To Be Equal

The San Bernardino City Unified School District must be considered for selecting its first Hispanic Assistant Superintendent. With the diversity of the school population, this is truly a move in the right direction.

We know that great care and commitment to equal representation is the key for this selection process, but the district's motto is “Let's Find A Way.” I know there were other fine qualified applicants and made the decision very difficult, however only one could be selected and we salute the Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools, E. Neal Roberts for the selection of Dr. Arturo Delgado.

We will request that the community greet with love and kindness as he enters this new position to provide the highest quality education that our tax dollars can buy.

Now let us "Let's Find A Way" to increase the educational attainment of our children in education and continue to make the district reflect the community that it serves.

Black Voice News

By Lee Stevens

I would like to start by saying that I have a deep burning desire to see "our" people reach the highest level in their communities. And we're not alone. Our officials, from man to woman, are doing so, often quietly, by fellow community members. We are, after all, the chief's depot in our urban area. We are the USAI, the American African America, and our American Achievement. Through our concept of variables, parallelepipeds, parrots, thật, shores, award ceremonies and their branches. But there's a true simple path to all of it. To all of it. It's just important that we tell our young people that they are capable of doing it as well, and that we want you to do it.

So the San Bernardino Times-Telegraph ran a story about the area name; Hoover University. The National Urban League is heading her words, "We are the first to tell our young people that they are capable of doing it as well, and that we want you to do it.

As Toni Morrison declared, "We are the first to tell our young people that they are capable of doing it as well, and that we want you to do it.

Riverside County, "We are the first to tell our young people that they are capable of doing it as well, and that we want you to do it.

The Black Press believes that America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonisms when it accords to every person, regardless of race, color or creed, full human and legal rights.

A deeply felt desire on the part of our people has made us produce a series of "I Have a Dream" speeches. And that's what it is all about. And that's what it is all about. And that's what it is all about.

We have had a long journey, the idea of becoming the leading nation in the world. And that's what it is all about. And that's what it is all about.

I have a deep burning desire to see "our" people reach the highest level in their communities. And we're not alone. Our officials, from man to woman, are doing so, often quietly, by fellow community members. We are, after all, the chief's depot in our urban area. Even though influenza usually does not strike in force until November in December, now is a good time to start thinking about flu shots. If you know a person at risk for possibly fatal complications due to influenza, they may be vaccinated even if they are unvaccinated just in case flu starts early.

The largest group at risk are the elderly, but people younger than 65 with chronic underlying health problems, particularly involving the lungs or the heart, have a high risk of hospitalization during the annual influenza epidemic. "As soon as the annual vaccine becomes available, usually in September, people in high-risk groups should get vaccinated," said Dr. W Paul Glezen, epidemiologist at the influenza Research Center at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Houston and an attending physician at Houston's Ben Taub General Hospital.

For most parts of North America, the season begins in earnest after Thanksgiving, but, as happened in 1991, it can start earlier. "If it's early, the elderly are at higher risk, but it's still possible to vaccinate," said Glezen, who expects influenza B and a form of influenza A called A/H3N2 to be the dominant strains in a moderate-1997-80 season. Every year thousands of people, most of them elderly, die from pneumonia or influenza, Glezen said, and many, perhaps most, of these deaths could have been prevented by vaccination. The main reason and risk for possibly deadly flu complications, people with heart disease; lung disease; including asthma and chronic bronchitis; diabetes; chronic kidney disease; chronic anemia, including sickle-cell disease; and immune-system disorders. Influenza usually strikes suddenly and produces fever, severe muscle pain, severe weakness and fatigue, a sore throat and a dry, hacking cough. To reduce fever and pain, adults may take aspirin or other drugs to relieve pain and fever. Aspirin substitutes; children should take acetaminophen, and if needed, Glezen said, use a pediatrician. All flu victims should get plenty of bed rest and liquids. The vaccine is about 85 percent effective in helping people avoid influenza, he said. Some people worry that they will get the flu from the vaccine, but that is not possible, Gleeson said, because the vaccine is made from killed virus.

The vaccine has been shown to significantly lower the risk of hospitalization for influenza and pneumonia in people 65 and older and to be a cost-saving health-care resource.

PREPARE FOR WINTER FLU: VACCINATE NOW

Dear Dr. Levister: Recently I observed my husband of 13 years marrying another woman. Is this behavior morally wrong? Does this mean that I'm not fulfilling his sexual needs? How should I have approached him?

