PROFS. GOLDEN AND LEE Two CSCSB professors have been selected RECEIVE NATIONAL AWARDS to receive National Endowment for the
FOR HUMANITIES STUDIES Humanities awards.

Bruce Golden (English) was awarded a fellowship for the academic year 1971-72. Dr. Golden plans to spend most of the year in England doing research and writing on English and Spanish tragedy in the 16th and 17th Centuries.

Robert Lee (English) was granted a summer stipend for the summer of 1971. Dr. Lee will use his grant to continue research in Black literature.

Only 120 fellowships and 120 summer stipends are awarded yearly to young humanists selected from applicants throughout the U.S.

SCHEDULE FOR PARKING VIOLATIONS REDUCED, EFFECTIVE MARCH 1

President John M. Pfau received word from the Council of Presiding Judges of the County of San Bernardino that a request to establish a special parking fine schedule for the College has been granted.

Seven campus organizations, Faculty Senate, ASB, CSEA, Staff Council, UPC, AAUP and ASB Senate, joined together in a combined effort to enlist the help of President Pfau to secure a reduction in the College fines. Parking fines were raised county-wide last January to $5 for overtime and $10 for other parking offenses.

The president was notified early this week that the following rates went into effect on March 1:

Overtime	$ 2	All other parking violations	$ 5
Failure to have parking decal	$ 2	Failure to appear in parking cases	Add $10

TWO CAL STATE CO-EDS AMONG FINALISTS FOR MISS SAN BERNARDINO

Two CSCSB co-eds were selected as finalists in the 1971 Miss San Bernardino contest. Bernice Gramlich, senior history major, and Marcia Nicholson, sophomore French major, were among 10 finalists chosen to compete March 13 for the city's beauty crown.

Winner of the contest will vie with beauties from other Southland communities for the title of National Orange Show Queen and later will be eligible to represent San Bernardino in the Miss California contest at Santa Cruz.

TRAFFIC LIGHT AND INTERSECTION PROJECT GOING OUT FOR BID

Plans for installation of a four-way signal and re-vamped intersection at State College Parkway and Kendall Dr. are expected to go out for bid some time next week, according to information received from the San Bernardino City Engineering office.

Approval by the State District Engineer and funds from the California Highway Commission have been secured for the project, which will, among other improvements, provide a left turn lane for College traffic on State College Parkway.

The City of San Bernardino and the state are cooperating in the design and financing of the project.
