The Associated Students will be holding Fall Elections on November 18 and 19. Election office will be located at the crossroads in front of the Library, and will open from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. In case of inclement weather, polls will be located in the common area on Monday November 18 and in front of the Library on Tuesday November 19.

ASB Elections
Constitutional Amendment on Ballot

The Student Senate is considering suggested wording for a Constitutional revision. The current ASB Constitution was written in 1966 when the college was new. At that time, there were less than 300 Bachelor degrees available. Judi Jones, ASB President, suggested that the ASB Constitution be amended in the upcoming election to include graduate students, since they are not excluded from paying the fees. In order for the revision to qualify for the November 18th and 19th ballot, it must first pass the Student Senate on November 18th by a two-third majority vote. The revisions will seat one graduate representative on the Executive Cabinet and two graduate Senators on the ASB Senate.

“Lady Frederick” Opens This Week

Somererset Maugham’s “Lady Frederick” will open the 10th season of Players of the Pear Garden productions Nov. 14 at California State College, San Bernardino. Performances will be Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 14-16 and Wednesday through Saturday, Nov. 20-22 in the Lillie Theatre on campus. Curtain time will be 8:15 p.m.

Of the 1907 play, the first of the epigrammatic comedies which established Maugham’s name, is famous for the scene in which the irresistible charmer of middle age who gives her name to the play shows herself as she looks without artificial aid in order to discourage a youthful suitor.

The title role of “Lady Frederick” will be portrayed by guest artist Mary Barnes, wife of Dr. Ronald Barnes, director of the drama department and is its chairman. Mrs. Barnes' background in the theatre includes the role of Miss crackers in “Harvey;” with John Astin; Hesione Hashbaye in Shaw’s “Heartbreak House” with John Kerr and George Ede; and Vivie in Shaw’s “Mrs. Warren’s Profession” with the San Francisco Interplayers. She has also appeared in productions of the Honolulu Community Theatre, the Arena Players and the Traveller’s Company of Hollywood.

The Maugham comedy, set in a fashionable spa on the French Riviera, premiered in England Oct. 2, 1907. Ethel Barrymore was the first to appear as “Lady Frederick” in the United States. CSCSB students cast in the play include Keith O’Camp, a Beaumont resident; Kurt Nelson, Rock DeFillipes, Kathleen Newcomer and Sandra Sparks. Another actress, Deborah Stephanie, also a San Bernardino resident, is a student at San Bernardino Valley College.

Veteran’s Corner
The G.I. Bill Story: November 1974

The GI Bill (Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974) which recently passed the House and Senate will become law, according to Congressman Bob Wilson, R-Calif., 40th District.

“Congress is presently adjourned and won’t reconvene until November 18. At that time the bill will be submitted to the President, it is conceivable that the bill might be submitted for Presidential approval or veto as much as a week prior to reconvening. According to parliamentary procedure, the President has three options when a bill is presented to him: (1) he can sign the bill into law, (2) he can veto the bill, or (3) he can do neither. If the President chooses to sign a bill it is the law thereafter, subject to repeal. If the President vetoes the bill, the President can go back to Congress for re-evaluation or if Congress is strongly in favor of the proposed bill the presidential veto can be overridden by simple majority in the Senate and a two-thirds majority in the House.

If the President takes his third option, simple inaction, the outcome of the bill relies on whether Congress is in session or is adjourned. The President has ten Congressional working days in which to exercise one of his options. If he neither signs or vetoes a bill after ten days the bill automatically becomes law. On the other hand if Congress is adjourned and the ten day limit expires the bill is automatically killed. This method of killing a bill is known as a presidential “pocket veto.”

Since a “pocket veto” would further delay the bill, Congress has removed the opportunity for such a veto, according to Representative Wilson.

“Congress will hold the bill until reconvening or just prior to

The International Club will once again sponsor delegation to the National Model United Nations (NMUN) in New York City. The event will take place in the spring quarter of 1975 (April 22-26). Applications for interviews will be available Monday, November 11 in the Political Science Secretary’s office (Penny Jones). Prospective applicants must be undergraduates and plan on attending CSGSB for the remainder of the school year. This event is open to all majors.

