Office of the Chancellor
NEWS RELEASE

The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges took the following actions at its meeting Wednesday, July 14, 1971:

- selected E. Guy Warren (Hayward) for a second term as Chairman and George D. Hart (San Francisco) as Vice Chairman of the Board for 1971-72. Mr. Hart replaces Alec L. Cory (San Diego).
- unanimously reaffirmed the Board's request for adequate funding for the needs of the State Colleges as previously proposed to the Governor and the Legislature.
- authorized the Chancellor to establish a salary shift differential program for selected State College employees; effective July 1, 1971 an increase of 13 cents per hour for the evening shift and 18 cents per hour for night shifts.
- resolved that effective July 1, 1971 the rate of pay for compensable overtime for workweek group 4 employees shall not exceed $8.30 per hour, or such greater amount as may be required by the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act as amended.
- designated Dr. Aurelio de la Vega, professor of music at San Fernando Valley State College, and Dr. Gilbert Geis, professor of sociology at Cal State, Los Angeles, as the 1971 Outstanding Professors. They will receive $1,000 awards from the Joseph M. Schenk Foundation, administered by the California State College Foundation.
- increased the Fall 1971 tuition for all full-time foreign students to $1,110 per year in conformance with the 1971-72 Support Budget approved for the State Colleges. (Previous action by the Board in 1970 left tuition at $600 for all continuing full-time foreign students until 1974-75 and raised tuition to $1,110 for all new foreign students.)
- adopted revised systemwide policy on tenure for academic employees; approved appropriate changes in Title 5.
- adopted procedures governing Board review in cases of dismissal of tenured faculty.
- named three Trustees and three alternates to a Board committee to review recommendation in cases of dismissal of tenured faculty, for a one-year term, as follows: Daniel H. Ridder (Chairman), Alec L. Corey, and W.O. Weissich (San Rafael; alternate members, Gene M. Benedetti (Cotati), Mrs. Philip Conley (Fresno), and William F. McColl (West Covina.)

Sold out for all performances, "The Rainmaker" has "whipped up a real gullywasher," according to reviewer Ray Blakely of the Victorville Daily Press.

Mr. Blakely credits the directing talent of William Slout in jelling the performance of veteran actor Paul Brinegar and CSCSB students to perform at "new heights of professionalism." Mr. Blakely also praises the technical direction of Dierdre McGuire and stage management of Sandi Gustin.

Although no reserve tickets are available theatre buffs may be placed on a waiting list and possibly get tickets at the door.

FACULTY PUBLICATIONS "Why Revolution? (Theories and Analyses)" by Clifford Paynton and Robert Blackey, published by Schenkman Publishing Company, Inc., is now in print. In the 313-page book, co-editors Paynton (sociology) and Blackey (history) have assembled a collection of thought and commentary to promote an objective understanding of the sources of revolution. They have also integrated the material with their own introductions to each section and their own bibliographical essay.

Tonight the ballad of "Cat Ballou" will be told. The Academy-award winning movie starring Jane Fonda and Lee Marvin will screen in PS-10 at 8 p.m. Admission is free to students; 25¢ for faculty, staff and guests.

- adopted policy (adding Section 43572 to Title 5) relating to appointment, promotion and retention of Directors of Athletics and Athletic Coaches.
- authorized the Chancellor to take whatever actions are necessary for the July 1971 pay period within appropriated funds, within the provisions of Section 37 of the Budget Act of 1971.
- amended Title 5, California Administrative Code, to permit extension enrollment in regular course offerings designated by the college, for extension credit, provided eligible regular students have first opportunity to enroll in such courses; authorized the Chancellor to establish and revise procedures relating to such courses.
- endorsed steps taken by the Chancellor to establish performance review procedures for all existing degree major programs; requested that the results of the current review of low-degree-production programs be presented with recommendations to the Board in November at the time of the next consideration of the revised Academic Master Plan. Such review shall be part of future annual master plan presentations.
- rescheduled for the September Board meeting consideration of a general campus speakers policy and the use of student body organization funds for invited speakers.
