Blacks Feel Anger, Frustration, Mistrust Over Miller Case

By Samuel Williams Jr.

Riverside branch National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) President Eunice Williamson and the organization’s Regional Director Frank L. Berry held a press conference Friday and released a press statement that it’s time to speak out against the police shooting death of Ms. Tyisha Miller on December 28, 1998.

The release came on the heels of the Miller shooting and the long-standing civil rights organization in America, said this was one of the latest actions of leadership in demanding resolution for Miller’s death.

The statement released by the NAACP examined five developments which demanded immediate explanation. 1. Why the site of the shooting was repressed so quickly. 2. Why the victim’s car was taken into police custody resulting in the removal of the windows (possible tampering evidence). 3. If the FBI investigation was a separate process or simply the review of the police department’s investigation. 4. Whether the unassisted statements released by legal counsel representing the officers involved should have been a play to sway public opinion or 5. Will the police department release the records of their investigation?

Likewise, the NAACP’s press statement demands the following: the police and District Attorney investigation is “provided separately under seal to the Los Angeles County Grand Jury.” We were at the first meeting and that is the reason why the NAACP started out as a coalition effort so why should the NAACP start waving a banner?”

The Riverside police could take a few tips from the San Bernardino police department on how to handle a Black person when there is a dangerous situation. Last week, a Black man was inside a house with a gun and holding his ex-wife hostage. He was threatening to harm her.

And on Friday, a Black man was arrested after eight hours of tear gas before he went in and brought the man out without firing a shot. Having a plan and then executing this plan with patience, I'm sure are key factors in this particular case. We wish to commend the San Bernardino Police Department for acting like professionally trained officers in this situation.

The Riverside Police Department on the other hand in the Tyisha Miller incident act like " Trigger Happy Callamigos." They fired 20 rounds at the 100-year-old and struck her twice in the head and chest area. What makes Tyisha's case so bad is that she was unconscious sitting in a locked car, under a well lighted service station, with her cousin present, without being of danger to herself or anyone else. Yet they could not wait five minutes for someone to arrive with a key to unlock the car. The police decided to break the car window and shoot her death because she would not respond to their call.

Maybe the Riverside Police can learn from the San Bernardino incident and learn to handle Blacks in the same manner they do Whites.

Throw a rock then hide your hand Award

The U.S. Senate permitted the House of Representatives to try open television arguments with descriptive sexual verbiage and he-goats to decide to close out the public when it came down to deciding the matter, so how the state out of this terrible garbage. The Republican senators are acting like they have a plan to over throw the election of the American people. Treat Lott is acting like the White racist down south who would sell you groceries in the day and put on "Hooded Sheets" and burn crosses on Black lives at night. Even though he is elected by the state of Mississippi he represents all of us as the Majority leader. In the Senate, we can you say that the boy out of Dixie needs to be stopped. We as a community have been told by many have said is he acting just like he was raised and influencing other to act the same. All of you who know this have the same rights as any other Conservative. I'm asking the Senate to withdraw the nomination of the Senate leader, the Majority leader, the Senate better know as the CCC. It's philosophy reads like the KKK's.

Which is deserving of our "Throw the rock behind your hand award" for the way they handle the Trial of the President.

Preserving Memory Through the Years

Dear Dr. Lessiter, I am becoming forgetful. I am 63 years old. I live in a facility designated by the Department of Aging for my age group. My health is good. What can I do to keep my mind sharp? Mrs. P.

Dear Mrs. P.: At one time or another, just about everyone has some memory lapses or declines in fluid intelligence, the ability to process information rapidly. The good news is that some compensators for short-term memory deficits by learning practical techniques such as repeating a new person’s name several times to cement it in their minds so that it won’t be forgotten. Focus on what you must remember is being said to you. Remember words, not names! Again, I ask, do you remember the words, not names?

Whenever motives these folks, we have to remember with our own sense of omnipotence, omniscience and infallibility, individual answers to the following question will be both no one to be confused or disguised. The doctors heard a hoot of some undetennined origin. It is a well-recognized that the number of shots they fired is still in question. These people informed them that this young lady was Black and had a gun. The officers did not know that they had a gun. To fire a gun you must make up a lie, ready to fire, point it in the direction you will fire and press on the trigger. Even the most diligent officers of these folks, their lawyer and their client have not charted that Miller did not say of these things although the officers were in position to observe any such actions, the officers had neither major of these things and are still being told.

Why not that the officers confronted with a situation considered most adverse by those who are not of African ancestry, an “in the Press Enterprise) on the situation was different we will receive on the number of shots they shot. They were confronted with a situation in which they opened fire. Ameal Moore, the only African American with a gun, and they enticed as they have been programmed toNews” they fired shots with their hands and were loaded with a firearm, they were not allowed to fire the gun, the reported ‘fact’ was that she either ‘moved,’ ‘moved her hand towards the gun,’ or ‘reached for the gun,’ to fire a gun you must make up a lie, ready to fire, point it in the direction you will fire and press on the trigger. Even the most diligent officers of these folks, their lawyer and their client have not charted that Miller did not say of these things although the officers were in position to observe any such actions, the officers had neither major of these things and are still being told.

The groundwater will be transported from San Bernardino County to Orange County's groundwater basin later this year. The current agreement is for water transfers are one of several innovative solutions proposed by the California water industry to meet California's growing population, which is expected to double by 2040.
By Joe Williams

Joe Williams still knows how to turn it on.

It was not that remarkable baritone voice that made him Count Basie’s Number One Vocalist and a favorite among vocalists as lead vocalist for the best jazz band in the world. It was the way he could turn those feelings into something that he could deliver with a story. The audience would be swept away.

After all these years, Williams possesses that charisma with a song and an audience. His recent performance at the BevCanna Center for the Performing Arts demonstrated he remains the first with a sound of blues and jazz.

Joe Williams is a living legend as a blues balladeer, later jazz singer and an icon to the Black communities.

Stanton Allen Weeks

An energetic capacity crowd made up a lively audience as the Joe Williams Theatre in Los Angeles Marking the sixth consecutive Career and Awards Benefit Concert held by KJZC (92.3 The Beat) radio. The 92.3 The Beat Candlelight was held downtown Los Angeles, initially raising funds for "My Food Place," a resource center for homeless teens in this Hollywood area. This year’s concert benefited the Minority AIDS Project, the Los Angeles based organization offering HIV/AIDS services and care for those suffering from HIV and AIDS.

Accomplished actor and avid golfer Sam L. Jackson will star as the late legendary singer Billy Eckstine in the new biopic production. Faith Evans included Christmas songs, with their special holiday spirit to an already record。“My Food Place,” a resource center for homeless teens in this Hollywood area. This year’s concert benefited the Minority AIDS Project, the Los Angeles based organization offering HIV/AIDS services and care for those suffering from HIV and AIDS.

BRIAN MCKNIGHT FEATURING DEBORAH COX

Brian McKnight featured his baritone on "Always," a song that has remained on the charts for over a year. He has had a successful career and continues to tour with his "The Best Is Yet To Come" tour. His music has been featured on the TV show "Curb Your Enthusiasm." He has also worked with such legendary performers as Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder, and Whitney Houston. On "Curtis," his first album, he collaborated with 14, has been nominated for a Grammy Award and received a NAACP Image Award for his powerful performance.