The largest collegiate conference in the country, NMUN, built on the experience of thirty-nine years, is also the most comprehensive in its size, scope, and ability to meet the needs of its participants. The conference satisfies many varied educational ambitions. The study of international economics and politics is alive and meaningful. Those involved in regional studies are offered a unique opportunity to apply abstract knowledge to a purposeful end in the simulation of world diplomacy.

As a member of the academic community concerned with political, social and economic relations between diverse nations, you are invited to consider the interest and educational value of the National Model United Nations.

New Revolutionaries

Fill Radical Void

(CPS) — With the death of SDS most college administrators breathed a sigh of relief, but the void left by the group's demise is being replaced by the Revolutionary Student Brigade (RSB), an organization partly responsible for two campus disorders in October.

At Columbia University members of the RSB, formerly the Attica Brigade, took over the administration's careers office to protest Columbia’s policy of allowing all "legitimate employers" to recruit on campus.

The group of 35 students ripped up a dozen application forms for the CIA and stated that its action was the beginning of a campaign to deny university recruitment services to federal agencies and corporations, "which are responsible for the oppression and exploitation of people worldwide."

During the two hour sit-in, an RSB spokesman also demanded that the Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) not be permitted on campus and that Columbia president William McGill resign from the board of directors of Texaco. In addition, the spokesman stated that the university must "end all investments in corporations operating in South Africa.

The protesters left when they were told that they would be subject to discipline under the rules of university conduct if they stayed any longer.

Meanwhile at Boston University (BU) three days of protest ended when 150 students marched to the administration building and burned an effigy of the vice-president. The RSB and other groups were demonstrating against Chile’s military junta, a BU-organized conference on Latin American development and the use of city police to quell student disruptions.

Seven demonstrators were arrested on the second day of protests when Boston police were called in by the university to break up a demonstration in front of the administration office after windows there were broken.

Protesters objected to BU conference invitations sent to Eduardo Frei, an opponent of Salvador Allende's Popular Unity government, and Robert McNamara, president of the World Bank, which refused to extend credit to Allende.

Six policemen and two students were injured during the demonstration.

The Associated Student Government leaders of Cal State are supporting a petition calling for a Legal Aid Program for San Bernardino.

The petition calls for a fully funded and staffed Legal Aid office that would provide free legal aid to those people of the local community who cannot afford attorney fees.

The nearest legal aid society is located in Riverside and usually those who cannot afford an attorney also cannot afford a drive to Riverside.

The petition for the legal aid program will be available in the A.S.B. trailer to be signed by interested persons during the following hours: 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The petition states that "We the undersigned, feel that it is important that San Bernardino County have a fully staffed, fully funded Legal Aid program."

The supporters of this petition feel that equal justice means equal access to the courts and without adequate legal aid there is no justice.

The Executive Cabinet meets every Tuesday at 8:00 a.m. in the A.S.B. trailer.

The Student Senate meets every Wednesday at 8:00 a.m. in the Commons Conference room.

“OKIE

J.J. Cale (Shelter)

If you want credits, some of Cale’s come from his early stints with Delaney & Bonnie, an association with Leon Russell and the artful production of Tach Natural. Slide. Café’s vocals are restrained, as much laid-back as held back, at times almost a hush. His guitar is similarly laid-back, wearing a tapestry of syncopated strumming, subtle chord arrangements.
Together, voice and guitar slide the sonic message to masterful ends.

On Café, branded “commercial” by the short length of the cuts and the consistent use of fade-outs to make for easier airplay, Café is strongest with the upempo “Cajun,” featuring some beautiful lead guitar licks and Young. Other cuts that contribute to Café’s appeal are the soft country
“I’ll Be There (If You Ever Want Me).”

Gene Cotton

(Myrrh)

Gene Cotton looks sort of like a country balladeer of the modern school, sort of like a streetwise Jens Frek, and sort of like plain folk. Deep in his Nashville heart, Gene is a Christian. (The word “Christian” is used in this context to denote one after convertion, rather than the holy life in quiet contemplation.)

