Treasurer Elizabeth Eastes, introduced themselves to the campus and set out to familiarize students with the new A.S. cabinet Vice President Monica Remus Haste, the elected pro tem of the A.S. Board of Directors, and A.S. Acting Treasurer Sandra Boyd, who ran for the A.S. office, is returning for her seventh year and can answer all of your questions.

CSUSB Intercollegiate Debate Program Begins

The University’s new Department of Communications is sponsoring an intercollegiate debate program. The 1984-85 College Debate Topic is: Resolved: The United States Federal Government should significantly increase exploration and/or development of space beyond the Earth’s mesosphere. This proposition calls for the United States Federal Government to increase significantly its budgetary expenditure to explore and/or develop the space beyond the Earth’s mesosphere. The mesosphere is that portion of the Earth’s atmosphere that extends from twenty to fifty miles above the Earth’s surface. Exploration of space means to traverse space for the purpose of discovery and recognition, rather than Earth-based research.

Students interested in participating in this program are invited to attend a meeting at 7 p.m. in the Creative Arts 186.

Y.E.S. Exchange Students

Youth Exchange Service (YES), a non-profit educational organization, is inviting families all over the United States to host teenage foreign students from Europe, Latin America or Mexico. They are scheduled to arrive in January, 1985 for the second semester (6 months). Host families provide a bed and meals, and may claim a $500 tax deduction for each month they host the student.

For further details on the enriching experience of hosting a student from one of many nationalities, please contact: Youth Exchange Service (YES), World Trade Center Building, 350 South Figueroa St., Los Angeles, California 90071, or phone: 714-333-0566.

Making Your Own--

Fermented Beverages

"Making your own cider, root beer and other fruit beverages can be fun and rewarding," says Mary Marshall, home economist for Agricultural Cooperative Extension.

"Fermentation, the fermentation with yeast, starter or natural organisms can give some interesting end products that don't taste quite like expected. Marshall has therefore arranged for Dr. George R. York, Cooperative Extension Food Science Technologist, to demonstrate the proper methods of fermenting beverages.

Start collecting bottles with screw or cork top, or your own beverages, and come to the October 10 demonstration at the CSA Public Meeting Room. Learn about the "Good" and "bad" microorganisms that challenge the amateur. The demonstration from 10 to noon is free and open to the public. The GSA Public Meeting Room is located at 777 E. Accounting Association

Did you know that the number of students enrolled as accounting majors is second only to those in education here at Cal State. The Accounting Association of Cal State University San Bernardino exists to provide accounting students a link between the academic and real worlds. The Accounting Association provides information on careers in public, private, and government accounting.

The Association's calendar will include guest speakers from various careers related to accounting, internship opportunities, tutorial workshops, and the VITA income tax assistance program. Several social functions designed to acquaint students with faculty and business professionals are in the works.

For more information concerning the Accounting Association, please contact Bruce Doucette at 683-6534.

Cal State Marketing Association
by Tom Favorito and Greg Timpany

The Cal State Marketing Association (CSMA), 1983-84 Club of the Year, is sending out a challenge to the University's other clubs and associations.

"We worked very hard for the 1983-84," says Tom Favorite. "We know we have some excellent competition, but our group has grown rather attached to the award, and do not feel a year is enough time to really enjoy it."

The CSMA is striving to meet two major goals this year. The first goal is to bring the campus and local business communities closer together. The second, is to educate both groups as to the advantages of adopting a Marketing based philosophy. The CSMA has been laying the groundwork over the summer months. The Association has become an active member of the San Bernardino Area Chamber of Commerce. CSMA Vice-President Publicity Stephanie Main-Newcombe is representing the campus community as a member of the "Pride in San Bernardino Week" committee. She has arranged for the CSMA to handle the entire promotional campaign for the weeklong beautification event.

Programming Vice-President April Duke has put together what promises to be a very educational quarter. The first meeting is scheduled for September 27 at noon in the SU Senate Chambers. On Oct. 4 at noon in the Lower Commons the CSMA is sponsoring a "Free Lunch." The luncheon is open to all students, and will provide prospective members a chance to meet current members, faculty, and have a good lunch at the same time.

Domestic Violence: Giving Shelter from the Storm

Domestic violence, the battering of women and its impact on their children, is one of this country's most serious problems. It is also one of our most frequently-committed crimes. Twenty-five percent of all murders nation-wide result from domestic violence, and killed is murdered by a husband or partner. It is estimated that 55% of the 47 million American couples have had at least one violent incident, and 10-25% suffer family violence as a common occurrence. One of every four women involved in a battering relationship is pregnant. The literature on child abuse presents strong evidence that the abused child grows up to become the abused or abusive adult. Studies of marital violence suggest that it, too, is transmitted from one generation to another.

