Abducted Toddler Christopher Gray Returned to His Mother

Deborah Wilson is ecstatic that her son Christopher "C.J." is back with her after the 13-year-old boy was ordered to return last Friday.

The story that was in the Black Voice News August 7, 1997 edition reported that the father, Christopher Gray, Sr. abducted his child and John Waterson Deputy District Attorney for the Child Abduction Unit seemed to be protecting the father. Wilson is still按照, she charged the system did not protect her rights. In an earlier interview Watson said that he had not seen Judge Roberta McPeters orders backing up Gray's claim that McPeters' gave him temporary custody but allowed them the chance. The judge had denied the temporary custody starting that the status of Gray was "shut down" for "shooting at" Wilson. Wilson found out about the denial after her attorney Desiree Clayton Watson told the Black Voice that he believed Wilson knew all along where her son was when and was charged for his abduction, (C.J. up by still dragged his feet. At 8:00 a.m. the day after C.J. was returned by the sheriff his father W.E. (7/12) returned a phone call, said Wilson, after saying he had "made a mistake." Wilson said C.J. "won't be back." Because he did not want to talk to his father Wilson said he wouldn't call. C.J. was a happy child. His face could be seen in commercials and movies since his parents decided to use his image in commercials to sell toothpaste. He was a member of the San Bernardino Fire Department for 37 years. He lived in San Bernardino for two years. He was a technical supervisor in the Fire Department for 22 years. He was a member of the San Bernardino Fire Department. He treasures his memory, his wife, Dianne J Smith, Regional G C. of St. Louis, Ga. Ronald A. of Diamond Bar, William D. of Chino, W. Las Vegas, Edward A. of San Bernardino, and Earline E. of Los Angeles. He had two daughters, Carolyn M. of Los Angeles, and Katherine D. of Bakersfield. Mrs. Smith, 13 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

One newspaper called her an "hero" because of the legacy of the Harrington’s Story Diane Carole Wilson described. She called her "a hero", "a hero" that everyone will miss. Cohn called it a sensitive act of terror that we need to become involved to change society that creates such environments. In celebration of her life, champagne was served at her funeral.

She was a woman who made it a point to make everyone around her feel important. Page Cowan lived her life not for herself, but for her family, friends, and colleagues. She was a strong leader in the Riverside community, a role model for women entrepreneurs, and a devoted wife and mother to her family. Her death this past Saturday has left much pain and memories for those who knew her best.

Mixed Race Classifications: Are We Forgetting our History?

Mixed race classifications are not just a matter of identity, but a reflection of the social, economic, and political landscape of the United States. The recent demands for a separate category for mixed race reflect the complex interplay between race and identity in our society. However, as Barbara R. Fields points out, the conversation around mixed race is often marred by a lack of nuance.

Fields argues that the classification of mixed race is not about race at all. Instead, it is about the ways in which society assigns value to certain types of identity. She notes that the mixed race classification is often used to justify discrimination and to maintain the status quo.

Fields also highlights the importance of recognizing the fluidity of race and identity. She notes that mixed race individuals often experience a sense of dislocation and unease, as they are not fully accepted by either of the races they identify with.

Despite the challenges, Fields argues that we cannot afford to ignore the experiences of mixed race individuals. She notes that their voices are important in shaping our understanding of race and identity, and that we must work to ensure that their experiences are heard and valued.

In conclusion, the classification of mixed race is a complex issue that requires careful consideration. While it is important to recognize the challenges faced by mixed race individuals, we must also work to ensure that their voices are heard and valued.只有通过这样的努力，我们才能真正理解并尊重各个种族背景的多样性。

Community Hospital to Offer Gang Intervention Training

Community Hospital of San Bernardino will offer a Gang Intervention Training course beginning Wednesday August 27 from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the Community Education Center, 1859 N. Western Avenue.

The Gang Intervention Training course is an eight-week curriculum that teaches participants how to recognize at-risk youth and provide intervention to youth and families in need. Topics to be covered include how gangs originated, graffiti interpretation, gang structure and gang intervention techniques. An after 20 covers the eight-week course. Scholarships available. For more information or to register call (909) 887-6333, ext. 3395.

The Thinker's Scale

The single most powerful thinking tool I have ever discovered is two straight lines separated by a zero. The most common modification is a right positive and left negative scale. The line to the right of the zero has a +1 next to the zero and a -100 at the far end. The line to the left has a -1 next to the zero and a +100 at the far end. On both scales, 1 to 24 is positive and left negative scale. Separated by a zero. The most thinking tool I have ever discovered is two straight lines that, in one case, the more unusual or novel patterns and images we come up with the more we sharpen our creativity.

In summary, a zero separates the extremes (IQ from 85 to 140). Represents the number of dollars on health care that could have been prevented. We are finally coming to terms with what we knew many years ago about cigarette smoking. It is all too easy to cave in to the slick ads and become dependent or addicted. We later blame some­body else for our addiction. We may direct your letters to Dr. Levister welcomes read­ers and others, with the column as space permits. Diversity Job Fair Benefits People in Need "Finding new or better jobs for people is only one of the many benefits of the Inland Empire Diversity Job Fair," said Barbara Bell, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). "I am involved in a variety of projects making this a really interesting position," says Timothy F. Keys, the newly hired Environmental/Health Administrator for the California Portland Cement Colton Plant. "I am getting my feet wet in a lot of different areas," Keys said.

Keys position is new to the plant. He assists Gary Thobinmy, environmental/plant services manager. Keys duties include occupational health and safety for plant employees; and environmental issues such as air and water quality, and hazardous materials. Keys says, "I am getting my feet wet in a lot of different areas," Keys said.

