EVALUATION GIVEN ON      Clifford Paynton (sociology) and Harvey Wichman P.L.E.A.S.E. PROJECT      (psychology) have been engaged in a research and community service project, P.L.E.A.S.E., and have recently completed a report on the first year's activity. The $84,856 project (Parolees and Law Enforcement Assist Students Education) is funded by the California Council of Criminal Justice.

The work of evaluating the project's effectiveness and serving as members of the advisory board is being done by Drs. Paynton and Wichman and Michael Lippitt, a former sociology major at CSCSB.
Activities are being coordinated with San Bernardino Police and other law enforcement agencies and the local school district. A report based on the evaluation of questionnaires submitted to 500 junior and senior high school students in San Bernardino revealed some surprises, according to Dr. Paynton. "Kids of their own age were least trusted by a large percentage to give honest and accurate information about drugs. Parents rated higher on this point," stated Dr. Paynton.