The Myrrh label is a subsidiary of Word records, a gospel and popt record mill in Waco, Texas which has just signed a deal with ABC 通道 for distribution, which is important, as it lodges more Christian ballads and hymns on the AM dial (which is just what you needed, right?), the current one of which is in Gene Cotton’s “Sister Roses,” the opening track on his Liberty L.P.

“Sisterly Roses” is an
“A Merican Pie” formula song with none of the depth. Cotton even sings like Doug Dean, vocals and chorus proceedings sounding amusingly like . . . Ah well, pity that his bored and dull Fifties rockers, those oppressed Blacks and stone hipsters, etc., etc., and sometimes when you try to cover all the ground, hollow spots are left.

Tracy’s rich, throaty voice strains heartily to communicate the quaintness of “I Shall Be Learning” and a half-dozen others, but always seems to lack the inversion to pull it off. She does terrific renditions of the spiritual “After The Fire Is Gone” and most C&V, however, showing that there is more undirected talent out there than suspected.

What producer Bob Johnson (of Bob &う, fame) needs to do is help Tracy direct her attention to the genre that she probably was born for (which I suspect is country,) and then expand to cover all the bases.

Ten Per Cent Enrollment Increase

The Fall Quarter official censu-se taken on October 23, shows 3,561 in 1974, an equivalent of 2,888 full-time students. This represents a 10.7 per-percentage increase over the F.T.E.
which was 2,618,0, with 3,072 students on campus. The percentage of individual students increased 14 per cent based on the comparison of the two Fall Quartercums.
Opinion Poll

What Do You Think of A.S.B.?

By Raman Bechar

At Mellon, Business Admin.

Why should the A.S.B. be spending money on art and crafts? The college should spend that money, I think. A Child Care Center should be a worthwhile project. With all the married students on campus, I think that should be a good cause.

Garry Mester, Education

I am not too aware of the A.S.B. Sometimes I do see that they exist by the posters they post on walls. They should have more social activities. And perhaps organize some garage sales, art shows and dances.

Debbie Goerner, Health Sc.

Not too many students know what the A.S.B. is up to. They should let the students know that they are here. They should get the Child Care Center going again. I think it'll be worth the effort. They should get lunch time speakers, movies and musicians on campus.

David Zamora, Social Sc.

All I know is that they exist and that's about it. It seems that they would be limited in their activities because of the nature of this campus. Most of the students are commuters and to them A.S.B. is nonexistent.

Gerrit Olin, Graduate Student in Clinical Psych.

I am not really familiar with the A.S.B. I think they are trying to make the students more aware of the activities available to them. Much more so than in the past. They should reach out and find the activities available to them.

Warren White, Criminology

I have seen very little of the A.S.B. I am sure they are trying to do as much as they can. I think they should throw some 'pool' parties at P.E. pool for students to get together. Maybe more athletic programs.

Scott McIntire, Bus. Admin.

The A.S.B. should publicize their activities more. They should make the students more aware of the political situation of this community and the State. They should get off their seats and get involved.

Aries: Use your energy wisely — especially around children this week and with your impatience. Keep the upper hand in bargaining.

Taurus: Don't let yourself become isolated. Now's the time to move with the crowd. Successive events will lead you up.

Cancer: Don't let nostalgia bog you down. Take a chance; invest.

Leo: There is a woman giving you support: a mother, a sister, a wife; if you've been wishing for comes to you.

Virgo: Allow yourself the chance to be pleased with yourself. Protect those you love.

Libra: This is a week to roll up your sleeves, and get to work. Your activity, will pay.

Scorpio: Forget what's past. Look to the future. Home is being built. Prepare now and financial support is there.

Sagittarius: Social atmosphere this week — involve yourself with artistic people.

Capricorn: Count your friends. You'll be surprised at how many you have. The good will outweigh the bad two to one.

Aquarius: Although your problems seem unsurmountable take them one at a time. There will be an opportunity to communicate to the masses through written material.

Pisces: Cooperation with a partner is called for this week. Share your knowledge with others.

