The College's Fourth Annual Commencement will be held Saturday evening, June 13, at 8:00.

Two hundred eighty, Fall and Winter Graduates and Spring and Summer candidates, comprise the Class of 1970. Last year's graduating class numbered 187.

President John M. Pfau will make the presentation of diplomas following the commencement address by Dr. O. Meredith Wilson, a noted educator and historian and former president of two universities.

Music for the commencement will be furnished by the Antelope Valley Concert Band, assisted by five students from the CSCSB Music Department. Marlin Brown, Sr., father of Fall graduate Marlin Brown, Jr., will conduct.

Rabbi Norman F. Feldheym of Congregation Emanu El in San Bernardino will give the invocation and benediction.

Approximately 2,250 seats in the Gymnasium will be available. No seats will be reserved. Seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

The graduates and their families and friends will be honored at a reception in the Little Gym immediately following the ceremony. The College Community is invited to attend the Commencement and reception.

Fall Class Schedules will be available at the Bookstore next Wednesday, June 10, at 25¢ per copy.

The Bookstore has announced that the shipment of caps and gowns for Commencement has arrived and may be picked up by students who have placed orders. Faculty may claim their caps and gowns on Monday.

On Monday, June 22, registration will be held for the 1970 Summer Session, beginning at 8:30 a.m. in the College Gymnasium. There will be no pre-

Formal admission to the College is not necessary and previous college and high school transcripts need not be filed.

Seventy-six courses are offered, including the August post-session classes. Twelve courses will be held in the evening for the convenience of teachers who are teaching in the Summer Session.

Tuition, payable at the time of registration, is $15.00 per quarter unit.

RETURN ADDRESS The College's return address should be shown in the upper left corner of all pieces of mail, according to a recent U.S. Postal directive. The College will no longer be able to utilize the College name and address printed by the postage meter as a return address.

END OF TERM Monday, June 8, is the last day of classes and the last day to withdraw from classes. Tuesday, June 9, final examinations begin, continuing until June 11.

Saturday, June 13, is the end of the Spring Term.

Monday, June 15, at 9 a.m., grades are due from the faculty.

BOOKSTORE DISCOUNTS The current Bookstore policy of granting discounts to faculty has recently been under study by a committee of the Faculty Senate and by the Bookstore-Cafeteria Committee. Based on the report of the Senate committee and the unanimous recommendation of the Bookstore-Cafeteria committee, the Foundation Board acted to abolish the discount effective September 1, 1970.
