Life During COVID

Unexcepted

- Horrible from the beginning.
- My husband was fired. (April 2020)
- I was laid off for 2 ½ months. (March 2020)
- School Online for my two daughters & I.
- Being home 24/7
- A lot of online shopping. (Groceries and necessities)
- Wearing mask is a challenge for the kids and us.
- No restaurant eating.
- No family time

July 2020

Our first drive thru graduation ceremony for our nephew.

August 2020

First Day of School 20-21. 4th grade here we come. Looks a lot different from previous years.

August 2020

Welcome to Kindergarten year 2020-2021. My middle daughter's first day of school. She is doing her placement testing with just her and her teacher.

September 2020

I had my first zoom job interview. 9/18

Took my kids to their first dentist appt during this pandemic. 9/21

Struggling with trying to keep up with 8 classes and all online.

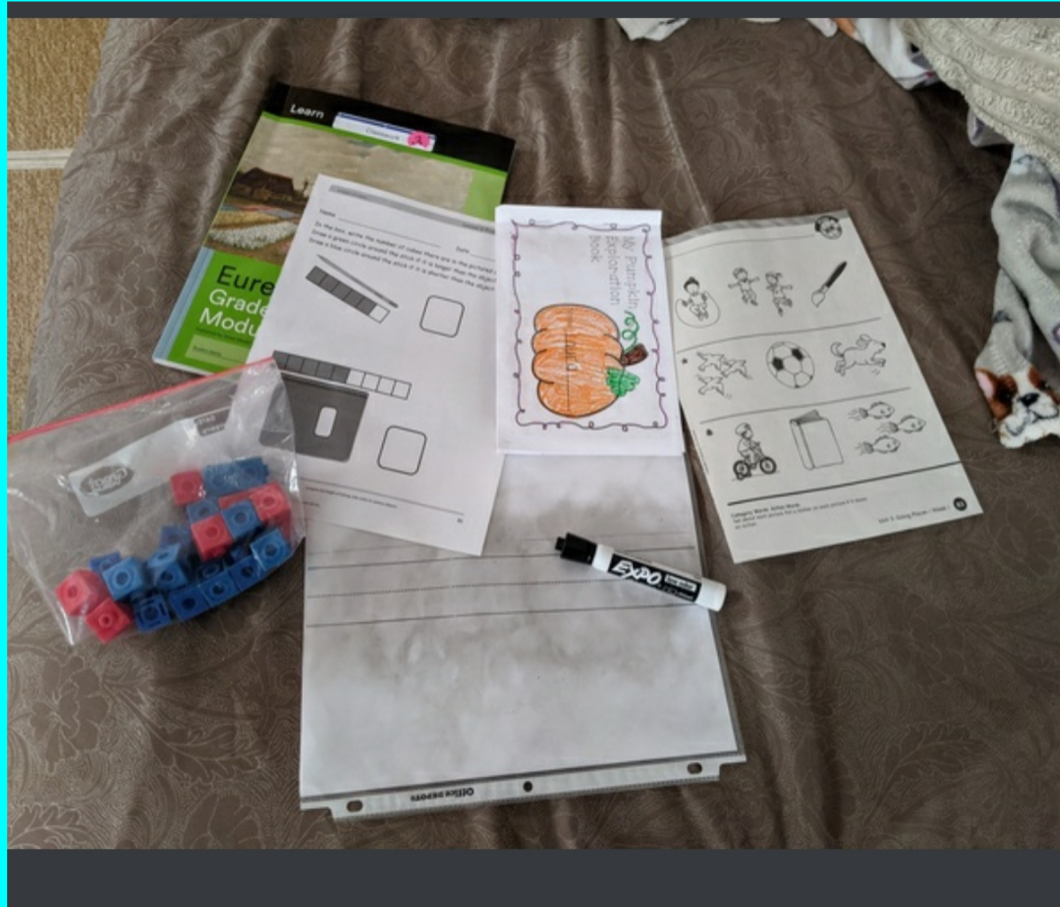

Struggling with trying to exercise regular or get fresh air.

Spending more money on food and utilities because everyone is home.

Sleeping while doing homework

09/18/2020 The beauty of being on the computer all day. It is exhausting and she had enough.

October 2020

Our daily job of having to get our daughters classwork for the next day.

No trick or treating for us this year.

No trick or treaters came to our house either.

November 2020 & December 2020

Voted for the first time.

Decorated for Christmas before Thanksgiving

When we thought it couldn't get worse my husband and I both tested positive for COVID. Our symptoms are ridiculous Everyday is something new fever, chills, headaches, body aches, no taste buds or smells, cough and sore throat.

Family members are in the hospital

No Thanksgiving for us because we were sick.

One week before finals and I have to be sick.