This week the moon moves through Libra on the 12th, Scorpio on the 13th and 14th, Sagittarius on the 15th and 16th, Capricorn on the 17th and 18th. Mercury enters Scorpio on the 12th. With Mercury, Moon and Sun in Scorpio on the 12th, Scorpions may have strange dreams and unique thoughts. Venus and Mars are also in that sun so there's lots of romantic activity. Capricorns appear to be having a little rough time with Saturn opposing their Sun Sign.

The association of Psychology Students is soliciting students interested in going on trips, hearing guest speakers, and throwing parties. Hearings are held every Tuesday at noon in PS 122.

The APS's first event — a coffee hour held on October 30 — was considered a success by both faculty and students in attendance. Dr. Stuart Ellins introduced the Psychology Department faculty and each instructor outlined his/her main area of interest. Coffee and cake were served.

Ski Club

Clubs

The Cal State Ski Club will meet Wednesday, November 13, at 12:00 noon in the upper commons. A movie will be shown from the Olympia Beer Company. Also, plans are being made for a beer bust and ski trips to the local mountains and the Sierra. For further information contact Joe Long or Greg Price in the Physical Education Department.

Foreign Students Association

The new "Association of International Students" will meet Tuesday, November 12, 1974 at 1:00 p.m. in PS 133. The agenda will include organization of the club and election of officers. The club is open to foreign students and all other students interested in promoting cultural exchange between students from other countries and the United States.

Bridge Club

Bridge anyone? Several local colleges have bridge teams that would like to play against Cal State students. In fact, there will be a major bridge tournament at UCLA later this month.

Social Club

There will be a meeting of Sociology majors and the Sociology faculty on Wednesday, November 13, at 12:00 noon, Fifth Floor of the Library. Agenda items include a question and answer period and organization of the Sociology Club.
We've got a plan to make your banking easier.

The College Plan
What we've got is a very special package of services designed specifically for college students. We call it the College Plan, and here's what makes it so special:

The College Plan Checking Account.
First you get completely unlimited checkwriting for just $1 a month. (Free during June, July and August.) You get monthly statements. And the account stays open through the summer even with a zero balance, so you don't have to close it in June, reopen it in the fall.

Personalized College Plan Checks are included at a very low cost. Scenic or other style checks for a little more.

BankAmericard: Next, if you're a qualified student of sophomore standing or higher, you can also get BankAmericard. Use it for tuition at state universities, for check cashing identification and everyday purchases. Conservative credit limits help you start building a good credit history.

Overdraft Protection. This part of the package helps you avoid bounced checks, by covering all your checks up to a prearranged limit.

Educational Loans. Details on Studyplan® and Federally Insured loans are available from any of our Student Loan Offices.

Savings Accounts. All our plans provide easy ways to save up for holidays and vacations.

Student Representative. Finally, the College Plan gives you individual help with your banking problems. Usually students or recent graduates themselves, our Reps are located at all our major college offices and are easy to talk with.

Now you know what's included: why not drop by one of our college offices, meet your Student Rep, and get in our College Plan. It'll make your banking a lot easier.

Depend on us. More California college students do.

BANK OF AMERICA

Blood Drive
You could consider CCSBA a small community of approximately 5,000 people if you count all the students, faculty and staff. Given this number, there is a statistical probability that someone, maybe YOU, will require surgery or incur an injury where blood will be necessary to guarantee your continued health and well-being, possibly your life.

The only way to guarantee that none of you will have to face this tremendous cost is to have a reserve fund and the only way to have a reserve fund is through the generosity of DONORS.

Your Student Health Center has established a blood reserve fund on this campus to guarantee this very necessary commodity to you or any member of your family free of charge in the event that one of these incidents might occur. One pint of blood costs approximately $50 if you had to buy it.

Our annual blood drive will be held on November 19 in PS 121 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. We would like to see you there; give this very important matter your serious thought and consideration. Don't "let the other fella' do it."

You may stop by the Student Health Center, AD-117, anytime between now and the 19th and sign up for the time most agreeable to your schedule.