Keys, age 23, received his Bachelor of Science in Environmental Health, with a minor in Biology, from California State University - San Bernardino in December 1997. Keys, who is not married, is originally from Visalia, but chose to remain in the Inland Empire following graduation.

"The opportunity to work in my degree field for a company as well respected as California Portland Cement is very exciting," says Keys, a resident of San Bernardino. "I also like the closeness of this area to many Southern California activities. Where else can you drive less than an hour and be at the beach, in the desert, or the mountains," he said.

For now, the new employee spends most days learning the numerous regulations he will be dealing with. "Whenever possible, I get out into the plant," Keys says. "When I do, I always learn something, or meet someone. It's a big place, with a lot going on, and I'm anxious to be a part of it."

California Portland cement Company has been in the County of San Bernardino since 1891 and has maintained a strong relationship with the City of Colton for the last 106 years. The company produces Portland Cement, the major ingredient in concrete used for highway, bridge, residential and commercial building construction. The Plant has 120 employees and uses more than 800 local vendors.

Even if you haven't saved a lot for a home, you've probably saved enough.

It's not easy saving up to buy a home these days. But with the FHA, it isn't as hard as you'd think. Because with an FHA loan, you could get into a home of your own with a down payment as little as a few months rent. And you don't need a perfect credit record or a high-paying job.

defeated on the gospel album release "Pressin' On." Also included in the program was the "Laying on of Hands" ceremony performed by Pastor D. Peeler and prayer of dedications was given by Pastor D. Peeler at 16th Street. Other participants included Pastor Gerald Percival, Pastor Kwame Alexander, Pastor Kenneth Wells, Professor Prominent, Business Partner Reggie Moore and several others. Barron Peeler began singing and playing instruments for various church and community activities in the tender age of 8. At 15, he was singing regularly at weddings and other formal events. Since then, Barron has taken his talent to new heights.

Barron’s unique voice carries smooth, sweet melodies which will soothe the soul, and inspire the heart. Always leaving his audiences wanting more, yet fitting him in overtime.

Throughout his music ministry career, Barron has been a member of many choirs in the northern and southern California areas. He has assisted in arranging music for a variety of gospel groups, presenting arrangements and conducting choirs at various church services. He has also appeared on several gospel projects, giving him a more wide exposure to audiences wanting more, but yet being filled to overflowing...

SHEPHERD’S GOSPEL TIME

SUNDAYS 12:30 - 1:30 P.M.
Have you been stuck and can't seem to get going in birthing your dream, vision and idea?

Every day men and women are winning, they are winning spiritually, socially and financially, at the same time there are others who are saying, I want to win, too.

But how? What’s holding me back?
Help me to win, everyone is crying out for answers.

At the “Vertical Leap” seminar, ministers of the Gospel, master motivators and nationally known teachers, Al & Hattie Hollingsworth want to share with you the biblical principles that have lifted them from the grips of bankruptcy to multi-million dollar success in manufacturing. Al & Hattie erupt in people a passion to go after their dreams, visions and ideas by teaching them principles that literally change their lives. They will teach you the "HOW TO'S" of birthing your faith, hope and vision from an inside thought to an outside material reality.

"In the last days the mountain of the Lord’s temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills and all nations will stream to it.” Isaiah 2:2

People are saying:
No amount of money, not even a college degree, is as valuable as the nuts and bolts of the Vertical Leap seminar. Pastor Donald Gridiron, Faith Center Ministries.

This seminar has empowered our marriage and taught us to speak words to create our destiny, it has taught us the power of agreement and unity. Eric & Sonya Savoy.

This seminar has helped our vision of pastor/entrepreneur come true - transforming our dreams to successful realities. Pastors Charles & Gwen Patrick, Sunago Grace Covenant Church.

For six days, five nights you can have your vision come alive at the beautiful four star Alhatti Resort (a former site of the TV/Movie Series, "Bonanza") in the mountains above Palm Springs, California.

In between training sessions, enjoy tennis, chip n’ putt golf, basketball, volleyball, hiking, fishing or simply relax and pamper yourself with a spa and massage at this four star facility.

The Alhatti Resort is available 7 days a week to both individuals and groups. Call now for your reservation.

Ten weeks ago, I had the opportunity to interview and eventually hire these two individuals to take on the role of a Black Voice Intern. Somewhat hesitant of the entire process of interviews, mainly due to the fact that I know the vision of what I wanted to accomplish, the obstacle was seeing this vision in fruition. Nevertheless, I decided to take on the challenge.
After speaking and planning with Dr.
Pauline Brown-Hinds, Black Voice Foundation, Inc., Executive Director, this vision became a little clearer, and I was shaking to go.

Going on a recommendation,
Roberto Hernandez was my first interviewee and evidently, my first shock. Shock is not the word to describe the reaction I had after meeting with this young gentleman, given his resume, and viewing his portfolio.

Another big surprise came when Jennifer Stampley walked into the office. Here was a 16-year-old young Black sister with her act totally and completely put together, knowing exactly what she wanted and what she has to do to achieve her goals.

Both interns had the opportunity to speak with and interview such notable entertainers as Andialis Lewis of BET's Teen Summit, singer Morris Day and the Time, as well as a host of community leaders, activists, and citizens of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties.

"I came into this internship believing that all are held as long as anyone is held back," stated Hernandez, taking from the credo of the Black press. "I came away from this internship
a better journalist and stronger advocate of social justice. If all politics is local, all news is local
as well and important to everyone."

The Black Voice Internship is a 10-week program with the intent towards the education of interested persons in the field of communications (specifically journalism).

Under the Black Voice Foundation, Inc., interns worked with the Black Voice news staff
in providing story ideas, as well
as gathering necessary
information for news purposes.
