Does Kaiser Redline Medical Services to Blacks?

Kaiser is under fire for its alleged policies and practices towards Black patients.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION

SUES CITY OF RIVERSIDE

The Black Voice News

The Public Employees Association of Riverside County (PEA) filed a suit against the City of Riverside charging that the City has violated its civil rights.

PEA's lawsuit claims that the City has violated the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967.

The suit alleges that the City has discriminated against its Black employees by failing to provide them with the same opportunities and benefits as their White counterparts.

The PEA is seeking damages for its members and an injunction against the City to prevent future discrimination.

discussion of the public’s concerns regarding this matter, but the Public Employers Association (PEA), which represents Kaiser's employees, has decided to come forward with allegations of mismanagement and neglect.

The PEA is concerned about the quality of care provided to Black patients and has called for a thorough investigation of the matter.

The PEA's investigation has revealed widespread concerns about the level of care being provided to Black patients, with many employees reporting instances of neglect and discrimination.

The PEA is seeking to hold Kaiser accountable for its alleged mismanagement and has called for a thorough investigation of the matter.

The PEA's report is highly critical of Kaiser's policies and practices, and it is calling for immediate action to address the issues raised.

The PEA is calling for a comprehensive review of Kaiser's policies and practices to ensure that all patients, regardless of race, are being treated fairly and equitably.
Saluting Laborers on Laborday

We want to take this time to salute people who contribute so much time to improve the quality of our living standards here in America. These are the hard working heroes who rely on those who put food on our tables, the factory workers who provide machinery and equipment that we use daily, the medical care workers and their supporting staff who care for us when we become ill, the educators who spend their time teaching and inspiring the next generation, and many others. This Labor Day celebration is an opportunity to recognize the essential role these laborers play in our society.

Discrimination

Discrimination, originally a term derived from the Latin word "discriminare," meaning to separate or distinguish, is often stigmatized by the "racist" association. However, it is important to understand that discrimination is not inherently negative and can be used in a positive manner. The idea of discrimination can be seen in various forms, such as decision-making in employment, housing, or education, where certain groups may be favored over others.

We must approach this topic with an open mind and a desire to understand the complexities of discrimination. It is crucial to acknowledge that discrimination can manifest in subtle ways and that recognizing and addressing these issues is essential for fostering an inclusive and equitable society. By engaging in open and honest discussions about discrimination, we can work towards creating a more just and respectful environment for all individuals.

Woods Dream for Winston West

The objective of The Black Voice News is to communicate information to all members of the community. The newspaper is designed to be accessible to all individuals, regardless of their background or experiences. It is important to remember that everyone has the right to an equal opportunity, and discrimination is a violation of this principle.

In conclusion, the fight against discrimination requires ongoing efforts from individuals, communities, and institutions. By working together, we can create a society where everyone is treated with respect and dignity, and where the principles of equality and justice are upheld for all.

Saving Private Ryan: A Missed Opportunity

William H. Smith, Ed.D.

Willy's that peaked Woods' interest. At the age of 14, in 1988, young Woods read his first professional game program, but he did go on to build the points necessary to be considered a serious contender. The big hit and he started working hard. In 1998, he was champion of both TCA-C and R, Jr. and Southern California Cattler's Association's Champion. He was, in fact, the most points of a series for the year after adding up all his races.

In 1998, he also won the Humphreys Beach Grand Prix. Still spring but more time spent with his second horse, Montaño College in Richmond. "I had to decide to sacrifice or to stick with the racing. I can't afford to lose points so I turned the scholarship over to my younger brother. I gave him a way to keep up his status in champion."

My goal for this year is to race West Wood and our Clifford Lambchop. I'm trying to travel more. I found the fact that the 1.2 million African American veterans served in World War II, with tens of thousands giving their lives for our country, that out of respect and their peers and succeeding generations. By creating equal opportunity for African Americans to be a part of the film industry, M. Spielberg has redefined the popular film industry. The truth is, White Americans spilled their blood, made the sacrifice, and therefore, are worthy of this country's recognition.

In what likely will be the major cultural event of the year, and perhaps the largest theatrical release of the decade, one will impact millions of Americans this year, and tens of millions of Americans the second year. The movie was seen in theaters across the country, a very racist notion is being promoted and encouraged. The movie's message is that all people are created equal, and that slavery is not an acceptable system. The film was met with mixed reviews, but overall, it received positive critical acclaim.