Remember — "GIVE BLOOD — IT WAS MEANT TO CIRCULATE!"

Environmental Exhibit on Display
The nature and scope of America's environmental crisis and the efforts being made to cope with it are depicted in 113 color photographs displayed in the Cal State, San Bernardino library Oct. 26 to Nov. 24.

Titled "Our Only World," the photographs may be seen on the first and fourth floors.

Produced by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, "Our Only World" is being circulated nationally by the Smithsonian Institute.

Among the problems depicted pictorially are the needs for clean air, clean water, solid waste management, insecticide and radiation control and noise abatement.

The exhibit shows the effects of our technology and the efforts now being made - both by individuals and by organizations - for slowing down and reversing the damages we have done to this portion of our world.

Original color prints identical to those in "Our Only World" may be purchased by the public through orders forms available at the exhibition.

Library hours are Monday thru Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday 12 noon to 4 p.m. and Sunday, 12:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Student Services Expanded
Kenton L. Monroe, Dean of Students, states that he welcomes the Admissions and Records Office as a part of the Student Services group and looks forward to a close working association.

The Admissions and Records Office, currently located in temporary quarters in Mohave House at Serrano Village, is expected to move into their remodeled permanent office in the Student Services Building some time around the middle of November.

Veterans Get Free Tutors
Under a new program available under the World War II and Korean GI Bills, VA pays costs of tutoring, not to exceed $50 in any given month, up to a maximum of $450 per year. The benefit is not charged against the veteran's basic educational entitlement.

Any veteran who is a high school graduate is eligible if he attends college halftime or more and has a deficiency in a subject required in an approved program of education.

In order to get money for tutoring assistance, the agency advises eligible veterans to complete a VA application and have it certified by the school. Applications should be sent within a week after submitting the VA regional office which has the veteran's claim folder.

Library Cooperative
An "information explosion" is the major factor in the banding together of 21 academic libraries in a new cooperative organization.

Explained Arthur Nelson, Cal State, San Bernardino library director, "No individual library can hope to acquire all available material in all disciplines." Under the new arrangement, the combined resources of all 21 libraries total nearly three million volumes.

Shrinking buying power, Nelson continued, is another reason for the formation of the Inland Empire Academic Library Community.

Included in the organization are all community college, four-year college and university libraries in San Bernardino and Riverside counties as well as a number of libraries in eastern Los Angeles county.

Students enrolled in any of the cooperating colleges may check out books from any of the 21 libraries, using the card issued at the home college.

The members of the Inland Academic Library Cooperative are:
Antelope Valley College, Antioch; Pacific College, Barstow College, California Baptist College, California State College, San Bernardino, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona; Chapman College, Citrus College, College of the Desert, Crafton Hills College, LaVerne College, Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, Loma Linda University, Riverside, Mt. San Antonio College, Mt. San Jacinto College, Palm Verde College, Riverside City College, Valley College, University of California, Riverside, University of Redlands, Victor Valley College.
Freshman students are underrepresented on campus. They need a strong representative in the senator's office. Freshmen should be made aware of campus facilities and activities. They need a strong senator to organize the freshman class. I will be a strong senator for the freshman class. I am a representative of M.E.C.H.A., to the I.O.C., and vice president to I.O.C. I will get the freshman class in the campus spotlight.

We've had a good laugh reading the candidates statements but let's get serious for a minute Gary DeLeon is my name and I'm truckin' (as opposed to running) for freshman Vice President. I am a serious person and believe in having a good time. So let me be serious about having one helluva a good time.

I promise you I won't make any campaign promises except this one, that I will represent you. This has been a free political announcement, paid for by the "Non-political Party".

Tom Caron

Greetings fellow students, my name is Tom Caron and I am seeking re-election to the office of Senator-at-large. I spend most of my days on campus, not only for the reason of being a full time student and senator, but also because I live in the campus residence halls and take an active interest in the academic and social life here on campus.

Throughout the year there will be issues brought up at the A.S.B. meetings concerning fund allocations for various departments, evaluations of services that could benefit students, and providing assistance in promoting activities that are of both academic and recreational in nature. As a voting member of A.S.B., I assure you that I will use my voting power in the interests of overall student benefits.

