UNION COMPLEX TURNED DOWN BY STUDENT VOTE

Students voted at last week's election to reject the proposed $300,000 Student Union Complex.

The necessary two-thirds majority of "yes" votes were not cast. Out of the 530 votes, 296 (or 55.8%) were "yes"; 234 (or 44.2%) were "no" on the proposal which would have added $3.00 per quarter to ASB fees in 1970-71.

This year's summer session has been planned to balance classes throughout morning, afternoon and evening to accommodate students who are employed. In addition it will offer 50 per cent more upper division classes and a third more graduate courses than offered the last three summers.

Registration and opening of the six-week term will take place Monday, June 22. Tuition for the session is $16 per quarter unit. Catalogs will be available in the Office of Continuing Education some time in April.

PINTS AVAILABLE

As a result of last month's campus Blood Drive, CSCSB's blood reserve now has 53 pints of blood available, free of charge, to any student, faculty or staff member and his immediate family during the coming year. Credit for the reserve supply belongs to the 53 donors who rolled up their sleeves to ensure a free supply of the expensive and life-saving commodity to their fellow associates, states Vivian McEachern, Student Health Center Nurse. Results of the drive indicate that 11 faculty, 11 staff and 31 students volunteered.