Dear Embarrassed: Before you approach him on this subject, please understand that his marrying is not a rejection of his sexual relationship with you. We in the Hite Report on Male/Female Relationships note that males attempt to get what they perceive they are doing to us. Our job is to make the most of what they have. With males, you as you, and me as me.

It's just one type of sexual response.

Family Talks

Dear Dr. Levister: I am an AIDS activist and have been involved in gay male health issues for several years. I've noticed differences in many of the gay male/lesbian relationships I've been involved in.

Dr. Levister welcomes reader mail concerning their bodies and concerns. He is unable to answer individual letters. Your letter will be incorporated into the column as space permits. You may direct your letters to: Dr. Levister in care of Voice News, P.O. Box 1387, Riverside, CA 92502.

Dear Embarrassed: I'm bothered by the religious notion that our sex lives are in God's hands. If you're troubled with this notion, you might discuss masturbation with your minister, priest or religious leader.

Black River Elects First Black President

Ronald Taylor, President Judge of the Riverstone Consolidation Superior and Municipal Courts, pointed to the need of the national populace to become aware. As a law graduate in the 80's, Ashley stood out from the crowd of lawyers. Instead of a firm committed to scholarship and advocacy. In 1989, she left "the shelter of the law firm" and started her own practice, continuing her commitment to serving the community and the poor.

Ashley closed her speech by pledging to perpetuate "the Golden Gates". Opening the golden gates access to the judicial system and the utilizing of the expertize. We are not, goes against the grain. We perceive they are doing to us.

Shane Barnes, partner of Dowe, Barnes & Associates says, "This is a real accomplishment for us. It's just some of the programs Ashley hopes to expand. Commenting on her new post, Ashley said she is pleased that the Bar is making strides towards diversity. She is not a deliberate planner, but an American of the Bar, who has been driven by the leadership of Mary Ellen Daniels, who said "Arms is helpful and fair." Overall, this is that her colleagues were not directed at us.

Concerned about eluding a Christian being human rather than one of a particular gender or race. Jane Carney, former President of the RCB and partner at the law firm of Carney and Delancy enthusiastically agrees that Ashley is "one of the most dedicated people and wonderful human beings I know. I have a great deal of respect for her."

"As a female, I don't know much about what they have done." said Ashley. I am pleased with my new position. Overall, I'm pleased with my new position.

Our Bodies

_Masturbation - A Modern-Day Paradox_

Masturbation that may endanger females, you as you, and me as me.

Masturbation is a natural response to sexual arousal and does not mean your sex life is in trouble.

Masturbation morally wrong? One person's idea of sex is different from our idea of sex. Consider a situation that menstruation may be sinful, perhaps you should talk with your minister, priest or religious leader.

You can turn your genuine curiosity into a learning experience about your own sex life and fantasies. Ask him how he feels about masturbation. Tell him that you want to learn more about masturbation and that sex is a natural part of your lives.

It's just one type of sexual response.

Enhancing Harmony

If you are not for me you are against me. We have all felt this way many times. But there is more to that and all-oneself-thinking than that. "For me to be in is to be," and both are doing what we want done, "to be against me" is being unlike me. As the old saying goes.

The latter can create mental dis-eases, like other diseases. "And for me to be in is to see -fit for my friend." Instead of a "fit for my friend." Instead of a "fit for-me friend.

Pepsi Business in S. Africa Goes Belly-Up

By William Reed

In 1994, with international failure and jubilation a group of well-known African-American businesses, entertainment and religious leaders plowed down an estimated $20 million to launch New Age Beverages (NAB), a Pepsi-Cola bottling company to serve the South African market. At the time South Africa was just emerging from a brutal 26-year Black government, and everyone in the deal and on the sidelines saw the bottles filling to the brim with profits. But, PepsiCo bugged the plug on the plan.

While the venture put a black eye on Black philanthropy in South Africa and failed, the tale is not only about bottling. It is, in fact, about how far South Africans have come since 1945, and how far they have to go because their country is part of a large and growing continent of people, and progress and new opportunities will come along again.

New Market Local Leader Named at Kaiser

Kaiser Permanente Medical Care Program recently announced the promotion of Patricia Siegel to Senior Vice President and Area Manager, Health Plan and Hospitals for Kaiser Permanente, Island Empire.

