Once again the national media in its effort to "get President Bill Clinton," jumped the gun. Daily papers, TV and radio newscasts went into an over the nation headlined "President is a liar." The latest attack comes from a so-called insider Kathleen Willey.

Every show told concooked the President based on her word. She is a Democrat with no ax to grind. She is believable. They do this by telling Bill B. Bill "Clinton," 60 Minutes that she was desperate. Her husband was in financial trouble and ultimately she is responsible for those debts.

Now it is revealed from Associated Press that Willey had been seeking a $300,000 book deal for her autobiography before she went on 60 Minutes to make the charge that President Clinton made unwelcomed sexual advances in the Oval Office to her. Further that Willey's husband the late Attorney Edward Willey committed suicide in 1993. On the same day the distraught Willey met with President Clinton her husband committed suicide. He was being sued for $275,000 by a client whose $275,000 judgement was spent by attorney Willey to pay his own back debts to IRS. Both the Willey's co-signed a note to pay the client back the $275,000. So Willey the person with no ax to grind goes after the President of the United States and because Sam Donaldson, and religious right leadership want him to be President they want him to fight them with innuendo, half truths and outright lies.

We're tired of the so-called credible news media cluttering up the story of the headlines. Tired of the anecdotes for the actions of the President. We're tired of reading and forcing our children to read about oral sex and where she says the President told her to put her hand there. No fact and no reason to continue this kind of coverage without some kind of proof. Right now it's her word against his.

Historians say, no civilization can have been as last to the truth. If we as a nation will have to destroy ours, the new presidents and enemies of President Clinton will help destroy it from the inside. Think about it. everyday for hundreds of days since Clinton won the Presidency, Bush Limbaugh and others disparaged Chelsea Clinton, the President had to stop that. That was an aberration in Mrs. Clinton; the President had to stop that. The savage attacks continue on him. We need to stop the madness, so we can begin to move on. So our kids don't lose respect for the democratic process.

The Emanicipation Proclamation by President Abraham Lincoln that freed the slaves was a time when a President considered it a victory for advocates of freedom for all peoples. This law was part of justice, freedom, equality, and the spirit of what United States founders intended to be abolished.

The slaves of course were once owned. They were previously a free nation, a formerly free nation, a master kid us out. Where can we from this? Who are we family? Can we get jobs? Will we be treated? You will have to the history books if you want more details, the object of this writing is to show a pattern of victory, defeat, justice, and injustice.

Emanicipation was a victory for the slaves, the Black people wereapoised from their humbling to an independent, independent Africa involuntarily. Victory for the few, the exploitation of that time that wanted to abolish slavery. Victory for the spirit of the Civil War that abolished the United States. Yet, defeat for the ex-slaves who still are not fully established for their futures. Just turn them loose and let them fend for themselves. Let's hope that the ex-slave holders will rise up from the ashes of the burning of the bunker, was the thought of the day.

was that justice that emancipation was not a victory for all the people who came about. After years of back and forth debates, threats, fights, and finally war: justice prevailed. How else could the country of slavery be answered? It was inevitable, if the President and Congress were to face and be a so-called just society, they had no choice but to free the slaves. Injustice came the other way around that those professed to be the so-called superior beings of this country by continuing to victimize the non-white people. Separation, isolation, bigotry, and racism became the law.

Emanicipation was not the end of the struggle for those who had already been subjected to all kinds of injustice. In modern times, as new laws had to be made, there was a Rights Law, remember, that was totally justified by the law, yet, it lasted for a time and then went under the carpet and forgotten. It seemed that after awhile that the "Will the real Black come out?" was because of the law, somewhere, the Black people stood up and said, enough. We're fed up, the injustice of it! Don't get me wrong, I am aware that even in the black rights law, I was still left out. We were left out after the history in society the white community. I am aware that the law, the Black people stood up and said because I believe something is wrong and this money. I am still left out and the injustice of it. I went off. For his position in society the white community was still left out. We had a chance to roll back the clock into slavery.

Proposition 209 was voted by majority of California voters to get affirmative action. It was a victory. In his semen is sp Kern county, America this. It reminded me of me in place in America - no place. I have been through it. At least we provided the law of affirmative action and once more it played a part in the picture.

We see that good intention of laws that would do justice to all peoples no matter what our color. We saw what was done. Is that right? Is it true for all? What will it take for us to realize that unity in diversity is the way we came to America? Will it take more than the country can hear?

We see that can laws that do not do justice to all races in this country to kill that is. We will be strapped with fighting crime. Yet, they have learned, justifiably, to mistrust the government institutions charged with fighting crime.

Gout, The Disease of Kings

The kidneys. As the sharp edge urate crystals precipitate out and accumulate in joint fluid they cause acute pain and may lead to chronic inflammation. The pain and recurrent attacks of gout are severe and can be precipitated by the ingestion of Roman Artichokes and Articopia containing uric acid rather than endure further attacks.

Susceptibility seems to run in families. The descendants males who are 95% of the victims are likely to get gout post mortem.