Jose A. Gorza

Each member of the student body should have input as to what occurs in any and all student body meetings. From these meetings and the results gained from the, will affect the school in general. If any students differes in the opinions given or have better ideas, they the right if not the responsibility to speak out. In this area of representation I have had experience and hope to serve your interest on campus.

Hello, my name is Paul Martinez, and I am a candidate for Freshman Class President at California State College, San Bernardino. As a candidate I can say through my experience as President of San Bernardino High School for the year 1973-74 I am familiar with the responsibility of a class president. Besides my assigned duties if I am elected, I hope to bring unification in all Freshman activities. I feel that this unification will establish communication and participation of all students, as well as professors and the administration. This unified participation will bring successful accomplishments, and make our Freshman year memorable as well as bring togetherness of our class as a whole.

If you want a leader who believes in representing our class as a whole, vote for P.G. Martinez on Nov. 18, Election Day.
Candidates on the Soap Box

I have had a great deal of experience with high school government as Student Body Treasurer of a high school with 3,100 students. Since I have been here I have seen room for improvements.

I feel that one of the most necessary programs here is the "Book-Co-Op" program. The student government here should concentrate more effort into making this program successful for the student body. There is no reason why students should continue to pay outlandish prices for their books and get comparatively no resale on them. I will encourage the student government to concentrate all of their efforts to get this program off the ground.

As Freshman President I will also propose. Freshman registration priority. Many Cal-State schools now have Freshman priority, and I will fight to bring it to San Bernardino.

Bill Howell

First of all, I will try to promote more student participation in student government. I will do this by posting in the cafeteria and in the dorms, a list of the actions taken by the student government after each senate meeting.

Of course, I will be available to discuss anything any freshman student wants to discuss.

If any action needs to be taken, I will bring it up during the next meeting.

I have attended every senate meeting since the beginning of this year, so I am up to date on what's happening there, this way, I will be better able to help you, and will have some background when I am elected.

Shirley Alvarez

 unreachable for the student government to keep the lines of communication between A.S. and S.B. government open. A few A.S. Officers, in order to get their "pet projects" passed and appropriated, merely tell the students what they want them to know. I believe that students should be given the full facts regarding legislation that will ultimately affect them.
Student Services Profile

Counseling Center

Almost every student at some point in his college career experiences problems of studying, apathy, anxiety, motivation, interpersonal relationships and/or the choice of a career, among others. The services of the Counseling Center, PS 227, are available to members of the college community to aid in solving these problems.

The staff is composed of John Hatton and Don Woods, psychologists. Susan Gulliver will begin January 1, 1975, as a part-time counselor along with her position in the Psychology Department. Appointments usually may be made for the same day and often persons can be seen on a walk-in basis. All counseling is completely confidential and is tailored to the needs of the student. Although Hatton, Woods, and Merrill are resources for dealing with crises and difficult problems, they are very interested in reaching students without a particular problem but who may benefit from a personal exploration of goals, expectations, and feelings.

Vocational testing may be used to aid in the selection of a major or occupation. Inventories are used as a beginning point for discussion not as ends in themselves. Information and applications for such tests as Graduate Record Examination Law School Aptitude Test, Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business, National Teacher's Examination and College Level Examination Programs can be obtained at the Counseling Center. Same tests, such as American College Test (ACT), Graduate Record Examinations (GRE), Miller Analogies Test (MAT), and College Level Examination Programs (CLEP) are given on our campus.

Foreign student advising in immigration, academic and personal areas is also provided by the Counseling Center.

California State Scholarships

The California State Scholarship and Loan Commission reminds high school seniors and college students that the postmark deadline for filing of California State Scholarship applications is November 22, 1974. Approximately 13,500 new scholarships for undergraduate college students are to be awarded by the Commission in March 1975. Students who believe they will need financial assistance to pay for tuition and fees at the college of their choice and who have already taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board (or who plan to take the examination on December 10) are encouraged to secure an application from their school or the Commission office in Sacramento immediately. A copy of the Parents' Confidential Statement should also be secured for mailing not later than December 12th.

