CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE, SAN BERNARDINO

The BULLETIN

February 5, 1971

COMMONS GETS GO AHEAD FOR CONSTRUCTION All hurdles have been cleared and construction starts next month on the College's first Commons, according to Joseph K. Thomas, Executive Dean.

The State Department of Finance is releasing $1 million construction funds and federal bonds are being sold for the remaining $325,000. Bids for sale of the Housing and Urban Development bonds (HUD) will be opened February 17 at the Chancellor's Office.

The Commons will feed students who will be living in the residence halls, scheduled to open in 1972, in addition to the commuting students, faculty and staff.

The P and A Construction Co. of Torrance will perform the construction work. Fourteen months has been allowed for completion.

ABBREVIATIONS, CODES FOR CSCSB BUILDINGS ARE NOW STANDARDIZED Building abbreviations and codes which are hereafter to be considered standard for all documents circulated by the College, for on or off-campus use, are announced by Joseph K. Thomas, Executive Dean.

Dean Thomas suggests the building abbreviations be used for student and general public information and the building codes be used for intercampus use.

The abbreviations and codes previously used by offices within the campus will be discontinued and the following standardized information will be substituted. (In the code column, the two-letter code designates the permanent facilities and the single-letter code represents the temporary or interim facilities.)