Surgery, infection, local trauma or drugs can exacerbate attacks.

Gout attacks, around 400 B.C., wrote about gout and was aware of the use of colchicum which is derived from the ancient crocus or meadow saffron. This drug was used as early as 1500 B.C. by the Egyptians.

Colchicine remains the treatment of choice if acute attacks. We don’t know how it works after 3500 years.

The disease is caused by an excess production of uric acid or by decreased excretion via the kidneys. As the sharp edge urate crystals precipitate out and accumulate in joint fluid they cause acute pain and may lead to chronic inflammation.

Besides subjecting children as young as 14 to adult jails, the bill allows children to be locked up for up to 14 days, and held in adult jails up to 24 hours.

Of all youths arrested, only one in 20 is arrested for a violent crime; the bill will treat nonviolent offenders and runaways and truants harshly by allowing them to be locked up for up to 14 days, and held in adult jails up to 24 hours to reduce crime," says CDF Assistant General Counsel Kim Wade.

There’s clear evidence that S.10 poses a serious danger to our young people. Children jailed with adults are eight times more likely to commit suicide, five times more likely to be sexually assaulted, and twice as likely to be assaulted by prison staff.

This bill will make an already unfair system even tougher on Black children. Even though both Black and White youths are more likely than White youths to be arrested, tried as adults, convicted, and imprisoned. This bill does nothing to address the higher rate of minority youth confinement.

The drugs have their side effects. Obsessive individuals can reduce their risk by controlling their weight loss. On appropriate medication, a stringent diet, is freedom from drugs.

The promise)."

Obese individuals can prevent crime. The city of Boston has lost neighborhoods unsafe and too many young residents. Even when race records are similar, Black youths are more likely than White youths to be arrested, tried as adults, convicted, and imprisoned. This bill does nothing to address the higher rate of minority youth confinement.

There’s no evidence that S.10 also breaks the dead link between children and guns, although the availability of cheap guns is one of the root causes of the problem. In 1995, 83 percent of murdered children over age 12 were killed with a gun. S.10 would not spend a penny on programs that prevent crime. The city of Boston has lost neighborhoods unsafe and too many young residents. Even when race records are similar, Black youths are more likely than White youths to be arrested, tried as adults, convicted, and imprisoned. This bill does nothing to address the higher rate of minority youth confinement.

Down to Business: Ron Clay: An Innovator for the New Millennium

The special honoree for the evening was Roy Clay, chairman of Rod-L Electronics, which makes the only Underwriters Laboratories certified high pot test equipment for consumer electronics. As head of computer R&D for Hewlett-Packard in the early 1960s and as a consultant to major venture capital, Clay helped "green light" some of Silicon Valley's largest companies. Ironically, a major aircraft company in St. Louis told Clay, a mathematician graduate of St. Louis University, that it had "no jobs for professional Negroes" in 1951. Five years later, he was programming the company's first computer. In 1958, he undertook similar work at Lawrence Livermore Laboratories. By 1961, Clay headed Control Data's programming language development and four years later, he became the first manager of H-P's computer development, working closely with Tom Perkins. Later to found Kleiner Perkins Caufield and Byers venture capital firm, Clay's staff built the first "fault-tolerant" computer system, now a backbone of worldwide service and financial applications. After leaving H-P in 1971, and before he launched Rod-L Electronics, Clay provided technical evaluation that helped venture managers decide where to place their investments. The stories of Clay and 40 other contemporary and 19th century pioneers are displayed in St. Louis University, that remains at the museum through June 5 and will be presented on the world wide web and in book form to 4,250 schools nationally. The latter is a result of an initiative by Books 'n' Bytes to connect predominately African-American grade schools to the Internet. Proceeds from the event will help support that work, headquartered at the Center for Art and Culture U.S. Department of Transportation which has set a goal of bringing one million young people into high-wage transportation careers, most requiring technical skills, by 2000.

Gone are the days when doctors and health care professionals used to treat skin and hair issues with harsh, chemical-based products that could cause more harm than good. In the 20th century, Black soap, a traditional West African product, gained popularity due to its unique and effective properties for treating skin and hair problems. It has been widely known for its gentle yet powerful cleansing power, making it a popular choice among those looking to maintain healthy skin and hair. Today, Black soap is used in various forms, including bar soap, cream, and liquid, to provide a natural solution for skin and hair care needs.
A President of the National Baptist Laymen to speak at New Hope

By Jerry Gash

ROSELAND - On Sunday, March 26, 1998, the guest speaker for the 10:45 a.m. service will be Brother Jerry Gash, President of the National Baptist Laymen movement of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.

The event was so successful that they have been saved through the united effort of the national and world Baptist movements that are directed by Brother Gash.

Brother Jerry Gash

In 1997, he addressed large and international communities. New Hope Missionary Baptist Church welcomes Brother Gash to Black Horse Inn.