The Commission especially wishes to encourage students with approximately a "B" average to apply for a State Scholarship. Analysis of Commission statistics has in the past confirmed that many students in the approximate grade point average range of 2.80 to 3.30 who have not applied may well have been eligible with a reasonable test score and financial need.

Women's Center

The San Bernardino YWCA Women's Center is a place open to all women. The goal of the Women's Center is to try to help the needs of women from all age groups and philosophies. The Women's Center endeavors to provide useful services to all women in order to help women gain self-confidence, to appreciate their individual worth and capabilities, and to recognize their potential as active force in our community. We have people working in the following areas of concern: Job and career counseling, day care, public health and recreation, new laws of interest to women, consciousness raising, political action, sectionism, education, rape crisis, speakers bureau, and medical-legal referral. We need more help in all areas. The Women's Center is located at 488 N. Arrowhead Avenue. The phone number is 885-9256.

Throwing the book at sexists

By Nancy Heine

(CPS) — "Examples of stereotyping to be avoided: scatterbrained female, fragile flower, goddess on a pedestal, cat-eyed, beret-pegging shrew, apron-wearing mother, frustrated spinster..."

Editors at the McGraw-Hill Book Co. have sharpened their pencils and began attacking sexist educational texts they publish. And they're not alone. Other publishers have joined the battle.

According to studies on sex-role stereotyping in textbooks, plenty of editing is in order. Though 51 percent of the US population is female, the studies discovered men far outnumbering women in texts at all grade levels. Women who were represented were shown as servile, passive and dependent.

In a study of 554 elementary readers, researcher Dianne Graebner found a ration of three boys to every two girls. She determined that 75 percent of all stories were about boys and that boys made up 67.5 percent of all illustrations. She found that girls were depicted as shallow and "mothers" invariably wore skirts — even while camping or hiking down the Grand Canyon.

Why? Women on Words and Images (WWI) went through 134 readers from 14 publishers, they found boys outnumbering girls five to two as lead characters in stories. Their study uncovered six biographies of males to every one biography of a female. In mathematics books, WWI found boys solving astronomy and chemistry problems and learning to buy stocks while girls measured curtains and bought flour.

An investigation of social studies texts by Richard O'Donnell revealed 42 percent of the occupations described belonged to males and only 17 percent to females. The occupations for females included waitresses, housewives, secretaries and other service or home-oriented jobs. Seventy-two males had prestigious jobs while only one female was shown in a similar role. O'Donnell never found a male doing dishes, cleaning or handling childcare duties.

Perhaps the most exhaustive research on high school civic texts was published in the book "You won't Do!: What Textbooks on US Governmental Teach High School Girls Dr. Jennifer Macleod, research psychologist, and Sandra Silver (so-called feminist consultant, dissected eight leading civics texts and found little mention of women in the US political process.

They discovered that illustrations vastly underrepresented women. Whereas 51 to 72 percent of the pictures showed only men, a scant 3 to 9 percent showed only women. They saw only two pictures of women in nontraditional roles — Senator Margaret Chase Smith holding a bouquet of roses and Rep. Patcy Mink throwing snowballs.

The researchers noted that all political leaders were drawn as male stick figures in charts. In one book's introductory unit, "Understanding Democracy," a six-sketch montage showed: a man running for office; a man reading about a male candidate, three men discussing politics; a man watching a three-man TV debate; a man cheering a male candidate; and a man voting.

Macleod and Silver found the reading matter no less stereotyping. They uncovered statements like: "The ideal presidential candidate is an energetic member of the male sex.

Some day perhaps, a Negro, a few, even a woman, may have some prospect of being the party (presidential) nominee."

While researchers, psychologists and educators comb textbooks for further evidence of sex-role stereotyping, federal and state governments have taken some steps to eliminate the school book sexism. Two bills which may have some effect have already been passed by Congress and another is pending.

One of these bills, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, says that no person on the basis of sex shall "be subjected to discrimination under any educational program" receiving federal funds. Whether or not this covers the subject of textbooks has been a matter of debate.