"Giving Shelter From the Storm" is the theme of Domestic Violence Awareness Week which is October 8-14, 1984. This week will focus attention on battered women and their families as well as the Shelter programs which serve them.

The Riverside County Coalition for Alternatives to Domestic Violence (RCCADV) provides a shelter program through Horizon House, a 24-hour crisis line, and Outreach services to persons involved in domestic violence. This program in 1983 provided shelter to 233 women and children, and provided counseling and referral to 5,518 people over the crisis line.

Information and materials about domestic violence and Domestic Violence Awareness Week are available from RCCADV: P.O. Box 910, Riverside, California 92502: 683-0629.

OPEN TO THEATRES EVERYWHERE FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28TH
Although foreign films are generally the only films to receive no ratings to cause many people within the movie industry to believe "Bolero" should have been given an X-rating. I hardly considered the idea that she must give her virginity to a sheik, Ms. Derek sets out to meet one. After her Saharan disaster problems giving it away, Poor Ms. Derek even has to over 1000 theaters. Backing the film, and adding to its allure, is a $7 million advertising budget and the multi-page spread in a recent issue of Playboy Magazine. The advertisement for the film is depicting the film as "an adventure in ecstasy." I hardly considered the film an adventure.

Ms. Derek plays an adventurous high-school graduate, who with her best friend, sets off across the globe in search of a true "Romeo." Accompanied by their chauffeur, played by George Kennedy, Derek and friend find themselves in Morocco. Possessed by the idea that she must give her virginity to a sheik, Ms. Derek sets out to meet one. Poor Ms. Derek even has has problems giving it away. After her Saharan disaster the entourage sets off for Spain. The remainder of the movie is spent in Spain, with Ms. Derek attempting to tie the knot with the local bull fighter.

As a whole, the movie itself is not pornographic. It was billed as a love story with lovemaking, but it appeared to me to be a comedy. I do not know if that was the intention, but the poor acting and dialogue turned it into a farce. The only redeeming factors were George Kennedy, the soundtrack and the photography. The scenes of Spain were excellent. I would not recommend this movie for anyone with a high-school education or beyond. Even Ms. Derek's fantastic figure could not save this movie. I hope for her sake that her next film is better.

HOW WE ALL SURVIVED ORIENTATION AND REGISTRATION
Are You Covered?

Many students have no health care insurance. Basic health care needs can be met at the Health Center on campus. However, if for some unfortunate reason, a student requires hospitalization or other medical services not provided by the Health Center, he or she can end up with some staggering medical bills. To help students with this problem, the Health Center is again offering a student accident and sickness insurance plan. This plan is designed to provide coverage for emergency situations, while keeping the cost as low as possible. It is basically a hospitalization plan, since it is assumed that students will use the Health Center for their basic medical care, and use the insurance only for those services not provided on campus.

A number of conditions are specifically excluded under this voluntary insurance plan. These are detailed in the brochure. It is important to note that any medical condition that existed prior to purchasing the insurance will not, repeat, will not be covered. This insurance does not cover all hospital expenses, but it certainly helps. The cost of this insurance is $122 for one year, or you can purchase it on a quarterly basis for $33. This is not a 100% coverage policy, but it is affordable and will help offset some of the costs.

Stop by the Health Center to pick up a brochure, and ask any questions you may have. If you are in need of insurance, send in the application as soon as possible. There is a deadline for applications. Claim forms are available in the Health Center when you need them.

Pharmacy Costs

On July 1, 1984 the Student Health Center Pharmacy began charging for all pharmacy items, both over the counter and prescription medications. The Health Center Pharmacy is charging actual state acquisition costs. The average prescription will cost less than $1.00 Many items previously unavailable free will now become available at a very nominal charge. All other Health Center services will remain available to you at no charge.

Where Is The Health Center?

We are located directly behind the Commons. Part of the Health Center houses the Nursing Department faculty offices. We are open from 8:30 Monday through Thursday, and from 8:30 on Friday. Only limited services are available from 12:30 on Friday.

Who Can Use The Health Center?

Anyone who is a registered student, and has an id. card that is validated each quarter is eligible for services.

Do I Need To Make An Appointment?

Yes, unless it is an emergency. Those people who have appointments will be seen first. If you just walk in to the Health Center, you may have to wait.

Bilingual Grants

Two grants totaling $332,489 for programs to help teachers in bilingual education have been allocated to Cal State, San Bernardino.