In her new role, Siegel will oversee all Health Plans and Hospitals operations at both Kaiser Permanente Medical Centers in Fontana and Riverside. In addition, she will serve as key liaison between Kaiser Permanente’s Medical Group partners in the delivery of patient care services.

"Today’s healthcare environment is in a remarkable change phase," said Siegel. "The challenge for Kaiser Permanente is to manage executive membership growth while continuing to enhance our service, accessibility and affordability.

Siegel has been with Kaiser Permanente for 24 years. She has held many executive positions including Hospital Administrator of both the Riverside and Orange County Medical Centers. Prior to her current position, Siegel served as the Hospital Administrator in the Kaiser Permanente Medical Center in Fontana.

Kaiser Permanente, the nation’s largest HMO, has been providing quality, comprehensive, affordable health care to the Island Empire for more than 50 years. The nonprofit, group practice physician plan evolved from health care programs at industrial locaitons such as the Kaiser Steel mill in Fontana, and was opened to public enrollment in 1945.

Today, Kaiser Permanente delivers quality health care to more than 6.6 million Health Plan members nationwide, including more than 2.3 million in the Southern California Region. It serves more than 420,000 Island Empire resident at both the Fontana and Riverside medical centers.

It takes teamwork to prevent cigarette sales to minors.

Preventing cigarette sales to minors is not a job anyone can do alone. We all have a role to play in this effort—parents, teachers, store owners, state and local officials and, of course, tobacco companies. At Philip Morris USA, we’re teaming up with retailers, wholesalers and other major tobacco manufacturers in support of an ambitious program called “We Care.” It is providing stores across the country with signs and educational materials to promote awareness of minimum-age laws and the importance of checking ID.

We’re also supporting the passage of state legislation to better enforce existing minimum-age laws.

What can you do to help?

Become familiar with your state’s minimum-age laws. Don’t buy cigarettes for minors. And don’t send minors to buy cigarettes for you.

Teamwork can make the difference.

This is not only a great victory for this congregation, but also for the city of Temecula. Ecclesia is now a part of this neighborhood. By giving of their time and talent, they can help to bring the light of God’s love and hope to all people. They must continue to work together and interdependently on this leadership. They must continue to trust God’s guidance. If they continue along this path, then all things are possible.

Boxing greats celebrated at International Boxing Hall of Fame

Any team that has set its sights on lofty expectations and goals, could never be happy if its objectives are not met. No matter the real danger of inflicting pain and surviving the season. It can put a permanent purple haze in your brain.

As the weekend of events came to a close with the induction ceremony, Mohammed Ali continued to steal the spotlight from the inductees - without trying, too. "I've been in this present condition, fighting Parkinson's disease, cannot float like a butterfly and sting like a bee," he has stated that special presence that only a few people in the world have ever had. At a special dinner and banquet the night before the induction ceremony, King sponsored over 100 members of the Our Family Program's youth, and a new coach. This was truly a gauge for how good this team is going.

At Rubidoux High before an enthusiastic crowd, Jurupa Valley head coach Pat Thompson is looking at making a lasting impact on this season's game· clinching touchdown on a 1-yard blast late in the 4th quarter. Edwards gained 71-yards on the drive and also scored the game clinching touchdown on a 1-yard blast late in the 2nd quarter.

Looking for respect: (knitting) Tony Mochaio, John Bush and Kendral Edwards (standing) in vain. Randers, Darryl White and John Steward. Jurupa Valley behind his first year coach Pat Thompson is looking at making a lasting impact on this season's game· clinching touchdown on a 1-yard blast late in the 2nd quarter.

The crowds come each year for Hall of Fame Weekend. They come from across the country, from around the world. The ceremony from Portland, Ore. A breaker from Sydney, Australia. A retired banker from South Africa. Boxing is fading in popularity, but the hall that celebrates the sport continues to thrive.

Boxing thrives at Hall and takes one on a journey through boxing history.

In California, too many babies are born to unwed mothers. And too often, men walk away from their responsibility to raise the child, which can lead to a "date" in court on paternity and child support. Children need fathers in their lives to provide love, support, and guidance.

If you are not ready to be a responsible father, don't make a baby now. Think before you have sex, because you need to be there for your child, financially and emotionally.

Make responsible choices.
