Slout of the Drama Department, will also be shown the weekend of October 2, 3 and 4.

mances is $.75 for students,
faculty and staff; $1.50 for others.

Casting "NOW!"

TRY-OUTS SET Try-out dates
FOR FALL PLAYS for the fall production of
"NOW," have been announced.

On Tuesday, September 30,
and Wednesday, October 1, 7:30
to 9 p.m. in C-116, auditions
will be held for roles in three one-act plays, grouped
under the title of "NOW!":
"Fireworks for a Hot Fourth,"
"Ludlow Fair," and "Martyrdom of Peter Ohey."

The plays, to be directed by William Slout, will be the second consecutive group
of contemporary one-act plays
to be presented by the Drama Department. Anyone in the College community is eligible to try out.

Production dates are set
for November.

E.O.P. ORIENTATION
HELD FOR 40 STUDENTS

Forty students attended a nine-day Educational Opportunity Program orientation on campus,
which ended yesterday.

The students, all of whom have been accepted for admission to the College, were welcomed by Larry Johnson, E.O.P. Director and other College administrators and faculty. Mr. Kenneth Washington, Director of E.O.P. for the Chancellor's office, discussed the statewide goals of the program.

A series of workshops to acquaint the students with various phases of the College life were conducted by administration and faculty members.

A number of counselors from the community also participated in the orientation.