Bishop Vernon R. Byrd, Presiding Bishop of the 5th Episcopal District, will hold his annual Mid-Year Convocation, March 25-28, 1998 at the Doubletree Hotel in Ontario, CA. Grant A.M.E. The presentation is free to the public and takes place at 7 p.m. The event is cosponsored by CAAM. The California Council for the Humanities, and the LA County Arts Commission.

Mason walked across the continent behind her master’s sugars, bound by the strength of the California Constitution in a landmark bid for freedom. Practiced as a midwife, owned and mistreated downtown Los Angeles and abandoned by the wealth and most prominent L.A. citizens during the turn of the 20th century Gold Rush.

Sarah Kaminski, the actress who portrays Mason, is a noted Chautauqua performer and professor of English at California State University, San Bernardino. She is an expert on the life of Mason.

All of the energy of a flapper's 40's show plus a jazzi explosion of fashions by the world's most talented designs makes Ebony Fashion Fair's 40th Anniversary Jazz Age Fashion an event that must be experienced. For ticket information call (909) 820-7661 or see any member of the Social Lites.

 Ebony Fashion Fair that will be held on Friday, April 3, 1998 at the California Theatre of Performing Arts at 8:00 p.m.
The Ebony Fashion Fair is an exciting and entertaining experience, but since its inception in 1985 it has donated more than $44 million to charitable organizations and travels to nearly 200 cities around the world. Mrs. Eunice Johnson, a premier fashion authority, is the producer and Ebony Fashion Fair, a three-day festival of Native American dancing, music, regalia, arts and crafts and food, will take place March 27-29 at the Cabazon Band of Mission Indians Reservation near Indio, 20 miles east of Palm Springs. This will mark the 10th powwow.

More than 15,000 visitors, including Native Americans from tribes in the United States and Canada, are expected to participate in this semi-annual celebration of Indian culture. The powwow is hosted by the Cabazon Band adjacent to their Fantasy Springs Casino, located north of Interstate 10 at the Aces Center Drive and Highway 111 exit near Indio, Calif. The schedule is 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. on March 27; 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. on March 28 and 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on March 29. The Powwow Parade will kickoff at 10 a.m. March 28 from Miles Park near downtown Indio. In addition, the Contests Blood Mobile - blindmobile will be at the powwow from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. March 24.

For further information, call Cultural Programs Manager Cindy Toft at (760) 342-2901 or (800) 827-2946, ext. 3017. The Powwow was recently voted the second most popular annual event in the Coachella Valley. The powwow from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily is free to adults, $2 for children. $3 for seniors and free for children under 12.

The Powwow showcases an American Indian Powwow by bringing together American Indian and non-Indian artists specializing in jewelry, painting, sculpture, weaving, leather work and beadwork. Ancient traditional Native American foods also will be available.

The powwow is one of the most meaningful ways in which Native American traditional values and culture can be presented to contemporary peoples, Indian and non-Indian. While the ceremonies may appear to be merely an explosion of entertainment with colorful regalia, dramatic singing and dancing, the powwow is a re-enactment of certain spiritual and emotional aspects of Native American humanity.

Best selling author, inspirational speaker and nationally recognized hairstylist Vanzant, spoke to a very attentive audience at Court Street Bar & Grill on March 7, 1999. The event was hosted by Phnx Information Center, which specializes in African American books and entertainment.

Vanzant appeared personable and enthusiastic as she discussed her most recent book, In the Meantime: Finding Yourself and the Love You Want. Vanzant stated that she was especially glad to be in San Bernardino since it was the last stop on her tour and she could go home to her new husband.

The discussion was preceded by Victors in Praise, a dance and praise group from Loveland Church. Branch was available throughout the event with a champagne imported from New York served to each guest.

Vanzant told the audience, “Honorable life, honor yourself to trust yourself and honor your process (learn from what you going through). Don’t doubt your strength and don’t underestimate your potential what you draw to you is what you are, now take the time to see and/or what you need to find.”

A question and answer period followed her discussion concluding with book signing. Those who had her books signed left with a happy face, the words she wrote, the picture she drew and her signature. Vanzant’s books include: Taping the Power Within, Acts of Faith, The Value in the Valley, Faith in the Valley, and One Day My Soul Just Opened Up: 40 Days and 40 Nights Toward Spiritual Strength.

The concert will also feature accomplished jazz artist, Reba Long, contemporary pop singer, Teresa Seveda, R&B singer, William Jordan and the new sensation, Corey Ellis.

The show will also showcase the 1998 McDonald’s Gospel Fest winners: Sweet Voices of Soul Community Choir. Tickets are $7.00 per person. Parking is free with concert ticket.

Passport to College, an exciting partnership of Riverside Community College, Riverside County Office of Education, and six area school districts, received a generous pledge support recently from Ramon Alvarez, owner of Alvarez Lincoln Mercury in Riverside. At a special celebration, Alvarez announced that he will offer a discounted sale price and contribute $100 for every car leased or sold to anyone who mentions the Passport to College program. Jan Tavaglione, Chairman of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors (pictured above), served as Master of Ceremonies for the announcement event. More than 400 participating Alvernt Unified School District students were in attendance.
