SITE PREPARATION FOR NEW LIBRARY TO START

Area surrounding the new Library-Classroom Building will be prepared for planting and landscaping in a $69,800 project awarded to Roy C. Barnett of Riverside.

The work will include installation of walkways to connect the structure to existing facilities, lighting, and construction of an access road from the perimeter road to the Library receiving dock.

Work will begin today and is expected to be completed by the end of December, coinciding with the opening of at least part of the building. Landscaping is scheduled for another contract, to be awarded later.

ADOLESCENT CRISES SUBJECT OF ALL-DAY CONFERENCE OCT. 24

Teen-age suicide, running away, psychosis and drug crises, and the techniques for prevention will be the topic of an all-day conference to be held on campus Saturday, October 24.

Two experts on crisis prevention, Dr. Michael Peck and Dr. Paul Pretzel, co-directors of the Los Angeles Suicide Center, will lead the conference which is aimed at preparing counselors to recognize the kinds of behavior evidenced by persons in crisis and at presenting techniques for dealing with them.

The San Bernardino County Counseling and Guidance Assn. is

"HOW TO SURVIVE AND BE HAPPY THOUGH SURROUNDED BY COLLEGE STUDENTS"
by President Landrum R. Bolling of Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana

"1. Listen. You won't learn much from young people if you do all the talking. You'll be surprised at how much sense they talk.

"2. Keep smiling. A large percentage of us of the older generation unconsciously or deliberately glare, sneer, or frown when we look at college students. Most of them are remarkably perceptive; they know when we're hostile.

"3. Don't ask them why they look the way they do. If they can't explain it to their parents, they can't explain it to you. Anyway, they don't really know.

"4. Don't tell them how hard and how joyfully you worked in your youth. Theirs is a different world; they have no conception of the world through which we lived in the Depression and in World War II and little curiosity to learn about it. Sad or wrong, but it's true.

"5. Level with them. They are amazingly open and honest, if you approach them in a spirit of openness and honesty.

"6. Don't try to be one of them. Among the most pathetic creatures over 30 are those synthetic adolescents who try to dress, talk, act and look like college students.

"7. Share with them your own highest hopes and finest purposes. It will surprise and delight them to discover that plenty of old people are idealists too. They have been fed too much nonsense about the lack of social purpose among their elders.

"8. Believe in them. They'll sense it when you do. And, as in all generations, they will respond, eventually, to that belief."

STUDENT ARTICLES Undergraduate and graduate student articles are SOLICITED FOR "NEW solicited for The New Scholar: A Journal of SCHOLAR" JOURNAL Graduate Studies in the Social Sciences, according to James Nutsch, editorial consultant and local campus representative.

Academic articles should be screened by a local faculty member in the appropriate discipline before being sent to Dr. Nutsch. The term "Social Sciences" is loosely interpreted to include many disciplines usually considered in the Humanities.

Articles from state college professors in co-authorship with students may be submitted. Further details may be obtained from Dr. Nutsch.
