PERSONALS - The College extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rymer on the occasion of their marriage last Friday evening. Mrs. Rymer is the former Judith Ann Marquis, asst. prof. of Spanish. Mr. Rymer is a CSCSB graduate and an investment broker in San Bernardino.

RICHARD SWITZER Richard Switzer, Chairman of the Humanities Division, has received advance copies of "Pensée et Littérature Française: Anthologie," (French Thought and Literature, an Anthology) published by McGraw-Hill, which he compiled and edited.

This French text, basically designed as an introduction to French literature for college students, covers material drawn from the Middle Ages to the end of the 18th Century. As general editor Dr. Switzer collaborated with seven other contributors.

The 700-page text is the forerunner of a second volume on French literature already planned by Dr. Switzer which will cover the 19th and 20th centuries.

Works by Villon, Rabelais, Ronsard, Descartes, Molière, Saint-Simon, Montesquieu, Voltaire and other French writers cover topics ranging from poetry, drama, political theory, to philosophy.

Dr. Switzer has written or collaborated on some 13 books.

APRIL 19 DEADLINE The last day to file application for June graduation is April 19. This applies to Spring and Summer candidates. Seniors who wish to participate in the June 12 Commencement exercises must file on or before the deadline.

LIBRARY USERS CSCSB personnel borrowing material from the NEED I.D. CARDS Library are now being asked to show I.D. cards. "This is not a new rule," states Mary Jo Meade, of the Library Public Services staff, "merely the resurgence of an old rule." Enlargement of faculty, student body and Library staff since the campus opened in 1965 and the approaching move to new quarters has made reinstating the I.D. card rule necessary. Persons wishing to check out library material should be prepared to show identification cards at the Circulation Desk.