Wishing all our readers a Happy Labor Day. We look forward to serving you in the upcoming year with more informative and engaging content. Thank you for your support and we hope you enjoy this issue of The Black Voice News.

The Harlem Renaissance refers to a period of cultural activity centered in New York’s African American community during the 1920s and 1930s. This exhibition will feature not only the visual art and literature, and graphics from this period, but also will allow you to participate in interactive exhibits that use animation, video, and multimedia displays. You will explore the relationship between the visual arts and music, dance, literature, and fashion.

Under this program, selected non-profit and for-profit groups work with small business loan applicants one-on-one to develop viable business plans and credible loan packages. Among those measuring the success of the program is Michael Batchelor, a professor in Sociology at California State University at Fullerton. "Preliminary data definitely shows that the academic performance and the behavior of the promesse has improved," said Hughes. "There is also a regional impact in that the Corps Mentors grow from curiosity to collaboration."

Batchelor encourages others to apply for this year's program. "It was one of the best decisions I've made in my life to get involved in the community," he commented.

Riverside County residents who are interested can call Garth Mackzum at (909) 955-6461 for an application or for details on one of the upcoming training meetings on September 15, 1998 at 9 a.m. or 5:30 p.m. at the Riverside County Community Action.

SBA Pre-Qualify Loan Program for Small Business

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has recently announced the nationwide availability of a SBA Pre-Qualification loan program whereby small business owners can pre-qualify for a loan backed by the SBA before approaching a lender. "This program is already available for minority and women owned businesses in Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino counties," said SBA District Director Sandy Sutton. "We have successfully used this program to do 68 loans for a total of $8.5 million to minority business owners and 28 loans for a total of $1.2 million to women business owners."

Under this program, selected non-profit and for-profit groups work with small business loan applicants one-on-one to develop viable business plans and credible loan packages. Once SBA finds the borrower to be eligible and creditworthy, it issues a pre-qualification letter to lenders indicating that the application appears appropriate for a SBA loan guarantee. The loan applicant takes the letter, along with a completed loan package, to a commercial lender to apply for a loan of up to $350,000 backed by a SBA guaranty. SBA approval decisions reflect normal loan standards and are based on the borrower's key financial ratios, cash flow, business and credit history and repayment ability.

In the local area the following intermediaries are available to initiate the application process:

- CSC Small Business Finance Corporation in Palm Desert at (760) 380-3815.
- CSC Small Business Finance Corporation in Riverside at (909) 352-5730.
- Long Beach Area CDC in Long Beach at (562) 491-7450.
- Southern California CDC in West Covina at (909) 592-7857.
- Southern EDC in Santa Ana at (714) 884-4370.

In the usual SBA loan process, applicants apply directly to a commercial lender before seeking a SBA guaranty, and SBA never sees the application unless the SBA guarantor. and SBA never see the application unless the SBA guaranty is selected by the lender. The SBA guaranty can guarantee up to 80 percent of a loan up to $100,000 and up to 75 percent of larger loans, with a general maximum loan guarantee size of $250,000. Small business owners and entrepreneurs who want to know more about applying for a loan under the program should contact the Santa Ana District Office of the SBA at (714) 550-7420.

The New Ontario International Airport

flight years ahead! In concept. In design. In delivery. This is one airport whose arrival is quite a departure. Completed four months ahead of schedule. And more than $26 million under budget. It's a world-class gateway that's eight times bigger than the old terminal, and a million times better than anyone ever imagined. A complex where art and commerce come together in a design that's state-of-the-art for this century. And, for the next.

With 26 gates capable of handling more than 10 million passengers a year, the new Ontario International Airport is ready to take on an even larger role in handling Southern California's ever-growing passenger and air freight needs - as well as usher in a new era of growth and prosperity for the region.

So fasten your seat belt, and get ready to travel into the future, First Class.
Clifford Young Quartet Comes to San Bernardino

Earth Wind & Fire Slated for Fantasy Springs Oct. 3rd

Earth Wind & Fire is amazing, but not as amazing as their 22nd album, "The Name Of Love," released 20 years after herding into the music scene in 1978. With ingredients of jazz, dance, gospel and ethnic instruments in order to play the precise arrangements and intricate rhythms.

Earth, Wind & Fire's concerts sell-out worldwide as fans hold a special place in their hearts for the venerable group that has earned the respect of the record industry, musicians and critics.

"It's been two years since we last toured the United States and we are ready to go," said EWF member Verdine White. "Now is the time for the music to do the talking and put on the show show!"