The California Department of Education has awarded the university $174,218 for the second year of a three-year project in training bilingual/cross-cultural teachers for local schools. A grant of $158,271 will fund the first of a three-year renewable award for a bilingual special education program.

Both projects will be directed by Dr. Patricia Peterson, a lecturer in the English department, who has been involved with bilingual education programs at the University of Arizona, the Florida State University and Florida International University.

The major goal of the cross-cultural teacher program is to establish and operate educational programs using bilingual education practices and techniques to enable students with limited proficiency in English to achieve competence in a language they will need to function in the service area. If renewed for three years, each of these programs will result in about $1 million in extramural funds for the college and communities, Dr. Garcia said.

Garcia, dean of the School of Education, said "The effectiveness of our first year has made it possible to get a larger grant and expand our services." The allocation for the first year was $124,000.

Dr. Garcia said more training sessions will result from the increased funding.

The bilingual special education program is designed so the university and local school districts may provide the needed leadership to enable limited-English proficient handicapped students to be appropriately assessed, placed and served.

The project will provide training for graduate students in the learning handicapped emphasis of school psychology as related to the specific needs of the bilingual/bicultural special education students.

"Through these programs the School of Education can better serve the educators and communities in our service area. If renewed for three years each, these programs will result in about $1 million in extramural funds for the college and communities," Dr. Garcia said.

Teachers and school psychologists interested in applying for these programs may obtain more information from Dr. Peterson at 887-7722 after Sept. 4.

SEMINAR IN SPAIN

(Part of}
Dear Editor:

I applaud your stand against the ignorance of some that leads to the oppression of others. (June 6, 1984 issue, p. 5) Therefore, I think it appropriate to attempt to dispel some of the ignorance expressed in one of the features of your recent June 6th issue, entitled: Homosexuality: What The Bible Says. And Doesn't Say. I suggest that the position presented in that apologia is a serious distortion of the content of the Bible. For example, the article dismisses, or dismisses out of hand, the basis that Christians are not mandated to obey the dietary laws in Leviticus 18:22. "You shall not lie with a male as with a female; it is an abomination," on the basis that Christians are not mandated to obey the dietary laws in Leviticus 18:22. (cf. Acts 10:1-16) There appears to be a confusion here between the Ceremonial and the Dietary Laws, on the one hand, and the Moral Law on the other. Christians have never been exempt from keeping the moral Law. (Thou shalt have no other gods beside Me, The Seventh Commandment, adultery, etc.). Also, note that the Hebrew word translated "abomination" in Lev. 18:22, translates this way 105 times in the Old Testament, and the remaining 12 times as "detestable!" For some idea as to what God considers an abomination, consider (in context) the preceding verse (Lev. 18:21), where there is a prohibition against child sacrifice. If we may set aside the prohibition in Leviticus 18:22 against homosexual practices. By the same reasoning, we may set aside the prohibition in the preceding verse against child sacrifice! Are we ready to do that?

The article Homosexuality further goes on to quote Jesus as declaring that "marriage (between male and female) is not for all." (Matthew 19:12-12) It seems to me that the clear implication of the Homosexuality article at this point is that homosexual marriage is a possible alternative. No such thought appears in the reference from Matthew, however, where heterosexual marriage is clearly in view, and the alternative is seen rather to be celibacy!

The Homosexuality article states, "Sex acts only become sinful when we act in lust or in abuse of another person...Christianity prohibits the sins of both homosexual and heterosexual. Therefore, Gay people can continue to live in the saving grace of Jesus Christ and yet still retain their identity and the rightful expression of their sexuality." On the surface this sounds good, until we note underlying presuppositions that I believe are wrong. One is, What is the "identity" of a homosexual person? It is primarily his sexual orientation? To assert that it is, is to demean the person, for we are far more than that! Again: What is the "rightful expression of one's sexuality? The clear position of the Homosexuality article is that a homosexual lifestyle is such a "rightful expression." If so, what shall we make of the New Testament passage: "Do not soil what is holy by offering the body of his children, nor adulterers...nor homosexuals...nor swindlers, Shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you" (1 Cor. 6:9-12) Here, note two things: First, practicing homosexual (and adulterers and swindlers, too) will not be part of God's Kingdom; but, Second, such persons are Not condemned to continue in that mode," such WERE some of you...

Lastly, the Homosexuality article listed an address for getting additional material favoring its viewpoint, from a Church, yet! I think it would be better to bring the following address supporting the views I have outlined above. For further information and help to anyone who wants to abandon a homosexual lifestyle: EXIT, a division of Hotline Help Center, P.O.B. 999, Anaheim, Ca 92806, Tel. (714) 778-1000.