The New York Times noted that Title IX failed "to cover discriminatory curriculum materials, such as textbooks that contain sex bias." The Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) added that any attempt to ban the use of such materials "would raise grave constitutional questions under the First Amendment."

But according to Wilma Scott Heide, past president of the National Organization for Women (NOW), "selection of sexist texts by state action (via the public school boards) is a denial of individual First Amendment rights of freedom of speech by excluding, derogating, and or stereotyping women."

Dr. Anne Scott, NOW Legislative Vice President has observed that, as is, there is nothing in Title IX "that makes a school system accountable to its required statement of non-discrimination."

Another bill dealing with sexist texts, the Women's Educational Equity Act of 1973, was recently signed by President Ford. The bill authorizes $80 million per year to "encourage the development of new and improved curriculum" and to implement community-oriented educational programs on women in American history.

Senator Charles Percy has introduced another bill to Congress that would insure even more funding to "help women gain their place as equal beneficiaries of society." Percy's bill, the Women's Equal Educational Opportunity Act, is still in committee.

But while the federal government continues making over the matter, eight state governments have already outlawed sexism in education and texts. For instance, in California sexist textbooks must be phased out by 1975.

Throwing the book at sexists have begun ferreting out sexist references in their books. J.B. Lippincott, the D.C. Heath Co. and Harper and Row all have said they are carefully examining their manuscripts for offensive sex-role stereotyping.

McGraw-Hill, which has recently published an 11-page "Guidelines for Equal Treatment of the Sexes" stated: "We realize that the language of literature cannot be prescribed, but we want to encourage a greater freedom for all individuals to pursue their own interests and realize their potentials."

SAN BERNARDINO
New Rock in Old Ways

by John Woodhouse

Any one who used to hang out at the old Tangerine Bowl is in for a big surprise because the only thing your going to hear now, will be on the electric pin-ball nichettes of the new "Eros Bogart" rock and roll emporium. That's right a genuine rock and roll club for good ol' San Berdoo. A new dawn is here with no more sorry gawllering at the "Dog" or mesmerizing hoedowns at the "Jenny".

I have always been amazed at the town jinxed by one deadly snog-laden genie which instantly gobbled up anything which smacked of creativeness? No one can argue the fact there aren't enough kids to go around; thousands seep out of the area for some means of escapism. The 'counter culture' sure knows how to emulate the outrages exhorbitant prices demanded by many artists perform and hopefully make a profit when local bands hit the stage.

The outrageously exorbitant prices demanded by many superstars for a couple of hours of their precious time, has been a source of annoyance to me for a long time. Promoters like uncouth Bill Graham, could discuss million dollar profits as though they are a trifl in the bottomless well of translation. Obviously the vociferous greed of musicians has to be matched by the incredulous mania of the droogs who band over 10 bucks, at the drop of a stainless steel guitar; to sit cramped together with countless other sardines in some mammoth aircraft hanger, goggling with red, glazed eyes at some bright dot cavorting on a stage. The 'counter culture' sure knows how to emulate the outrageously exhorbitant prices demanded by many artists perform and hopefully make a profit when local bands hit the stage.

Chicano Art Show

"Twelve Contemporary Chicano Artists," a new art show, has opened in the Cal State, San Bernardino Art Gallery.

The public is invited to view the show and meet the artists who are from different parts of the state. The exhibit will be up from Nov. 4 through Nov. 27.

"The exhibit represents a way in which the Chicano artist is working with the arts," says Joe Moran, Cal State assistant professor of art and coordinator of the show.

Moran is a representative of the State Coalition of the Artists, formed six months ago to encourage participation in the arts.

"Twelve Contemporary Chicano Artists," new art show, has opened in the Cal State exhibit by Armando Cabrera.

The public is invited to view the show and meet the artists who are special for the Cal State exhibit by Armando Cabrera.

Among the objects shown are bronze shoes sprinkled with colored glass, created by Armando, and colored sculptured places by Rene Yanes.

A throw away mural was created especially for the Cal State exhibit by Armando Cabrera.
